Levan Home. A Historical Romance of the 19th Century.

By Phil. Woodley, Esq.
This romance confidently announced as a chaste and alegant story—a master production—will be compensed in the Figure AND Figureside July 7th, 1866. While the tale, as indicated by its title, involves numerous historical incidents—which by the way are rendered in vivid truthfulness—it is founded upon a plot thrilling in interest, and absorbing in the power and charm of its combinations. Heavy W. Miller, dec'd, and other distinguished North Carolinians, fignre prominently in this story.

The author is a gentleman eminent in letters and familiar with all those things of history society, science and human nature, which wield the great lever of the eaders that he has left untouched nothing that should have prace in a first class performance.

The price of the FIELD AND FIRESIDE is $5.00 for one year; 2.50 for six months; 1.25 for three months Sample copies containing first portion of "Levan Home" will be sent on receipt of ten cents. Address Wm. B. Sa th & Co., 40 and 42, Fayetteville Street June 28, '66.

WHO WANTS A PIANO?

SEVERAL Patrons of the Concord Female Colleg have requested my aid in securing GOOD PIANOS for their use. This has induced use to make arrangements with some to the best manufacturers, which enable me to farmish instruments of the Figure Class, at reduced prices. I can save each purchaser from $40 to $100... Price likes of the manufacturers will be sent to those who desire them, to aid them in making w'ections.

When selections shall have been made, the money can be sent to me, at my expense, by the Southern Express, and a Piano will be shipped to the Depot the purchaser may designate. Each Piano sold will be fully warranted. Address me at Statesville, N. C. J. M. M. CALDWEI L.
