LOVE IN EARNEST.

To the fair Susan-fairest of the fair, My Moon by night, my Sun by day, Inspired by hope, environ'd by despair, Would I address my humble lay.

And doubt not thou the tale of him Whose word, e'en from his carliest youth, Did ever to the cause of virtue lean, And sleave pass'd andoubted truth

The flat'rer and the flat'rer's voice, The vain the gaudy things of sight Will ne'er direct thy prodest choice.

And leave myself at your command

Could I b I gain thy sor ling heart With me thy destiny to join Till death, if death could e'er us part.

Emblem divine of the immortal soul, Reigning triumplant o'er the ruthless king! Bow truly sweet it were in thinks, With thee to pass life's flow'ry insee, Unconscious of the fleeting days. Anxious I'd watch around thy bed. Try every art to give thee case,

In doing good our lives we'd spend-In blessing and in being pless'd; Prepare us well to meet the Exp,

But if regardless of my undying love, You spure me baraily from thy sight, Seasons no more my heart may move:

Confidingly, I now resigns And while in this or foreign lands, Shall take an interest in thine.

Farewell! degrest girl: Remember me! My love has been and shall be true, By night, by day—at land at sea, i ho' now I'm ore'd to say Amay!

MR. VAN BUREN AN ABOLI TIONIST. We have had occasion repeatedly to speak of Mr. Van Buren's vote for free negro suffrage-to prohibit the introduction of slaves into Florida-in favour of the Missouri restriction, and and his late recognition of the right of Congress to legislate in the District of Columbia, on the subject of slavery all-together creating a violent presumption that Mr. Van Buren is, in heart an abilitionist. A few weeks since we extracted from the New Hampshire Herald of Freedom—aviolent abolition paper, and in favor of Mr. V. Buren, an article showing the perfect coincidence of opinion between Mr. Van Buren loss of the cosming Legislature and strangers visiting the city, are informed I loss there will be strangers visiting the city, are informed I loss there will be strangers visiting the city, are informed I loss there will be strangers visiting the city, are informed I loss there will be strangers to the company of the city. and the Northern fanatics and warmly recommending him to their support. Mr. Van Buren is also associated on the same ticket with R. M. Johnson, a practical amalgamator, whose practical abolition of all distinctions of color. whose damning offences against all that is pure and sacred in social and damestic life, perpetrated, too, in a communieither by law or custom, in a word. whose open and notorious interco sc with an african concubine, in defiance of all that is decent in society and all that is holy in religion, can never be forgotten or overlooked. Then comes, so as to place the matter, beyond all doubt, the address of Tappan, Jay, Cox & Co., leading aboltionist, to "the people of the United States, or such Americans ne value their rights and dare maintain them," in which they denounce the action of the last Congress upon the subject of their petitions, maugre the pacifying resolutions of Mr. Pinckney. threatning to bring "a million," instead of $5,000, signers to the next session of Congress, and occupying in one of the fundamental articles of their association, the very ground occu-pied by Mr. Van Buren in his resolution instructing the U. S. Senators from New York to vote to make the prohibition of slavery "an indispensible condition of the admission of Missouri into the Union" which " indispensible condition" was then pronounced by Thomas Jefferson to be "tantamount stands. Marks's Ointment FOR THE CURE OF PILES.

The subscriber begs leave to offer to the atten tion of those who are subject to that most disa-greeable of disorders, the Piles, a remedy, the efficacy of which has been tested by the experi-astance been impaired from failure to relieve. To those who have been subjected to this discase, it will prove, if applied when re-attacked, a sure preventative to its continuance, without the least pain; indeed many have pronounced it the most agreeable ramedy ever applied. There can be no danger in its use as its component can be no danger in its use as its component parts are of harmless regulable matter.

The mother of the subscriber who is the ma-ker of the ointment, has been in the habit of giving it to her friends and neighbors for the last five or six years, and in no instance to her know! edge has its application been ineffectual, as will be seen by a number of certificates annexed, as well as the testimony of a medical gentleman who has used it himself, and prescribed it to the relief of others. Those who are suffering will do well to make trial of the remedy. Its efficacy is guaranteed, and there can be no doubt but that the disorder may be arrested in its earliest state, if no delay be made in its application.

The directions for use will be found on each

SAMUEL H. MARKS. Petersburg, Va., Aug 22, 1856.

Mr. S. H. Marks: Denr Sir: I take pleasure in inform-
