

ELECTION RETURNS.
We give as far as we have received them, the returns of the elections. There cannot, we imagine, be much doubt of Gen. Dudley's election by a considerable majority. That such would be the result, we have confidently predicted, the idle boasting of our opponents to the contrary notwithstanding. We believe we might venture with considerable safety to predict what will be the political complexion of the next General Assembly. As however a few days will place the matter beyond all controversy, and our object being to furnish correct information, we refrain from doing so, lest we might place ourselves in the predicament of a certain contemporary, who promised to fire his big gun somewhat too soon.

OLD NORTHAMPTON STILL ERECT!!!

Extract of a letter to the Editors.
GENTLEMEN,—We have met the enemy, and they are ours." According to the predictions of some of our friends, in a letter to you a few weeks since, this good old republican county, true to herself and to the sacred cause of liberty in which she is battling so manfully, has added another chapter to the garland of victory which she so gallantly won for herself in the contest of 1835. Aware of the weakness of their cause, "the party" determined to run but one candidate in hopes that their whole force, concentrated upon him singly, superadded to the vote which he would get by being run with each of the Whig candidates, would elect him, and thereby destroy the unanimity of the whig ticket. Although this plan had in some degree the desired effect, (many of the White men voting for Lockhart), yet the result has proven as disastrous to their cherished hopes, as it is triumphant and glorious to the Whig cause. Strange as it may seem, the Vanites were sanguine to the last, of the success of their candidate, and not a little money, risked in bets on the election, passed from their pockets to those of the cruel whigs.

You will perceive, by a reference to the result of the other elections given below, that the vote for Governor was by no means a full one, from the circumstance that, in the great interest felt by all parties in the county elections, the gubernatorial election was never publicly canvassed. I hazard nothing in saying that as many as two hundred voters were at the polls, who did not know even that a Governor was to be elected. Had the election been properly canvassed, we should have given Dudley a much larger vote; notwithstanding the violent assaults made upon his principles in an address of J. A. Byrum, Esq. to the reflecting men of the county of Northampton, just up to the eye of the election. The battle, however, is fought in this county, and victory has perched upon the Whig banner. We have won glory enough for one day! The following is the result at the respective precincts:

Table with 4 columns: Precinct, White, V. Buren, Dudley, Spaight. Rows include Board Jack, Mar, Rich, Dudley, Spaight, Garry's majority, Garry (whig), Paison (do.), Lockhart (V), Sheriff Peebles, Reese, Joyner.

I forgot to mention that Moody, the Whig Senator, is elected without opposition.

WELL DONE CHATHAM!

Pittsburg, August 12th, 1836.
To the Editors of the Star.
Gentlemen, The Polls have just been compared, and the result is very gratifying. The Van Buren party are quite chafed. We have given Dudley a handsome majority, and elected three members to the legislature, if not the whole four. Cotton will get the certificate by two votes, but if Clegg, the white man, should contest the election, I have no doubt he will do it successfully, from the great number of bad votes given for Gen. Cotton at some of the precincts. Very many of the white men voted for Cotton, and the general impression that he would be elected caused others to vote single for their particular favorites on the white ticket. But for this, he would have been beaten more than a hundred votes. The battle was well fought on both sides, and every thing considered, the whigs of Chatham have obtained a glorious triumph. I send you a statement of the votes. The Governor's election is the true test of parties in this county, because in that no local or personal feelings could be brought to bear.

HEALTH OF THE CITY.—Since our last, two new Cases of Small Pox have been reported, and one death—that of Aaron, a servant of Mr. John Devereux. The Commissioners however, have taken such strong measures for arresting the further progress of the disease as is hoped and believed, will prove successful.

A case of Small Pox has occurred in Fayetteville, N. C. The Board of health pledge themselves to give immediate information to the public should any other case occur.

The dearth of editorial matter in the Star this week shall be atoned for hereafter. Every body is so much on the qui vive about the election returns, ourselves among the number, that we scarcely could find patience to indite an article. We shall, however, again renew the war against the principles of the spoils-party and their nominees, with fresh energy and renewed zeal. That their overthrow, complete and final, in North Carolina, is at hand, is scarcely a matter of conjecture.

The Standard of last week publishes an extract of a letter from some person in Randolph, who has been converted, as he says, to Van Burenism by reading an opposition paper. The writer says the cause of Van Buren is gaining ground, & he ventures the prediction that Randolph will go for Van Buren. The best commentary on the pretensions of the Standard's correspondent to the character of a prophet, is found in the fact that Dudley, the White candidate for Governor, received a majority of 897 votes over his Van Buren opponent, at the recent election. A strong probability of Van's getting that county truly!

ALABAMA.—The elections in Alabama, for members of the Legislature, took place on the first of the month; but from the returns received we are unable to form an opinion as to the result. We are assured, however, whatever may be the complexion of the Legislature, the State will go for WHITE, in November.

A letter from Matamoros, dated July 1, states that several Indian Chiefs, Cherokees and other tribes, were then at that place in negotiation with Urrea, the commander of the Mexican army against Texas, who is making a treaty with them, to get 8,000 warriors to join him, promising them land and cattle, if they succeed in exterminating the population of Texas. One account says the Cherokees are already engaged.

Mob of blacks in Boston.—Rescue of slaves from a court of justice.—We have published in another part of our paper, the remarks of the U. S. Telegraph on this outrageous proceeding. No one can fail to be of the same opinion as the Telegraph, that these negroes would not have dared thus to defy the laws in the very temple of justice, unless there were a powerful feeling of sympathy for abolitionism in that community. We are no alarmist, but daily occurrences convince us that the South must rely upon herself for the protection of her rights. Meetings may be held and resolutions adopted, declaring the state of public opinion such as ought to remove our apprehensions on this subject. We should not suffer ourselves to be deceived, it were madness to expect the spirit of fanaticism which animates the abolitionists, to be checked by any such means.—Unless we are greatly deceived, after the Presidential election is over, and there is no further object to be accomplished, by concealing from the South the real strength of abolitionism, developments will take place which will startle many of those heretofore the most incredulous.

Mob in Cincinnati.—At an anti-abolition meeting, held some time since in Cincinnati, a committee of the most respectable citizens was appointed, to wait on the Editor of an abolitionist newspaper, James G. Birney, and his leading associates, and to prevail on him to stop the publication of it. The committee were referred to the Executive abolition committee, who, for various reasons stated by them, declined to suspend the publication of their organ. The committee appointed by the citizens made public the result of their application, and dissolved itself. The result was, the assemblage of several thousand people, around the printing establishment of the abolition paper, and the total destruction of the printing materials, and, in fact, of every thing in that establishment.

The mob proceeded to the dwelling of Birney, supplied with tar and feathers, and demanded him. His son, a lad of about sixteen, informed them that he was not at home. They then proceeded to the house of a Mr. Donaldson, an active and leading abolitionist, but he had made his escape.—They then proceeded to a part of the city called "Church Alley," the residence of black and white women of infamous character, and tore down the houses in which they resided. We are not the advocates of mob law; but where individuals will continue wickedly to molest a community, they have to thank themselves for the consequences which their desire for notoriety, gratified at the expense of the constitutional rights of others, and at the hazard of the Union, may bring upon them.

KENTUCKY.—The election for Governor and members of the State Legislature took place in Kentucky on the three first days of this month. The statements which have been received are so imperfect and contradictory as to leave us altogether in doubt as to the result. The Lexington and Maysville papers state that so great has been the apathy of the Whigs, that not more than two thirds of their strength has gone to the polls. Yet so confident are they of their strength—so vastly superior are they in numbers—the Louisville Journal thinks they have triumphed over the Regency by a handsome majority, notwithstanding all their apathy and negligence. But be the result as it may, the friends of the Constitution and the rights of the people in Kentucky have acted unwisely. That the price of liberty is eternal vigilance, is a maxim, the truth and importance of which are every day impressed upon the mind, by the busy, artful, insidious and untiring efforts of the enemies of popular freedom, the aristocratic legion of office holders, who, in hungry swarms, all over the country, are seeking to infix the execrable, corrupting, debasing "spoils" principles in every department of our Government. All who value our institutions ought, therefore, not only to be always jealous in watching and prompt in defending them, but also tenacious of their privileges, and diligent in the search of truth, to become fully qualified for a wise and prudent exercise of them. They should ever take a lively interest in public affairs, especially in the selection of their public servants, as it is shown by experience that incompetent and dishonest persons, ambitious and designing demagogues, are always the foremost in seeking office. Let all true republicans, then, be ever active and vigilant. Let them never relax into supineness—no, never.

Ohio given up.—The Monitor, a violent Van Buren paper in Ohio, says:

"As we have, during this campaign, estimated our majority larger than formerly, those few times we have spoken of it, we must be faithful enough now to say appearances are stronger in favor of our opponents than they have been."

What Next!—It is stated on unquestionable authority, that a letter was found among the papers of the late Hutchins G. Burton, Ex-Governor of North Carolina, from a person high in authority, stating that Texas would certainly be annexed to the United States, and at the same time offering to make him (Burton) Governor of said Territory. If the statement be true, and we do not doubt it, what a state of things does it disclose! The highest officer of the government engaged in buying up partisans by promises of office in a Territory, yet under the jurisdiction of a foreign, and friendly power!!! We forbear further comment upon a transaction, so startling.—Danville Reporter.

Extract of a Letter to the Editor, dated Tallahassee, (Fla.) August 2.—

"A small party of Indians, say 30 to 35, made their appearance on the Ocella, about 41 miles of this place more or less, last week, killed 2 men, took off a boy about 12 or 14 years old, and burnt a House. It is also said they took off a female, the lady of the house, Capt. Fisher's Company, stationed at Gamble's plantation, went in pursuit of them and succeeded in rescuing the boy and recovering the spoils. They fled into a neighboring hammock."

Well done Ohio.—The People's Press at Columbus, computes that three thousand changes against Mr. Van Buren, occurred in Ohio on the 4th of July, that being the day on which the passage of the deposit bill and that gentleman's opposition thereto, became generally known. The editor of the People's Press was recently a Jackson man, and he congratulates the Hero on his firmness in signing the bill, and escaping the machinations employed to dissuade him against it.

The Van Buren party have given up Ohio. This settles the question. Maryland will not go for him. New York is immensely divided. Pennsylvania has been chained down to the new monster, and will howl no other name but Harrison. We can tell the Globe that it had better turn about and revolve on another axis. How much money will buy you up, Mr. Blair? The amount of your old United States Bank debt?—U. S. Telegraph.

War in Disguise.—Gen. Gaines has, in pursuance of orders from the President, marched to Nacogdoches, fifty miles within the line of Texas, or more properly, of Mexico; and has called upon the Governors of Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi and Louisiana, each for 1000 mounted men, to join him. The avowed motive for this movement is, that some Indians had killed two persons and wounded another, about 20 miles West of Nacogdoches.

The effect of this movement must be to produce a war with Mexico, provided she is successful in her present contest with Texas. This adds another motive to pray for the success of Texas.

AN AWFUL PAUSE.—After the clergyman had united a happy pair not long ago, an awful silence ensued, which was broken by an impatient youth's exclaiming, "Don't be so un-speakably happy!"—N. Y. Mirror.

Michigan has been the first State to legislate in reference to the act of Congress concerning the Deposites of Public Money. Her Legislature, now in session, has passed an act, which the Governor has approved, authorizing the acceptance and reception of her share of the Deposites to be made under that act.

any kind for more than twenty days—thus in a manner starving himself to death. The reasons assigned for using this, was an expression used towards him by one of the lawyers during the last Court, who, attending to the prosecution of a suit, "said that he would be brought before next Court." He was in good circumstances.

VILLAGE HOTEL.
ST. IESVILLE, N. C.
The Subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public generally, that he has taken this well known establishment, (lately occupied by Samuel Welch, Esq.) and will on the 10th day of August, (next) 7th inst. re-open it. This house can be had enough to honor him with their custom. The House is large and commodious, having both a front and back passage through a thorough repair, together with an addition of Four new Rooms, on main street, near the Court House.—In a word, this establishment is looked upon as one of the largest and most convenient in the Western part of North Carolina. I pledge myself to use the most judicious exertions to render my visitors comfortable and agreeable.

SEALED PROPOSALS
Will be received until the 17th of September for the delivery of such quantities of good round Oak and Hickory wood as may be necessary for the use of the General Assembly. To Rail Road Contractors.
PROPOSALS will be received, at the Hollingsworth Hotel in Petersburg, Va. on the 8th day of October next, for the Excavation, Embankment and Masonry, of forty miles of the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road.

Plans and Profiles of the work will be exhibited at the place above mentioned for ten days previous to the letting, and all other information will be given on application to the Subscriber or any of the Assistant Engineers on the line. Recommendations will be expected in all cases of persons not known to the Engineer.

CHARLES F. M. GARNETT, C. E.
P. S. For the information of persons at a distance, I would state that the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road is a continuation of the Petersburg and of the Greenville and Roanoke Rail Roads, from the Roanoke to Raleigh, in the great line of Northern and Southern travel.

This Road is located on a rich and dry ridge of country, which is considered remarkably healthy—and the mildness of the climate, admitting of operations in the open air throughout the winter, makes it peculiarly desirable to those wishing winter jobs.

The facility of travelling is so great now, by the Baltimore and Washington and Richmond and Fredericksburg Rail Roads that the trip from Philadelphia to Petersburg may be performed in forty hours. The trip may be performed in the same time by the Bay on three days in the week.

STOP THE RUNAWAYS!
Runaway from the Subscriber, being 14 miles North of Raleigh, on Friday night the 13th inst. his negro boy ABRAHAM and his wife GRACE. The man is 27 years of age, about 6 feet high, well proportioned, with tolerably thick lips, and the woman is about 26—the former not very dark complexioned—the latter, tall, thin visaged, and quite dark. Abraham had no marks that I recollect of, save that on the day of the election he got into a fight in Raleigh, and received a severe blow over the left eye, the effects of which will probably remain sometime. He is remarkable, too, for a bold, impudent, swaggering air, which will attract the attention of every one. The woman has a notable tatter or tumor on one of her hands, which, I examined, cannot fail to lead to her being identified. They will sail for Petersburg, I think, the boy having been for years engaged in the wagoning business to and from that place.

I will give FIFTY DOLLARS reward for the apprehension of Abraham and TEN DOLLARS for his wife, if taken in the State, or double that amount, if taken out of the State.

Its character for health is unquestioned, and the road to the

which are within one and one half miles, having been placed in excellent order, and the Houses about them renewed, it presents peculiar inducements to persons from the lower counties as a place of residence, during the Summer and Fall months.

These Springs are much frequented by the inhabitants of the village, and is believed to be sufficient to say of them, that they are all respects like the famed waters of Spaw.

The subscriber having determined to fix his charges at the most reasonable rate, and to devote his whole attention to the accommodation of his guests, hopes to receive a liberal share of the patronage of the country.
