

THE STAR AND NORTH CAROLINA GAZETTE.

DAVID OUTLAW, Editors. THOS. J. LEMAY, Proprietor and Publisher.

RALEIGH, N. C. THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1836

VOL XXVII. NO. 42

THOMAS J. LEMAY, PROPRIETOR AND PUBLISHER.

TERMS. Three dollars per annum... Subscribers in other States...

INLAND ROUTE FOR Northern and Southern Travel.

The Richmond, Fennelburg and Potomac Rail Road Company...

Northward Direction.

Table with columns for location (Blakely, N. C., Petersburg, Richmond, Washington, Baltimore) and departure times.

Southern Direction.

Table with columns for location (New York, Baltimore, Washington, Richmond, Petersburg, Blakely) and arrival times.

The whole time required between Blakely and New York...

The stage travelling, which is conducted by Messrs. J. Woolf & Co. and Messrs. J. H. Avery & Co....

Passengers are never in danger of delay, preference being given to such as enter and continue on the line.

By arrangements which this Company is making, passengers, travelling with the mail...

The Mail Train leaves Richmond at 2 1/2 o'clock a. m. returning, leaves the Station Green at 11 o'clock a. m. The alternate Train for Passengers and Freight, leaves Richmond at 2 o'clock a. m. and Bowling Green at 2 o'clock p. m.

All possible care will be taken of baggage, and it will be carried only at its owner's risk.

RAIL ROAD OFFICE. Richmond, Sept. 12, 1836. 40 2c

TYPE FOUNDRY.

E. WHITE & W. HAGUR respectfully inform the printers of the United States...

White, Hagur & Co. are agents for the sale of Smith and Rust printing presses...

SITUATION WANTED.

A young gentleman, graduate of Middlebury College, in Vt., wishes to obtain a situation...

Address to L. S. LOVELL, at Union's Hotel, Raleigh, N. C. Sept. 27, 1836. 1wp.

NOTICE.

The Subscriber, after returning his thanks to his friends and to the public generally...

On Saturday, the 11th of next month, (October) at 12 o'clock, before the front door of the place, will be sold...

DISSOLUTION.

The firm of W. J. RAMSAY & CO. is this day dissolved by mutual consent...

TO WESTERN EMIGRANTS. 3170 ACRES OF MISSISSIPPI LANDS FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers for sale all his Lands lying in Mississippi, containing 3170 Acres.

These Lands were purchased at the first sale of Choctaw Lands held at Columbus, Mississippi, by men whose judgment of Cotton Lands can never be doubted.

E half of the N E Quarter of Section 7, W half of the N E Q of S Do. W half of the N W Q of S Do. W half of S W Q of S 6

All of Township nine Range fifteen East E half of the S W Q of S 6 Township nine Range 13 E.

Persons wishing to purchase can apply to my agents, John T. Sorsby of Starkville, Oktibbeha county, Mississippi...

Sept. 14, 1836. W. C. SORSBY. 40 4w

TO MERCHANTS.

We have imported by the Ship Hark A Way, the heaviest and best assorted Stock of European goods ever in our possession.

PAUL MOLLAN & CO. Petersburg, Va. Sept. 12, 1836. 40 3t

RAIL ROAD STOCK.

For sale 30 shares Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road stock. WILL PECK, Agent. 12th Sept. 1836. 39 1t

THE SURPLUS REVENUE.

We perceive that the papers of all political complexion are devoting the surplus revenue to various objects of State policy...

Messrs. Toplin, of the Boston News says: "We are just informed that a keg containing $59,000 in gold, from New York, for the Fulton Bank, of this city, put on board the steamboat Rhode Island, yesterday, has been stolen."

Mr. Van Buren tells Mr. Williams that he is opposed to the principle of Distribution. His opposition is not confined merely to the distribution of money.

More Speed.—John Bull is still in advance of the Yankees. In London, the model of a locomotive is exhibited, which is to go one hundred miles an hour on a rail road without steam!

John Sergeant and John M. Scott are the Whig candidates for Congress in Philadelphia, Messrs. Ingersoll and Harper, the present representatives, declining a re-election.

The fifteen hundred mounted Tennessee Volunteers who have been encamped in Alabama for the last six weeks, and who at the last dates were about to march into Florida...

A Mr. Wilson of New York, has invented a moving machine, propelled by two horses, which cuts a swath of six feet wide, and will it is believed mow an acre in an hour.

Martin Van Buren and the late War.—V. Burea was a member of the N. Y. Legislature in 1811-12, and voted for the following resolution:

Resolved, That the war is impolitic and disastrous, and that to employ the Militia in an offensive war is unconstitutional.

What do the old Democrats say to this?—Pol. Arena. This has been contradicted by the Attorney General, Butler, but the New York editors who are conversant with all Van Buren's public acts, say that it is literally true.

Leading Op.—Tennessee was the first State to bring forward General Jackson. North Carolina and Pennsylvania followed.

Rail Road Receipts.—Last week the receipts on the Providence Road were over $8,000. During the month of July they were more than $98,000.

So we go.—We perceive in looking over the proceedings of the Van Buren Convention, that he cannot find Democrats enough in the State of New York to organize an electoral ticket.

Singular Thought.—The Philadelphia Saturday News says, that the architect of one of the prisons in that city was lately told by a prisoner that he did not know his business, or he would not have built the cells for solitary confinement square, for said he there is something to break the monotony—there is a corner upon which I can fix my eye, it is an object. Had you made them round I should have gone crazy in a week.

Capt. Webb of the U. S. sloop of war Van Dalin, in a letter to the Navy Department, says that fears are apprehended at Port au Prince of piratical depredations from the new arrangement by the Haytian government, compelling foreign produce to pay duties in foreign coin...

CORRESPONDENCE.

Gen. Edward B. Dudley, Hillsborough, August 27th, 1836. Dear Sir—A large Portion of the citizens of Orange county, desirous of celebrating the success of the Whig party in the recent contest...

Gen. Edward B. Dudley, Hillsborough, August 27th, 1836. Dear Sir—A large Portion of the citizens of Orange county, desirous of celebrating the success of the Whig party in the recent contest...

Wilmington, Sept. 8, 1836. Gentlemen—I have had the pleasure of receiving Your favor of the 27th ult. inviting me to a barbecue...

Wilmington, Sept. 8, 1836. Gentlemen—I have had the pleasure of receiving Your favor of the 27th ult. inviting me to a barbecue...

Mangum in the Senate of the United States.

For this very distinguished mark of the approbation of the Whigs of Orange, at my election to the executive chair of this state, I beg to tender to them my sincere thanks...

I unite with you, gentlemen, in recording my most unqualified approbation of the firm and manly course pursued by Mr. Mangum, and I verily believe that we are indebted to the firmness and independence of the Senate of the United States for the check, at least, given to the base and sordid principle of awarding "the spoils to the victors."

Nothing would have afforded me greater pleasure than to unite with you in the celebration of the victory of principle over caucus-humbug and dictation...

I take the liberty of tendering the subjoined sentiment, and offering to each of you, gentlemen, the assurance of my great respect.

I have the honor to be Your obedient servant. EDWD. B. DUDLEY.

Messrs. Cadwallader Jones, &c. The Hon. Willis P. Mangum: The firm and independent patriot, who gallantly risked his own sacrifice, in resisting the overwhelming influence of "the government" to save his country from disgrace and ruin...

Hon. Benjamin W. Leigh.

Hillsborough, August 30th 1836. Sir—The public papers will have informed you of the signal victory obtained by the Whigs of this state, in the election of Gen. Dudley to the executive chair. This victory is the more important, as it ensures the triumph of the White ticket in November next.

You do more than justice, gentlemen, to the fancied merit you ascribe to my political course. Whatever that course has been, the principles by which it has been regulated were taught me by the examples set before me in the life and conduct of some of your own estimable citizens...

You do more than justice, gentlemen, to the fancied merit you ascribe to my political course. Whatever that course has been, the principles by which it has been regulated were taught me by the examples set before me in the life and conduct of some of your own estimable citizens...

CADWALLADER JONES, WILLIAM HOLT, and others, Committee, &c. Richmond, September 10, 1836.

Gentlemen—I have to acknowledge your letter of the 30th ult. inviting me to attend the proposed celebration, on the 17th instant, near Hillsborough...

I think I understand the character of the citizens of North Carolina, as well as that of her prominent statesmen. Believing this, when in the seclusion of my retirement I first heard of the commencement of the struggle...

I think I understand the character of the citizens of North Carolina, as well as that of her prominent statesmen. Believing this, when in the seclusion of my retirement I first heard of the commencement of the struggle...

I think I understand the character of the citizens of North Carolina, as well as that of her prominent statesmen. Believing this, when in the seclusion of my retirement I first heard of the commencement of the struggle...

their country, which they have earned by public service and tried political and private virtue.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your most obed. servt. LITT. W. TAZEWELL. Cadwallader Jones, Esq. &c. Hillsborough.

Hon. Henry A. Wise, Hillsborough, September 24, 1836. Sir—The Whigs of Orange county, North Carolina, propose to celebrate the overthrow of the spoils...

I pray you to be assured, gentlemen, of my grateful sense of the personal kindness towards me manifested in your letter, and of the pride I feel in your good opinion.

I am, with all respect, Your obedient servant. W. B. LEIGH.

Messrs. Cadwallader Jones and others, Hillsborough.

Hon. Littleton W. Tazewell.

Norfolk, Sept. 7, 1836. Gentlemen—I have just received your letter of the 30th ult. in which you have been pleased to invite me to partake of a public dinner...

You do more than justice, gentlemen, to the fancied merit you ascribe to my political course. Whatever that course has been, the principles by which it has been regulated were taught me by the examples set before me in the life and conduct of some of your own estimable citizens...

You do more than justice, gentlemen, to the fancied merit you ascribe to my political course. Whatever that course has been, the principles by which it has been regulated were taught me by the examples set before me in the life and conduct of some of your own estimable citizens...

CADWALLADER JONES, WILLIAM HOLT, and others, Committee, &c. Hillsborough, Sept. 10, 1836.

Gentlemen—I have to acknowledge your letter of the 30th ult. inviting me to attend the proposed celebration, on the 17th instant, near Hillsborough...

I think I understand the character of the citizens of North Carolina, as well as that of her prominent statesmen. Believing this, when in the seclusion of my retirement I first heard of the commencement of the struggle...

I think I understand the character of the citizens of North Carolina, as well as that of her prominent statesmen. Believing this, when in the seclusion of my retirement I first heard of the commencement of the struggle...

I think I understand the character of the citizens of North Carolina, as well as that of her prominent statesmen. Believing this, when in the seclusion of my retirement I first heard of the commencement of the struggle...

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your most obed. servt. LITT. W. TAZEWELL. Cadwallader Jones, Esq. &c. Hillsborough.

Hon. Henry A. Wise, Hillsborough, September 24, 1836. Sir—The Whigs of Orange county, North Carolina, propose to celebrate the overthrow of the spoils...

I pray you to be assured, gentlemen, of my grateful sense of the personal kindness towards me manifested in your letter, and of the pride I feel in your good opinion.

I am, with all respect, Your obedient servant. W. B. LEIGH.

Messrs. Cadwallader Jones and others, Hillsborough.

Hon. Littleton W. Tazewell.

Norfolk, Sept. 7, 1836. Gentlemen—I have just received your letter of the 30th ult. in which you have been pleased to invite me to partake of a public dinner...

You do more than justice, gentlemen, to the fancied merit you ascribe to my political course. Whatever that course has been, the principles by which it has been regulated were taught me by the examples set before me in the life and conduct of some of your own estimable citizens...

You do more than justice, gentlemen, to the fancied merit you ascribe to my political course. Whatever that course has been, the principles by which it has been regulated were taught me by the examples set before me in the life and conduct of some of your own estimable citizens...

CADWALLADER JONES, WILLIAM HOLT, and others, Committee, &c. Hillsborough, Sept. 10, 1836.

Gentlemen—I have to acknowledge your letter of the 30th ult. inviting me to attend the proposed celebration, on the 17th instant, near Hillsborough...

I think I understand the character of the citizens of North Carolina, as well as that of her prominent statesmen. Believing this, when in the seclusion of my retirement I first heard of the commencement of the struggle...

I think I understand the character of the citizens of North Carolina, as well as that of her prominent statesmen. Believing this, when in the seclusion of my retirement I first heard of the commencement of the struggle...

I think I understand the character of the citizens of North Carolina, as well as that of her prominent statesmen. Believing this, when in the seclusion of my retirement I first heard of the commencement of the struggle...

I think I understand the character of the citizens of North Carolina, as well as that of her prominent statesmen. Believing this, when in the seclusion of my retirement I first heard of the commencement of the struggle...

I think I understand the character of the citizens of North Carolina, as well as that of her prominent statesmen. Believing this, when in the seclusion of my retirement I first heard of the commencement of the struggle...

I think I understand the character of the citizens of North Carolina, as well as that of her prominent statesmen. Believing this, when in the seclusion of my retirement I first heard of the commencement of the struggle...