THE RADICAL NOMINEES.

The nominations made by the Radical nominating Convention, just assembled in this city, will strike the people of the State with surprise.

As a North Carolina ticket, the only thing approaching respectability or propriety, as a whole, is the nomination for the Supreme Court, yet we consider that bench greatly weakened by the ticket.

The State ticket, as a whole, is the most vulnerable which could have been named. Holding the factor of election in North Carolina, twice beaten for Governor before the white people of the State.

Nothing would do for the rebels but hanging. We are told, he declared, if he had his way, he would begin with James Buchanan, then with Jeff Davis and Andrew Johnson, and besides these he would hang every rebel Governor who aided the war.

A NEW SENSATION.

Rev. Dr. N. Colver, whose principal of a school in Richmond, Va., for educating colored men for the ministry, writes to a northern paper that a young white man had arrived there from North Carolina, who had been stripped by the rebels of everything except his watch, and that he had sold this to secure money to defray his expenses.

Stripped by the rebels! When the rebels had left him behind our informant saw him as they were retreating from Fayetteville.

THE TRIAL OF MR. TYNG.

The following trial of the Rev. Stephen H. Tyng was concluded on Tuesday, by the closing arguments of Mr. Fullerton for the defense and of Mr. Nash for the prosecution.

It is a trial of the two parties into which the Protestant Episcopal Church is now divided. One party acknowledges the validity of the ordination and existence of other churches and denominations, and seeks in common with them to preach the Gospel and to save souls.

These parties are known and familiar to all as the high and low church parties. This question involves liberty of speech, freedom of conscience—yes, the principles for which martyrs went to the stake and gladly sacrificed their lives.

He then read over the testimony of Drs. Mollenberg and Tyng, touching clergyman preaching in other parishes beside their own without consent of the members of their parishes, and also, in relation to the use of the prayer book at special services without responses in cases where books were not to be had.

COTTON FRAUDS—GEN. GRANT IMPLICATED.

Memphis, February 24.—The anti-slavery feeling in the courts regarding the forcing of citizens in 1862 to sell cotton to army speculators at stipulated prices or to have the same confiscated, has brought to light important facts.

Mr. Calhoun's library was lately sold, with some other personal property, to satisfy debts, at about $250. Whole shelves of books were knocked down for from four to six dollars a shelf.

THE NEW RECONSTRUCTION BILL.

Our readers have already been advised, by telegraph of this fact, that both Houses of Congress have passed the Bill providing for a majority of genuine voting, only, on the adoption of the Constitution, to be submitted by the Southern seceded Conventions, shall be necessary to their ratification.

But the Conservatives of North Carolina must take it in its new form and defeat the new Constitution by a direct vote. Let them bear in mind the new registration fourteen days before the election.

AN IMPARTIAL AND UNPREJUDICED TRIAL.

The forthcoming trial of the President is probably the only case on record in which the tribunal was, virtually, sworn in advance to convict. The immediate issue in the case, and the point on which the decision will hinge, is the constitutionality or unconstitutionality of the Tenure-of-Office Law.

TROUBLEMAKING SAMBO.

The negro makes trouble wherever he is found. They have their little troubles with him at the North. While we are having our big troubles with him at the South, the little town of Spencerport, N. Y., is in a state of excitement and agitation on the subject of a negro.

GEN. GRANT'S MOVEMENTS.

If any assurance is desired concerning the intention of Gen. Grant in this crisis, and there is no one here who understands a doubt, we have it in the fact that he has removed the old guard of the War Department, the 18th infantry, and detailed men of his own body guard, the 5th cavalry, to do the duty.

Disappointed.

The dusty and deleterious dunnage were in high odor in the galleries at Tucker Hall last night, and all eyes for the nomination of an American president of African race, but by some strange accident the claims of the colored candidate were mostly overlooked in the distribution of prizes to the great banquet of the "negro" banquet.

Not only were the rising aspirations of coal-black, like James Harris, and Mahogonyus a Lee Hood, the Egyptian, unconsciously overlooked, but even the claims of Galloway, slayer of a negro, were completely overlooked in the distribution of prizes to the great banquet of the "negro" banquet.
