The Mails.

BY ATTENDING TO THE FOLLOWing instructions, the work of re-establishing the mails South will be much facilitated.

According to a late order of the Postmaster General, a Route cannot be contracted for, and a mail established, unless there are at least two acting postmasters ons aid Route at either terminus. If such have not been appointed, see that application should be made by petition immediately. The petition should have a dozen or more signers, and run somewhat thus:

State of .....
County of .....
To the Hon. A. W. Randall, Postmastec General:

Dear Sir:—We, the undersigned, respectfully petition that ..... be appointed (postmaster or postmistress, as the case may be) at ....., County of .....
State of .....

He (or she) can take the oath.

No person who is under twenty-one years of age can be appointed a post master or a postmaster or a postmistress. Single ladies and widows only can be appointed postmistresses.

No person who is under sixteen years of age can act as mail carrier.

All contractors and mail carriers will be required to take the oath.

A mail contractor is required to take the oath but once only. A person having become a contractor and taken the oath, will not henceforth be required to take it again.

A person cannot facilitate his appointment as postmaster by taking the oath in advance, or when making application; this must be done after appointment.

Levan Home,

A Historical Romance of the 19th Century.

BY PHIL WOODLEY, Esq.

This romance, confidently announced as a chaste and elegant story—a master production—will be commenced in the FIELD AND FIRESIDE July 7th 1866.

While the tale, as indicated by its title, involves numerous historical incidents—which by the way are rendered in vivid truthfulness—it is founded upon a plot thrilling in interest, and absorbing in the power and charm of its combinations. Henry W. Miller dec'd. and other distinguished North Carolinians figure prominently in this story.

The author is a gentleman eminent in letters and familiar with all those things of history, society, science and human nature, which wield the great lever of the world of fiction and romance; and we promise our readers that he has left untouched nothing that should have place in a first class performance.

The price of the FIELD AND FIRESIDE is $5.00 for one year; 2.50 for six months; 1.25 for three months. Sample copies containing first portion of "Levan Home" will be sent on receipt of ten cents. Address Wm. B. Smith & Co., 40 and 42, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.
