

Proceedings in Congress.

Washington, May 6. The proceedings of Congress yesterday were devoted to the usual Saturday routine of speech-making in the House. The Senate was not in session. Mr. Phelps, of Maryland, delivered a masterly vindication of the President's policy. Mr. Ingersoll, of Illinois, was severe in his denunciation of the President. He said that the President, instead of making treason odious, was earnestly engaged in an effort to elevate traitors to place and power. In the course of his remarks the speaker declared that he had no confidence whatever Tobacco, Leaf, per pound, Manufactured, in Andrew Johnson or Wm. H. Seward. Other gentlemen obtained leave to print their remarks on reconstruction and other subjects.

The Undersigned, Themselves Members of the Sabbath School, propose to commence in on or about the 1st of the city of Raleigh, on or about the 1st of next May,

"THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BANNER," And in the commencement of this little work of love, being boys, ourselves, may we not appeal to every Sunday School boy, and girl in North Carolina to come up promptly to aid the undertaking. In our own State, there are very many Sabbath Schools, and from the are very many Sabbath Schools, and from the best information we have, the scholarship is large and increasing, and it is from them we look for that patronage which is necessary to improve and keep floating, this native standard which we propose for their benefit. It is not for pecuniary gain that the "BANNER," is established; it has for its aim higher objects, and if we succeed in our enterprise, it will be to us in after life a source of great sut-isfaction to know that, in our boyhood days, we gave a helping hand to Squday Schools, the preparatory Schools for places of high trust and position, in the work of our Heavenly Father. Its name sufficiently indicates the object which is to control its editorial conduct. There is necessity however for the remark that i will not be denominational, but alike open to all the Sabbath Schools of this State for contributions, in which there is no spice of secta-

Prospectus. THE PUBLICATION OF THE NORTH Carolina Presbyterian will be resumed in Fay-etteville, on Wednesday, the 2nd of January

Confidently relying on the hearty support which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains nor expense in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new apirit of activity, energy and enterprise, has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the Church, also, partake of the progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies, brought to bear with such tremenduous force upon the civilization of the pres-ent time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless, in the working out of her own des-necessity of work; of unceasing, restless, tire-less energy in the service of her Master and Head ; this shall be our first chiefest aim. In of the war in Virginia, commencing with the othis we need assistance. We are not alone, battles around Petersburg, and following the sufficient for these things. THE SENTINEL is an independent newspaper.

a warm supporter of the Union and the Constitutions of Andrew Johnson, our magnanimeus President and his policy, and devoted especially to the recuperation and prosperity of the South and of North Carolina.

It labors to promote immony, good feeting and equal rights among all the States, but will rebuke all unfounded expressions against the loyalty and integrity of the Southern people.

Special attention will be paid to the news and market departments.

Full proceedings of the Legislature and all important State papers appear in the Scutinel.
