MADAME CARLOTTA POZZONI.-The above-named lady will commence a series of concerts in our city commencing Friday, April 20th. Madame Pozzoni has delighted the citizens of Newbern during the past winter months, and has just concluded a most brilliant cagagement of fifteen nights in Wilmington. She will be assisted by Mr. H. B. Coy, Baritone, and Messrs. Worsley and Reardon, on the piano and violin. The Goldsboro' News, referring to their concerts in that city, speaks thus:

The Concert Last Night .- A Complete last night to hear that brilliant lyrigarfiste Madame Pozzoni, and the talented assistants accompanying her. The concert opened with a grand overture by Messrs. Worsley and Reardon, on piano and violin, execution extorted a round of hearty applause, as did their succeeding instrumentation. But the great feature of the evening was the vocal efforts of Madame Pozzoni and Mr. Coy, who, whether in ductt or solo, exhibited not only fine mastery of for ordinary ballad or even opera purposes, is joined a rounded, well modulated sweetness which is sufficient to invest any song with a charmed influence. Besides, her action is of that almost perfect type which is rarely displayed by others than singers who have devoted years of unremitted study to music as a real science. Of the tenor and basso, Mr. Coy, we must speak in terms of the highest commendation. The whole affair was a success and attracted not only the largest, but most appreciative and fashionable assemblage we have D. B. BRIDGFORD, A. MYERS, WM. MYERS. seen honor any entertainment in this city. Mme. Pozzoni gives her third, and, positively last grand concert this (Saturday) evening. Let none of our citizens lose the opportunity.

CULTIVATING POTATOES .- A ondent of The Country Gentlemen says:

I would advise young beginners in raising potatoes not to be so particular about the number of eyes the set of patatoes has, the sets one foot in the row. Ground which has the manure plowed in, in the fall, will produce one-third more, and of an evener size, than that manured in spring and planted immediately; the manure absorbs the natural moisture of the ground and the crop is tardier in sprouting.

'Aw! how duth you like my mustathe, Mith Laura?' lisped a dandy, to a merry girl. 'O, very much. It looks like the fuzz on the back of a caterpillar.'

[COMMUNICATED.] IN MEMORIAM.

DIED, of Small-pox, on the 10th inst., at Newbern, Willie C. Whaley, aged about twenty years. In alluding to this afflicting dispensation of Providence, the writer does so with feelings unutterable grief. The writer became acquainted with this amiable and excellent youth during the late war—a time, as all know, which brought into bold relief the prominent traits of character. Acquaintance ripened into intimacy and a friendship so true and sincere that nothing but death could destroy it.

> "A kind and gentle heart he had To comfort friends and foes,"

So honest, truthful and generous that he never made an enemy-of the tenderest feelings-of the keenest sensibility, he even meled the hearts of Gen, Stoneman's cavalry. when taken prisoner on the 12th of April, 1865. So rich was his nature in all those Success .- The New Town Hall was filled qualities of the heart which God loves that

" None knew him but to love him-None named him but to praise." His disposition and character-his feelings and tastes were so divested of the dross incident to early manhood, as to elevate and refine those with whom he came in contact. the selection being from Lucretia, and its Frailties he had, or he would not have been

> "But seek no further his merits to disclose Or draw his frailties from their dread abode. There they alike in trembling hope repose, The bosom of his Father and his God."

He con ealed no feeling or sentiment from their voices, but splendid appreciation of the writer, but often expressed the earnest the spirit of the pieces rendered. We do wish and intention of attaching himself to the rights and privileges as soon as he became old enough to join. And the writer religiously believes that our Supreme Grand Master has taken this pure Mason in heart to his Lodge above, there to participate in the joys of the just made perfect. April 16, '56-d2t J. M. WRIGHT. State of North Carolina, TREASURY DEPARTMENT, RALEIGH, March 31, 1866. To Holders of Coupons of North-Carolina

BY ACT OF THE GENERAL ASSEMbly of North-Carolina, ratified Mar. 10, 1866, I am directed to prepare and sell for not less han par bonds of the State running thirtyfour years, with Coupons bearing six per cent. interest, payable some sixually, of the denomination of $100, $500, and $1,000, principal and interest untaxable, for the purpose of pay-1866, and bonds due and to fall due in 1866. By authority vested in the Public Treasurer, I designate New York as the place of payment. Parties entitled, desirous of effecting the exchange authorized in said Act, will please com-municate to me at once the amount and character of the securities which they wish to be funded, in order that I may know the number and denomination of the bonds which will be required. After the engraver shall furnish the blanks, the bonds will be prepared for issue with little delay. Under advice of the Attorney General, Coupons of bonds issued since, but under acts passed before May 20th, 1861, will be funded under the act of March 10th, 1866, provided their identity is established, by being cut from the bonds in my presence, a provision necessary on account of the similarity to other Coupons, issued since May 20th, 1861.

LETTER POSTAGE. -- PERPAYMENT. The law requires the postage on all letters to be prepaid by stamp for stamped envelopes—payment in money being probabiled. All drop letters must also be prepaid. The only letters on which payment is not demanded, are those addressed to the President, or Vice-President or members of Congress, and letters on official business to the chiefs of the Executive Departments of the Governmens, the heads of bureaus, and chief clerks, and others invested with the frank-inconstition.

The raise of letter postage is three cents per half ounce, throughout the United States; and three cents for each additional half ounce or flac-tion thereof. The ten cent Pacific rate is abeltion thereof. The ten cent Pacific county where printed and published, free.

QUARTERLY PAYMENTS Quarterly postage cannot be paid for less than three months. If a subscription begins at any other time than the commencement of an official quarter, the postage received by the Post Master, must still be entered in his account for that quarter. Subscribers for short terms-exceeding three months, say four or five months-can pay quarterly postage for the actual term of their so tions—that is, for one quarter and a third, one quarter and two thirds, &c. The law only requires that at least one quarter's postage shall be prepaid, and not more than one year's postage. Any term between one quarter and one year can therefore be prepaid at proportionate rates. Subscribers can pay the postage for a fraction of a quatter, at the same rates for a whole quarter, by including the fraction with the next whole quarter, and paying for both at the same time. PRIVILEGES TO PUPLISHERS. Publishers of Newspapers and Periodicals may send to each other from their respective offices of publication, free of postage one copy of each publication, and may also send to each actual subscriber, inclosed in their publications, bills and receipts for the same, free of postage. They may also state on their respective publications, the date when the subscription expires, to be writen

SMALL PAPERS. Religious, Educational and Agricultural Newspapers of small size, issued less frequently than once a week, may be sent in packages to one ad dress at the rate of one cent for each package not exceeding four ounces in weight, and an additional al charge of one cent is made for each additional four ounces or fraction thereof, the postage to be paid quarterly or yearly, in advance. News dealers may send newspapers and periodicals to regular subscribers at the quarterly rates, in the same manner as publishers, and may also receive them from publishers at subscribers rates. In both cases the fostage to be prepaid, either at the mailing or delivery office. POSTAGE ON TRANSIENT MATTER-BOOKS AND CIRCULARS. Books, not over 4 ounces in weight, to one address, 3 cents; over 4 ounces, and not over 8 ounces, 8 cents; over 8 ounces, and not over 19 ounces, 12 cents; over 12 ounces, and not over 16 ounces, 16 cents.

Circulars, not exceeding three in number, to one address, 2 cents; over three, and not over six, 4 cents: over six, and not over nine, 6 cents; over 9 and not exceeding twelve, 8 cents.

MISCELLANEOUS. On miscellaneous mailable matter embracing all pamphlets, occasional publications, transient newspapers, hand-bills and posters, book manu-scripts and proof-sheets, whether corrected or not, maps and prints, engravings, sheet music, blanks, flexible patterns, samples and sample cards, photographic paper, letter envelopes, postal envelopes or wrappers, cards, pager is n or ornamental, photographic representations of different types, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, and scions, the postage to be prepaid by stamps, is on one package to one address not over 4 ounces in weight, 2 cents; over 4 ounces, and not over 8 ounces, 4 cents, over 9 ounces and not over 12 ounces, 6 cents; over 2 ounces, and not over 16 ounces, 8 cents. HOW TO BE WRAPPED. All mail matter not sent at letter rates of post

All mail matter not sent at letter rates of post age, embracing books, book manuscripts, proof sheets, and other printed matter, and all other mail matter, except seeds, must be so wrapped or enveloped with open sides or ends as to enable the postmaster to examine the package without destroying the wrapper; otherwise such packages must be rated with letter postage. No communication, whether in writing or in print, can be sent with any seeds works, cuttings or sections. with any seeds, roots, cuttings or scions, maps, engravings or other matter not printed, except upon the separate matter, at the established rates.

CLUBS. Where packages of newspapers or periodicals are received at any post office directed to one ad-dress and the names of the club of subscribers to which they belong, with the postage for a quar-ter in advance shall be handed to the postmaster, he shall deliver the same to their respective own-ers. But this does not apply to weekly newspa-pers, which circulate free in the county where printed and published.

PRE-PAYMENT OF TRANSIENT MATTER. All transient matter must be prepaid by stamps. But if it comes to the office of delivery without pre-payment, or short paid, the unpaid postage must be collected on delivery at double the prepaid rate. Great neglect exists in the strict quarterly pre payment of postage on printed matter sent to rig-nlar subscribers. No such paper should be de-livered unless it is either pre-paid at the mailing office, or at the delivery office, for at least a quar-ter. If not so prepaid, postmasters must collect postage on each copy as on transient matter. If they fail they will be charged with the full postage due, and in clear cases removed from office for nog-
