THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

The following is the platform adopted by the Democratic National Convention on Tuesday. It was reported by Mr. Murphy, of New York, chairman of the committee on resolutions;

PLATFORM.

The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, discrimination and justice of the people, standing upon the constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranteeing the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war, or the voluntary action of the Southern States in Constitutional Conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First. The immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second. Amnesty for all past political offences and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third. The payment of the public debt of the United States as soon as practicable; and that all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the government economically administered, be honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the bondholder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign Powers to punish them for alleged crimes committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as it in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified the right of trial jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trial and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress, as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against on most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption of homestead lands, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed, necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

THE IRISH WELL DIGGER.

Not a great while ago an Irishman was employed in a village where he was well known to dig a well, pro bono publico. The contract was made that he was to be paid a certain sum per foot, and warrant a free supply of water. At it he went with a will, and his daily progress was intently watched by interested parties. Early and late he delved away faithfully, deep down in the earth full of confidence in the speedy completion of his labors.

He had reached the depth of about twenty-five feet, and soon to "strike water." Early one morning Pat repaired to the scene of his labors, and, horrible to tell, it had caved in and was nearly full. He gazed with rueful visage upon the wreck, and thought of the additional labor the accident would cause him. After a moment's reflection, he looked carelessly around and saw that no one was stirring, then quickly divesting himself of hat and coat, he carefully hung them on the windlass, and speedily made tracks for a neighboring eminence which overlooked the village. Here, hiding amid the undergrowth, he quietly awaited the progress of events.

As the morning wore on, the inhabitants began to rouse and stir out. Several were attracted to the well, thinking that as Pat's hat and coat were there he was of course below at work. Soon the alarm was raised that the well had caved and that Pat was in it. A crowd collected and stood horrified at the fate of poor Pat. A brief consultation was held, and soon spades and other implements were brought to dig out the remains of the unfortunate man. To work they went with a will; when one set became wearried with the unusual labor a dozen ready hands grasped the implements and dug lustily. Pat quietly looked on from his retreat on the eminence, while the whole village stood around the well and watched with breathless suspense the work go bravely on. As the diggers approached the bottom, the excitement of the bystanders grew intense, and they collected as near as safety would admit, gazing fearfully down into the well. With great care and precaution the dirt was dug away, and when the bottom was at length reached, no Pat was to be found. The crowd, before so anxious, gradually relaxed into a broad grin, which broke forth in uproarious merriment when the veritable Pat walked up with a smiling countenance and addressed the crest fallen diggers, who now stood weary and soiled with their labors.

"Be jabbers, gintlemen, and its Patrick Fagan sure that is much obleged to yees for doin' of that nice little job of work!"

The effect can be better imagined than described as the most active of the young men slunk off, several low breathed mutterings broke fourth that sounded very much like SOLD.

Through the kindly aid of his fellow citizens, Pat soon finished his well, and it remains among the monuments of his genius to this day.

MR. ROBBINS' SPEECH.—We have the pleasure of publishing this morning, in connection with the sketch of Senate proceedings on Thursday afternoon the admirable remarks of Mr. Robbins, the able Senator from Rowan, on the Howard Amendment.—They speak the sentiments and feelings of our true people. We thank Mr. Robbins for them, and commend them to the perusal of our readers. Sentinel.

40 Years Before the Public.

THE SOUTHERN

HEPATIC PILLS,

That old, long known and well tried remedy for all Bilious diseases, caused by a

DISEASED LIVER.

They are made and sold by G. W. DEEMS the discoverer, who has removed to Baltimore, Md., where he can have access to the purest and best medicines, on the most favorable terms. He will always keep on hand a large supply, and will sell to his customers, wholesale and retail, at the shortest notice.

In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort. They contain one article which has probably never before been used as a medicine, and which is a powerful agent in cleansing the Liver, (which gives them an advantage over every other Pill heretofore offered to the public.) The composition used in these Pills is carefully prepared by the hand of the discoverer, and may be used by the most feeble patient in the most delicate situation, either male or female; and from their peculiar combination are highly strengthening, mild in their action on the bowels, and indeed, in a climate like ours where colds and coughs are almost an unfailing consequence of the sudden changes to which all are subject, every one at all liable to suffer from the influence of these causes, will find the greatest security in having his liver and bowels well cleansed by these invaluable Pills.

Where these Pills are known, especially in the southern States, where they have been circulated so extensively, they need no recommendation—their merits are so well known by their results, which have given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They therefore are destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where bilious diseases are so prevalent. The advantage in this treatment therefore, is, that a cure must be radical and complete without the necessity of breaking down the system in one part to remove a disease in another.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by Mail or Express.

PRICE—Per one box, 25 cts.—Do. $2.50—Half Gross, $10—One Gross, $18—Three Gross, $50—Five Gross, $75. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine or it will be sent C. O. D. Orders should be addressed to where they will be promptly attended to.

And all Points in the Great West.

By this great route passengers have only of Cars between Washington City and Indianapolis, two changes to Cincinnati, and three to St. Louis.

TWO CHANGES

Time from Washington to Indianapolis 36 hours; Cincinnati 28 hours; and St. Louis 50 hours; Cario 52 hours; and Memphis, Tenn., 62 hours.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and connecting roads are the only routes which run check baggage through from Washington City to all points West.—Passengers should be sure to ask for tickets via Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, as it is the nearest and most direct route. Passengers purchasing Western thro' tickets have the privilege to visit Baltimore and then resume their journey West, via Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

☞ Parties wishing to Emigrate to any of the Western or South-Western States can, by getting up a party of 10 full Passengers and upwards, procure Emigrant Tickets of JESSE FOSTER, Esq., agent, North Carolina, at Salisbury, for—

Indianapolis, Ind	Chicago, Ill.
Cincinnati, Ohio,	St. Louis, Mo.
Memphis, Tenn.,	Napoleon, Ark.,
New Orleans, La.,	Padeuah, Ky.,

at greatly reduced prices.

Passengers should in all cases purchase Through tickets from the place they start from to where they are going; as by so doing they will save from $5 to $10 in money, besides they are not subject to annoyance in reducing baggage and paying transfer charges. By this Route, where ever a Passenger has purchased through tickets the different companies assume all charges of transfers of Passengers and baggage. ☞Every passenger is allowed 100 lbs. of baggage free. All over twelve years are full Passengers. Between 6 and 12 years pay half price. All under 6 are free.
