The New York Times.

Enlargement of the Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly Times.

The Largest and Cheapest Paper in the United States.

THE NEW YORK TIMES HAS BEEN ENlarged to the size of the London Times.

Each number contains eight pages of seven columns each—or fifty-six columns in all—making it the largest newspaper in the United States.

The Times will contain regularly:

Full Congressional Reports; Reports of the Legislature; Messages and Public Documents; Reports of Courts and Public Meetings; European News in Full; Foreign and Domestic Correspondence; News from all parts of the world; Political and General Editorials; Literary News, Selections and Miscellany.

Everything possible will be done to make the Times the most valuable and interesting Family Newspaper in the United States. Its price will remain unchanged, in spite of the fact that its size and contents have been increased one-fourth. The following are the prices of the several editions, payable in all cases in advance.

These prices are invariable. Club rates are discontinued. We have no travelling Agents. Remit in Checks or Post Office Money Orders if possible. Address H. J. RAYMOND & CO.

SCALE OF DEPRECIATION.

The following bill passed during the present session:

A bill to be entitled An Act to establish a Scale of Depreciation of Confederate Currency.

WHEREAS, By an ordinance of the Convention, entitled "An ordinance declaring what laws and ordinances are in force, and for other purposes," ratified on the 18th day of October, A. D. 1865, it is made the duty of the General Assembly to provide a scale of depreciation of the Confederate currency from the time of its first issue to the end of the war; and it is further therein declared that "all executory contracts, solvable in money, whether under seal or not, made after the depreciation of said currency below the 1st day of May, 1865, and not ratified, (except official bonds and penal bonds payable to the State,) shall be deemed to have been made with the understanding that they were solvable in money of the said currency," subject nevertheless to evidence of a different intent of the parties in the contract; therefore,

"Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same," That the following scale of depreciation be and the same is hereby adopted and established as the measure of value of one gold dollar in Confederate currency, for each month, and the fractional parts of the month of December, 1864, from the 1st day of November 1863, to the 1st day of May 1865, to wit:

"Scale of depreciation of Confederate Currency, the gold dollars being the unit and measure of value, from Nov. 1st 1862, to May 1, 1865."

And whereas, many grave and difficult disputes may arise between executors, administrators, guardians and trustees, and their legatees distributees, wards and cestui que trust, in the settlement of their accounts and trusts arising from the depreciation of Confederate currency, State treasury notes and bank notes, incident to and growing out of the late war, and that law suits and expensive litigation may be obviated.

Be it therefore enacted, That in all such cases the parties are hereby empowered to form a full and perfect statement of the case in such cases which case shall be submitted to the discretionary action of any judges of the Superior Courts, chosen by the parties who is hereby authorized to consider and determine the same, according to equity and good conscience. Provided however, That no part of this section shall be construed to stop or hinder any person from proceeding in the usual course of law, if he shall deem the same necessary.

The Cosmopolite.

ON THE FIRST OF JANUARY WE WILL commence the publication, in the city of Baltimore, of a monthly literary Magazine. There is no publication of this character now issued South of New York city, and the choosing of the war has left a large portion of the people of the country with no literary representative.

The Cosmopolite will be devoted to literature, art, science, editorial reading, and will shall number among its contributors some of the first literary men of the South, with others from the North, and from London and Paris.

All matter and original will be carefully selected from the newest and best of the English, French and German Publications, and its Editors will spare no effort or expense, to make it rank with the very first Magazines of the country.

As its name imports, we have established the Cosmopolite upon no sectional basis. We hope to make it the organ of general literature alone; and will be uninfluenced by any party or clique whatever. It will be mailed to subscribers in any part of the country upon receipt of the following

NEW LIFE, TALENT AND ENERGY.

SPLENDID ARRAY OF CONTRIBUTORS.

ENLARGED AND IMPROVED.

Mrs. Belle Z. Spencer having purchased an interest in THE SATURDAY EVENING POST, and Mr. Edmund Benson having withdrawn from the paper, THE POST passed into the management of a NEW FIRM, who are determined to infuse fresh life, talent and energy into its columns. The regular members, EMERSON BENNETT, Author of "Forest Rose," "The Bohemian," "Clara Moreland," &c., &c., has been engaged, at a great expense, as a regular contributor, and will WRITE EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE POST.

Mr. Bennett will begin a continued story in the first number of the new year. It will be called

THE PHANTOM OF THE RHINE; A TALE OF THE RHINE.

This story will run through from four to fifteen numbers, and be a story of the early settlement of Kentucky, including adventures with the Indians in that romantic region, which was generally call'd by the pioneers of civilization "the dark and bloody ground."

The Post is edited by Mrs. BELLA Z. SPENCER, who will also contribute a continuous story in the course of the year, entitled

GENEVIEVE POWE

One columns will be further supplied with original contributions by a

Yadkin College,

NEAR THE YADKIN RIVER BANK

NINE MILES FROM LEXINGTON, DAVIDSON CO., N. C.

This Institution, under its charter as a College, was revived on the 15th of January 1866, and supplied, by a resolution of the Trustees, with a corps of experienced Teachers; so that now, with its cheap boarding arrangements, it offers to male pupils every educational facility, from the primary department to a full college course, upon more favorable terms perhaps, than any academy or college in the State.

DAVIDSVILLA FEMALE SEMINARY,

Three quarters of a mile from Yadkin College, and entirely separate from it, now offers, in its boarding arrangements in the family of the Rev. G. W. Hasty, and in its scientific and literary departments, unusual attractions to young ladies who desire to acquire a finished education, embracing music, and other feminine accomplishments.

For brief circulars, giving particulars in relation to either the College or the Seminary, address the
