> The Nashville Van Buren "Union" attempts to injure the cause of Judge White in Tennessee, by felling the people that he has no popularity in other States, and by connecting his name with all that it deems hateful to Tennessceans. It represents North Carolina as placing herself under the dictum of the Van Biren Baltimore Caucus, and, of course, opposing the claims of Judge White; and states, as evidence of the fact, that vlarge meetings Opposition and White 62. This exhibits, in bold relief, the utter hopelessness of the Regency cause in this State. The truth is, Mr. Van Buren never had any popularity of his own in North Carolina; and while his borrowed rays, derived from his connexion with General Jackson, are fading away as swiftly as the General's term of administration is drawing to a close, the prospects of Judge White, the people's candidate, the old, welltried, honest and faithful republican, are asrapidly brightening. A desperate efumbrance of such an unwieldly fort is now being made to induce the people to believe that Judge White has permitted himself to be pred as a tool of the opposition, &c. but it is a trick so shallow and infamous, that it will totally fail of its design; and when his claims shall be correctly understood, we verily believe that he will be supported with hearly as much unanimity by the Administration party in this State as in either Alabama or Ten-

The only ground which the Union has for calling Judge Mangum "a Bank Nullifying Senator" is the stand which he took in the Senate against the removal of the Deposites, a course which was pursued by many others of our most distinguished statesmen, who are as much opposed to the United States' Bank as General Jackson himself; and against the Proclamation, which was also opposed by hundreds and thouands of State Rights men, who repudiate the doctrine of Nullification. But Mr. Mangum has been proposed to be run for Vice President on the White ticket, and is opposed to Mr. Van Buren; and the Regency have therefore an interest in making him odious;

Private Manufactory of Public Opin a private meeting, at on office, after night, for the purpose of appointing a delegate, or delegates, to represent the State of Alabama in the Baltimore Causus! This is in perfect character with the Regency. They prate loudly about "democracy," and take excessive pains to cajole and flatter the people; but wherever they fail to coax hem into their selfish messures, they attempt to drive them by means of secret cabals or caucuses-thus giving the strongest evidence that they, in reality, regard the people with the utmost contempt.

We again cantion the people against these fair pretences and deep laid stratagems of the Van Buren leaders. Their professions and practice differ so widely, that it is obvious they flatter to deceive, and intrigue to ensnare. They "steal the livery of Democracy to serve a pelly Aristocracy in." By the very same means, Pisistratus overturned, in Greece, the first Republic ever established on earth. Historians inform us that he was "a most artful and accomplished dissembler; and one who had all the exterior of virtue, even beyond the most virtuous, who seemed to be the most zealous stickler for EQUALITY among the citizens, and who absolutely declared against innovations and change." Yet his design, in all this, was to subvert the liberty of Greece, and raise himself to a throne; and by his artifice and address-his seeming virtue and fair pretences, he succeeded in imposing uphis treasonable object.

Once more, we say, let the people beware of those who have "all the exterior of Democracy, even beyond the most democratic!
