[PUBLIC No. 31.]

AN ACT.

TO EXEMPT CERTAIN MANUFACTURES FROM INTERNAL TAX, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That sections ninety-four and ninety-five of the act entitled "An act to provide internal revenue to support the government, to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes," approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, and all acts and parts amendatory of said sections, be, and the same are hereby, repealed; except only so much of the said sections and amendments thereto as relates to tab tages imposed thereby on gas made of coal wholly or in part, or of any other material; on illumination, lubricating, or other mineral oils or articles the products of the distillation, redistillation, or refining of crude petroleum, or of a single distillation of coal, shave, peat, asphaltum, or other bituminous substances, on wines therein described, and on snuff and all the other manufactures of tobacco, including cigarettes, cigars, and cheroots: Provided, That the products of petroleum and bituminous substances hereinbefore mentioned, except illuminating gas, shall, from and after the passage of this act, be taxed at one-half the rates fixed by the said section ninety-four.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to repeal or interfere with any law, regulation, or provision for the assessment or collection of any tax which, under existing laws, may accrue before the first day of April, anno Domini eighteen hundred and sixty-eight. And nothing herein contained shall be construed as a repeal of any tax upon machinery or other articles which have been or may be delivered on contracts made with the United States prior to the passage of this act.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That after the first day of June next, no drawback of internal taxes paid on manufactures shall be allowed on the exportation of any article of domestic manufacture on which there is no internal tax at the time of exportation; nor shall such drawback be allowed in any case unless it shall be proved by sworn evidence in writing, to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, that the tax had been paid, and that such articles of manufacture were, prior to the first day of April, eighteen hundred and sixty eight, actually purchased or actually manufactured and contracted for, to be delivered for such exportation; and no claim for such drawback, or for any drawback of internal tax on exportations made prior to the passage of this act, shall be paid unless presented to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue before the first day of October, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That every person, firm, or corporation who shall manufacture by hand or machinery any goods, wares, or merchandise (breadstuffs and unmanufactured lumber excepted) not otherwise specifically taxed as such, or who shall be engaged in the manufacture or preparation for sale of any articles or compounds not otherwise specifically taxed, or shall put up for sale in pounds not otherwise taxed, or shall put up for sale in packages with his own name or trade mark thereon any articles or compound not otherwise specifically taxed, and whose annual sales exceed five thousand dollars, shall pay for every additional thousand dollars in excess of five thousand dollars, two dollars, and the amount of sales in excess of the sum of five thousand dollars per annum shall be returned quarter-yearly to the assistant assessor, and the tax on the excess of five thousand dollars shall be assessed by the assessor and paid quarter-yearly in the months of January, April, July, and October of each year, as other taxes are assessed and paid. And the first assessment herein provided for shall be made in the month of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, for the three months next preceding.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That every person engaged in carrying on the business of a distiller, who shall defraud, or attempt to defraud, the United States of the tax on the spirits distilled by him, or any part thereof shall forfeit the distillery and distilling apparatus used him, and all distilled spirits, and all raw materials for the production of distilled spirits, and in the distillery and on the distillery premises, and shall, on conviction, be fined not less than five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than three years.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That if any officer or agent appointed or acting under the authority of any revenue law of the United States shall be guilty of gross neglect in the discharge of any of the duties of his office, or shall conspire or collude with any other person to defraud the United States, or shall make opportunity for any person to defraud the United States, or shall do, or omit to do any act with intent to enable any other person to defraud the United States, or shall make or sign any false certificate or return in any case where he is by law or regulation required to make a certificate or return, or having knowledge or information of the violation of any revenue law by any person, or of fraud committed by any person against the United States under any revenue law of the United States, shall fail to report, in writing, such knowledge or information to his next superior officer, and to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, he shall, on conviction, be fined not less than one thousand dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, and shall be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than three years.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That no compromise, or discontinuance, or nolle prosequi, of any prosecution under this act shall be allowed without the permission in writing of the Secretary of the Treasury and the Attorney General.

APPROVED March, 31, 1868.

THE RADICALS IN THIS STATE QUAKING.

The Standard, of this city, we learn, suppressed the telegram received by the Associated Press, from Washington, on Thursday night.—That telegram was as follows:

"The Congressional Executive Committee have declined taking steps to induce Holden to withdraw from the North Carolina Gubernatorial race. The alleged cause of non-action is the absence of many members."

We are not in the secrets of the Radicals. We know nothing of the movement in Washington alluded to in the above telegram, but it indicates, most clearly, a conviction, on the part of the Radicals, that, with Holden in the field, the party and the Constitution are BEATEN IN NORTH CAROLINA, beyond redemption.

It is too late to remedy the matter. Even if they could rule Holden off the track, it would be of no avail.—The white men of North Carolina are aroused. The decree has gone forth, that the white men of North Carolina shall rule the State. The new Constitution has been weighed in the ballances and found wanting.

Offensive as Holden is to the people of the State, we believe that the new Constitution, if properly weighed by the white men of all parties, must be equally so. No white man, who examines it with proper care, can vote for it, who is not a Radical. The Constitution is ten fold more objectionable than the Reconstruction acts require. Congress required only negro suffrage and the adoption of the Howard amendment—all bad enough in all conscience, but the new Constitution makes the negro the equal, IN ALL RESPECTS, with the white man—puts him in the jury box and into every office in the State, along with the white man, without any restrictive qualification or condition, which secures capacity or honesty in the jury box or in office. It will prohibit the General Assembly from enrolling whites and blacks in separate Companies. It will PROHIBIT the General Assembly from establishing separate schools for blacks and whites. It provides for electing the Judges by the people, making it a political office. Finally, it more than quadruples the expenses of the State and county governments.

When the Northern States stoutly and persistently refuse to grant universal negro suffrage and to admit negro equality in those States, will the white voters of North Carolina degrade themselves, and their children, by voting for a Constitution which forces negro equality upon us, in this State, even at the bidding of Congress? Congress has not yet, by law, forced negro equality upon us, whatever it may have designed, but the new Constitution DOES! Will the white men of the State, by their own votes, consent to negro equality? Never! Never!—Sentinel.

NEGRO RULE.—The following is a picture drawn by a Northern Radical newspaper of the negro rule in St. Domingo, after they have had fifty years of experience as rulers of about the fairest spot on earth:

"The latest news from San Domingo is that the country is in anarchy, and the prisons are full. Of course there must be some sort of governing force in existence to keep the prisons full; but this is probably about the full extent of its power. It is painful to see such a rich and charming part of the world given up to ruin and savagery. It is grievous to see the control of such a country in the hands of such a people. But we see no help for it. And we may rest satisfied that if there be any lower depths of human degradation than that which they have reached, it will not require them many years to sink to it. If the population would resort to cannibalism, and devour each other out of existence, it would probably be the best thing that could happen."

"'Tis Pitiful—'tis wondrous pitiful";
To see Holden down in the very dust of humiliation, imploring congress to remove his disabilities—and then to see the Radicals in congress talking about asking him to get out of the way! They have no use for the old scotch sinner,—his penitence and abasement come too late.

"Git out de way, ole Dan Tucker,
You's too late to git your supper!"

From Washington—Sergeant Bates arrives,—is enthusiastically received,—Unfurls his flag from the Dome of the Capitol,—No Impeachment Court today.

Washington, April 14, M.—Sergeant Bates has just arrived, and meets an enthusiastic reception.

In consequence of Judge Stanbery's illness, the Court adjourned to 12 o'clock to-morrow, with but two dissenting voices.

After adjournment of the Court, the Senate continued in session.

The House returned to the Chamber, but there was no quorum present.

The adjournment will add eclat to the Sergeant Bates' ceremonies. He unfurls his flag from the dome of the Capitol at 2 o'clock.

From Washington.

Washington, April 14, P. M.—Sergeant Bates crossed Long Bridge at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Eldridge, Representative from Wisconsin, welcomed Bates in a speech.

The weather was unfavorable, but the crowd was very large.

Bates wore the jacket and pants presented to him in South Carolina, and sash presented to him in Montgomery, Ala. He carried a horn cup, presented to him by the ladies of Vicksburg, Miss., and his flag.

The President met him at the threshold of the Mansion, saying: "All I want to do is to welcome you and your flag."

Bates received an entertainment at the White House, and proceeded to the Metropolitan Hotel, where he is quartered, and then proceed to the Capitol, where he failed to secure admittance!

After leaving the Capitol, Bates proceeded to the Washington monument.

E. O. Perrin, of Tennesse spoke, and said that had Bates Carried a negro on his shoulders, from Vicksburg, they would have allowed him to place THE NEGRO ON THE GODDESS OF LIBERTY!

It is understood that the Departments will be closed to-morrow, in honor of unveiling Lincoln's statue.

Gen. Sherman was before the Impeachment Managers to-day, who, having power to examine witnesses on oath, without restraint of Court rules, elicited all facts not yet known to the public.

The Capitol authorities are shifting the responsibility of denying access to Bates.

After the adjournment of the Court, the Senate occupied itself in discussing the printing of extra copies of the trial, until Executive Session, and then adjourned.

Virginia Convention, &c., &c.

Richmond, April 14, P. M.—An article was adopted, providing that any amendment to the Constitution shall first be adopted by the Legislature, and then referred to the succeeding Legislature, which may refer it to the people for ratification.

A Convention shall be held every twenty years.

An article was adopted, declaring all citizens to possess equal civil and political rights and public privileges.

A report, re-districting the State for Congressmen, making one Congressman elective by the State at large, was adopted.

The Convention rescinded the resolution to adjourn to-day.

The Republican nominations are being made all over the State.

In Caroline county, a meeting nominated Hawkshurst for Governor, and one white and one negro member to the Legislature.

In Hanover county, William James was nominated for Congress, and one negro member to the Legislature.

Gen. Schofield, to-day, appointed Wm. N. Berkely Mayor of Alexandria, and a full set of city officers and Councilmen for that city.

He also appointed a new city Council for Fredericksburg.

Congress—Impeachment.

Washington, April 10, P. M.—The Senate immediately proceeded to impeachment.

Judge Curtis concluded at half past two, when Gen. Thomas was called for the Defence.

Thomas was stopped by the Prosecution, in describing his interview with the President, when the orders of removal and appointment were handed him. The objection was elaborately argued by Stanbery and Evarts, for the Defence, and Butler and Bingham for the prosecution.

The Chief Justice submitted the question, in the first instance and the Managers were defeated—42 to 10. The nays were Cameron, Chandler, Corbeen, Cragin, Drake, Harlan, Howard, Nye, Ramsay, and Thayer.

Sumner broke ranks for the first time, on this question.

Court adjourned.

From Washington.

Washington, April 10, P. M.—All at the Cabinet, except Thomas.

Michigan defeats the negro Suffrage Constitution by over 30,000!!!

Patent movements are afloat, looking to Hancock's nomination.

Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, for the first time in eight years, has elected a Democratic Circuit Judge.

[Judge Curtis' argument to-day, was powerful. An abstract would give a poor idea of its force.]

The testimony of Gen. Thomas to-day, elicited nothing new, beyond that the President had not instructed Gen. Thomas to use force. When Thomas was arrested, he went first to the President, who said that he was right—the case was now in Court, where he wanted it.

The ruling of the Senate (42 to 10) will let in evidence of General Sherman and the Cabinet officers.

☞ The Tarboro Southerner learns that the Loyal Leaguers at Rocky Mount had a glorious time of it one night last week. Such wool-pulling and gouging never were seen before.
