The Mails.
BY ATTENDING TO THE FOLLOWING instructions, the work of re-establishing the mails South will be much facilitated.

JOINT RESOLUTION
PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, (two-thirds of both Houses concurring.) That the following article be proposed to the legislatures of the several States, as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of said legislatures, shall be valid as part of the Constitution, namely:

ARTICLE 14.
Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Section 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, the executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Section 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Section 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for the payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss of or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations, and claims shall be held illegal and void.

Section 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

The Spring Session will begin immediately upon the expiration of the former, and continue till the first Wednesday in June, 1867.

It is due to the founders of this Institution, and to all who have contributed to its erection, that they should be informed of its condition and prospects. This cannot be done more definitely, fully or authoritatively than by submitting resolutions recently adopted by the Board of Trustees, and read by their President on Commencement Day, before the large audience assembled in the Presbyterian church.

Resolved: That the Board of Trustees feel it to be a high privilege as well as a grateful and pleasant duty to express their entire satisfaction with the late examination of the pupils of Concord Female College.

They also express their cordial approbation of the energy, success and prosperity with which the Institution has been conducted under the peculiar and trying circumstances of our country.

The Trustees would further cheerfully recommend the Institution, with its able and experienced Faculty to the liberal patronage of an enlightened and christian public.

The next session will commence on the first Monday of September. For information see advertisement, and address,

This Institution, under its charter as a College, was revived on the 15th of January 1866, and supplied, by a resolution of the Trustees, with a corps of experienced Teachers; so that now, with its cheap boarding arrangements, it offers to male pupils every educational facility, from the primary department to a full college course, upon more favorable terms perhaps, than any academy or college in the State.

BRATTONVILLE FEMALE SEMINARY, Three quarters of a mile from Yadkin College, and entirely separate from it, now offers, in its boarding arrangements in the family of the Rev. G. W. This will be a permanent and first class Band for North Carolina, if properly sustained, and sustained, by being engaged at all points in the State, on occasions where sterling music should be a marked feature.

Music for Piano—H. B. Dodworth, Moss, Kent, Botsford, of New York, warm personal friends of Mr. Neave, select and send him all the music for Piano that is new, when intrinsically good, as well as winning and popular; for beginners, medium players and advanced musicians.
