

express the hope that in the selection by the Convention of a candidate for the Presidency, whose duty it will be, if elected, to preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution, and to execute the laws made in pursuance of its provisions, the public good, and leading and well defined principles will not be sacrificed to the mere purpose of party ascendancy.

In conclusion, gentlemen, permit me to thank you most earnestly for the kind expression of your abiding confidence in me as a public servant, and to assure you that the approval of the people is all that is requisite to make me feel that the efforts I have made to restore the Union on the basis of justice and conciliation have not been altogether in vain. Leaving my cause and myself in their hands, should the continuance and the conclusion of the contest to vindicate and preserve constitutional government be confided by them to able and more worthy hands, I shall cordially acquiesce, as has been my habit, in the decision of the American people.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen, Very respectfully, yours,
ANDREW JOHNSON.

The Old North State

SALISBURY, N. C., JULY 11, 1868.

FOR PRESIDENT:
HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR,
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT:
GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR, OF MISSOURI.

ECONOMY IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE GOVERNMENT; THE REDUCTION OF THE STANDING ARMY AND NAVY; THE ABOLITION OF THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU, & ALL POLITICAL INSTRUMENTALITIES DESIGNED TO SECURE NEGRO SUPREMACY.
DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

IT IS NOT A MERE PARTY TRIUMPH WE SEEK. WE ARE TRYING TO SAVE OUR COUNTRY FROM THE DANGERS WHICH OVERHANG IT.
GOV. SEYMOUR'S ADDRESS.

THE NOMINATIONS.

We raise to our mast head with pleasure to day the names of HORATIO SEYMOUR of New York, and Gen. FRANK P. BLAIR of Missouri, as the National Democratic and Conservative nominees for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States. These are nominations eminently fit to be made—Gov. Seymour has long since established a national reputation as one of the ablest statesmen of this country. His character is in every respect above reproach. He has always been a Democrat of the Jackson school, and as such sustained the government in the late war for the preservation of the government and the restoration of the Union under the Constitution, being what is known as "a war Democrat." He now insists that the solemn pledges of the government, made through Executive proclamations and the unanimous resolves of Congress, that the war was to be waged for those purposes only, shall be carried out. The Southern people desire nothing more. Gen. Blair was formerly a Republican, and as such supported Mr. Lincoln for the Presidency. He was an officer of the federal army and fought gallantly in the late war for the restoration of the Union. But since the Republican party has violated all its pledges to speedily restore the Union, and has practically declared that it is dissolved, he, in company with such men as Andrew Johnson, Chief Justice Chase, J. R. Doolittle, Edgar Cowan, Henry Stanberry, and numerous others of like character and standing, has abandoned that party and is now acting with the Democrats, and Conservatives. The ticket seems to us to combine all the elements of success, and we confidently predict its triumphant election in November next.

THE PLATFORM.

We publish on our first page today the platform adopted by the National Democratic and Conservative Convention which has just concluded its session in New York. This document has been looked for with intense anxiety and will be read with deep interest all over the country. Ordinarily platforms do not amount to much, and are usually so framed as to admit of different constructions, to suit all the various shades of opinion which divide the parties which adopt them. This may, with truth, be said of most of the political platforms heretofore adopted by all the various parties in this country, but this one is not liable to that objection. They are generally too prolix, and this may be urged against the present one. We think the best and most appropriate platform ever adopted by any party in this country, as an expression of its principles and objects, was that adopted by the Union Convention which nominated Bell and Everett in 1860—"The Constitution, the Union and enforcement of the Laws." The present one, we think could have been much improved by studying greater brevity and confining itself more closely to the present practical issues which agitate the country. But where the material and practical portions of a platform are such as meet with our approval we would not withhold our co-operation with the party making it because we could not approve of and assent to all of those parts which are merely speculative. As we understand it we approve of all those parts of the present platform which relate to the practical questions now at issue, and with many of the other portions of it. The preamble we regard as eminently appropriate, and we cannot see how any conservative man can object to any thing which it contains. All conservative men claim, with this platform, that "the Constitution is the foundation of and limitation of the powers of the Government." All of them, with it, recognize the fact that "the questions of slavery and secession have been settled for all time to come by the war, or the voluntarily action of the Southern States in Constitutional Conventions assembled, never to be renewed or re-agitated," and to no part of the platform will the Southern people subscribe more heartily than this. Having made these declarations the platform then demands that all the States shall be immediately restored to their rights in the Union under the Constitution and be remitted at once to civil government; and an amnesty for all past political offenses and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens; the payment of the public debt of the United States as soon as practicable; the honest application of all monies drawn from the people by taxation to that purpose except so much as may be requisite for the necessities of the government economically administered, and that when the obligations of the government do not expressly state otherwise upon their face they be paid in the lawful money of the United States. To all of this we most heartily subscribe. Since the foregoing, together with the platform, was in type we have received the National Intelligencer of the 9th which contains a corrected copy of the platform, in which the merely speculative portions in relation to the theory of the government are omitted. The platform as finally adopted, though prolix, confines itself to the practical issues between the two parties, and to an arraignment of the party in power for its abuses. We think the omission of those parts was wise, as since the abandonment of the doctrine of secession there is no practical importance in the difference between the theories of the old Whig and Democratic parties. We will publish the platform as finally promulgated by the Convention, together with further comments, in our next.

The North British Review for June has recently been issued by the Leonard Scott Publishing Company, and completes their series of publications for the quarter just closed. This Review is a great favorite with many readers; the editor has of late years shown good judgment in the selection of subjects, and it has ceased to be the organ of mere local interests. Of the eight articles in the present number, those on the History of Writing, on Sleep, and on Louis IX. of France (Saint Louis), will be acceptable to all classes of readers. The first named article give an account of fac-similes of national manuscripts lately published by authority in England, and is full of antiquarian information of the most readable kind, and the paper on Louis IX. is one of marked biographical and historical interest. Other articles are—Mistral's Mireio (a review, with many extracts, of a very pleasing Provençal poem), the Greek Idyllic Poets, Memoirs of Baron Bunsen, Schools and Universities, Churches and Creeds. He must be hard to please who finds this number dull reading.

DIRECTORS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA RAIL ROAD.

Gov. Holden has appointed the following Directors of the North Carolina Railroad: Wm. A. Smith, of Johnston; Wm. Sloan, of Mecklenburg; W. F. Henderson, of Davidson; John McDonald, of Cabarrus; G. W. Welker, of Guilford; Willie D. Jones, of Wake; Silas Burns, of Chatham; John R. Harrison, of Wake; Byron Laffin, of Pitt, State Proxy.

We take the following proceedings of the meeting of the Stockholders on Thursday, from the Raleigh Sentinel:

North Carolina Railroad.—The annual meeting of Stockholders of this Road was held in Tucker Hall, on yesterday.

On motion of John L. Morehead, Esq., Geo. W. Mordecai, Esq., was called to the Chair, and Messrs. F. G. Stagg and R. F. Simonton appointed Secretaries.

A quorum of stock not appearing, the meeting adjourned until 3 o'clock, P. M.

Three O'clock.—A quorum of stock was present, viz: 6,458 shares, in person and by proxy.

On motion of Mr. W. F. Henderson, the temporary officers, appointed in the morning, were made permanent.

Mr. Byron Laffin presented his credentials as State proxy.

The President read his report, and a lengthy and excited discussion ensued upon the question of its reception, the State Proxy objecting to certain alleged offensive (or "disloyal") expressions in it. Mr. Turner replied in a scathing and pungent speech.

Finally, all the reports were referred to a Committee of three, viz: Messrs. K. P. Battle, John I. Shaver and Geo. French.

Meeting adjourned until 8 o'clock, P. M.

We learn from a private source that D. A. Davis, John L. Morehead, W. A. Caldwell and Thomas Webb were elected Directors by the stockholders; also that at a meeting of the directors, Wm. A. Smith, of Johnson county, was elected President of the Road, — Lee, Treasurer, and Albert Johnson, Superintendent.

From the Wilmington Journal. CANBY'S LAST ACT OF TYRANNY.

General CANBY signalized the termination of his career as Military Commander of this District by issuing an order annulling the appointment of directors and proxies by Governor Worth in the State Railroads and Canal. As these appointments were made at the usual time, and the day of meeting of the Stockholders of one of the roads, Atlantic and North Carolina, had passed, they are all legitimate, and as the order was issued upon the day North Carolina ratified the Howard Amendment, even admitting Canby's right to interfere at any time, it is very probable that it no longer existed. Here is the order:

HEADQ'RS 2ND MILITARY DISTRICT, }
CHARLESTON, S. C., July 2, 1868. }
GENERAL ORDERS, }
No. 125. }

The following appointments of directors and proxies for railroads on the part of the State of North Carolina, made by his Excellency Jonathan Worth, late Provisional Governor of North Carolina, on the 30th June, ultimo, are hereby disapproved and annulled, as in violation of the spirit and intent of General Orders No. 84, of May 16th, 1868, from these Headquarters:

Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad.—Directors, Lewis C. Desnoed, John D. Whitford, James M. Parrott, John D. Flanner, Alonzo T. Jenkins, William Murdock, John L. Morehead, Isaac Ramsey; Proxy, George W. Dill.

Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.—Directors, Thomas D. Hogg, John Norfleet, Edward Kiddler; Proxy, A. A. McKay.

North Carolina Railroad.—Directors, O. G. Parsley, Josiah Turner, R. B. Hayward, Peter Adams, J. M. Coffin; Proxy, John Berry.

Western North Carolina Railroad.—Directors, A. S. Merrimon, Andrew J. Cowles, G. F. Davidson, F. E. Shober, A. M. Erwin, S. McD. Tate, R. L. Patterson, A. M. Powell; Proxy, O. G. Ford.

Albany and Chesapeake Canal.—Directors, Peyton T. Henry, D. D. Ferebee, Thomas J. Jarvis; Proxy, Charles Latham. By Command of Bvt. Major-General Ed. R. S. CANBY. LOUIS V. CAZARL. Aid-de-Camp. Capt. Asst. Adj. Genl.

New Orleans, July 7, P. M.—The seats of seventeen Democratic members of the House, of whom ten are from the parish and city of Orleans, are contested. They are not allowed a voice in the proceedings while the contest is pending.

REV. BARNAS BEARS, D. D., agent of the Peabody Educational Fund, in an address in Boston, on Monday evening, gave the result of his observations in the South. He thought that both sections of the country misunderstood and misinterpreted each other; that the work of politicians, both in the North and in the South, is pernicious, and that what the Southern States really need is the hearty co-operation of the business men of the North to afford them capital to vitalize their energies.—The Southern men look with distrust to the military and to those connected with the Bureau, but men from the North with average civility and good sense are cordially received among them. As to the matter of negro suffrage, the white population, as a rule, are opposed to it—at least to universal suffrage. He thought, however, they would willingly agree to some method of impartial suffrage, which would work advantageously for both races.—Richmond Whig.

IMPORTANT TO TOBACCO GROWERS.

The following in relation to a new method of destroying the tobacco worm has been handed to us by a gentleman connected with the tobacco trade, with the request that it should be published: Mr. William Moore, an old tobacco raiser of Dyer county, informs me that if you plant a few Jamestown weeds in your tobacco fields and sweeten with good sugar one pint of water, and then put once of Cobalt into the water and then drop four drops of the mixture into the bloom of the Jamestown weed, you can kill every tobacco fly on your place ere they hatch the worms. By destroying this pestiferous fly you can raise your tobacco crop with one-tenth the labor and attention now required.—Lynch News.

During the rebellion, Gen. Van Dorn, of the rebel army, was killed at Nashville by Dr. Peters for an alleged insult to his wife. The affair cast a gloom over the whole family of Dr. Peters, although he was justified by law. Dr. Peters, became a strict church member, and received his wife back, but never recovered from the gloom that overshadowed his life. A short time ago his son committed suicide, and a few days ago his daughter, a beautiful and accomplished young lady, arrived in St. Louis for the purpose of taking the veil and devoting her life to religious seclusion. She prefers living at a distance from the scenes of her family misfortunes, and in time will take the irrevocable vows of a nun.—Forney's Press.

THE CAROLINA FARMER.

BELIEVING that the interests of the Farmers and Planters of this section demand the publication of a periodical to be devoted to the advancement of Agriculture in the two Carolinas, we have determined to establish such a periodical under the title of THE CAROLINA FARMER, and will issue the first number as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained to pay a reasonable share of the expense of publication.
The Farmer will be issued monthly at $2 per annum, in advance; will contain not less than thirty-two large double-column pages of reading matter, bound in handsome covers; and in typographical execution will not be surpassed by any Agricultural Monthly in the country.
Being determined to do whatever energy will accomplish in making the Farmer worthy the support of the intelligent Planters and Farmers of North Carolina and South Carolina; and desiring to introduce it into every county in those States, we wish to employ active Agents at every Post office, to whom the most liberal inducements will be offered.
