POETRY.

The Confessional.

"I thought of thee—I thought of thee,
On ocean many a weary night,
When heaved the long and sullen sea,
With only waves and stars in sight.
We stole along by isles of balm,
We furl'd before the coming gale,
We slept amid the breathless calm;
We flew beneath the straining sail;
But thou wert lost for years to me,
And, day and night, I thought of thee!

"I thought of thee—I thought of thee,
In France—amid the gay saloon,
Where eyes as dark as eyes may be
Are many as the leaves in June;
Where life is love, and ev'n the air
Is pregnant with impassion'd thought,
And song and dance and music are
With one warm meaning only fraught;
My half-snar'd heart broke lightly free,
And, with a blush, I thought of thee!

"I thought of thee—I thought of thee,
In Florence—where the fiery hearts
Of Italy are breathed away
In wonders of the deathless arts;
Where strays the Contadina down
Val d'Arno with a song of old;
Where clime and woman seldom frown,
And life runs over sands of gold;
I stray'd to lone Fiesole
On many an eve, and thought of thee.

"I thought of thee—I thought of thee,
In Rome—when on the Palatine
Night left the Cæsar's palace free,
To time's forgetful foot and mine;
Or, on the Coliseum's wall,
When moonlight touched the ivied stone,
Reclining, with a thought of all
That o'er this scene has come and gone—
The shades of Rome would start and flee
Unconsciously—I thought of thee.

"I thought of thee—I thought of thee,
In Vallombrosa's holy shade,
Where nobles born the friars be,
By life's rude changes humbler made.
Here Milton fram'd his Paradise;
I slept within his very cell;
And, as I closed my weary eyes,
I thought the cowl would fit me well;
The cloisters breath'd, it seemed to me,
Of heart's ease—but I thought of thee.

"I thought of thee—I thought of thee,
In Venice—on a night in June;
When, through the city of the sea,
Like dust of silver slept the moon,
Slow turn'd his oar the gondolier,
And, as the black barks glided by,
The water to my leaning ear
Bore back the lover's passing sigh—
It was no place alone to be—
I thought of thee—I thought of thee.

"I thought of thee—I thought of thee,
In the Ionian Isles—when straying
With wise Ulysses by the sea—
Old Homer's songs around me playing;
Or, watching the bewitched caique,
That o'er the star-lit waters flew,
I listen'd to the helmsmen Greek,
Who sung the song that Sappho knew—
The poet's spell, the bark, the sea,
All vanished—as I thought of thee.

"I thought of thee—I thought of thee,
In Greece—where rose the Parthenon
Majestic o'er the Egean sea,
And heroes with it, one by one;
When, in the grove of Academe,
Where Lais and Leontium stray'd
Discussing Plato's mystic theme,
I lay at noontide in the shade—
The Egean wind, the whispering tree
Had voices—and I thought of thee.

"I thought of thee—I thought of thee,
In Asia—on the Dardanelles;
Where, swiftly as the waters flee,
Each wave some sweet old story tells;
An l, seated by the marble tank
Which sleeps by Illion's ruins old,
(The fount where peerless Helen drank,
And Venus laved her locks of gold,)
I thrill'd such classic haunts to see,
Yet even here—I thought of thee.

"I thought of thee—I thought of thee,
Where glide the Bosphor's lovely waters,
All palace-lined, from sea to sea;
And ever on its shores the daughters
Of the delicious East are seen,
Printing the brink with slipper'd feet,
And oh, those snowy folds between,
What eyes of heaven your glances meet!
Peris of light no fairer be—
Yet—in Stamboul—I thought of thee.

"I've thought of thee—I've thought of thee,
Through change that teaches to forget;
Thy face looks up from every sea,
In every star thine eyes are set,
Though roving beneath Orient skies,
Whose golden beauty breaths of rest,
I envy every bird that flies
Into the far and clouded West:
I think of thee—I think of thee!
Oh, dearest! hast thou thought of me?

Marks's Ointment
FOR THE CURE OF PILES.

The subscriber begs leave to offer to the attention of those who are subject to that most disagreeable of disorders, the Piles, a remedy, the efficacy of which has been tested by the experience of years, and the utility of which has in no instance been impaired from failure to relieve. To those who have been subjected to this disease, it will prove, if applied when re-attacked, a sure preventative to its continuance, without the least pain; indeed many have pronounced it the most agreeable remedy ever applied. There can be no danger in its use as its component parts are of harmless vegetable matter.

The mother of the subscriber who is the maker of the ointment, has been in the habit of giving it to her friends and neighbors for the last five or six years, and in no instance to her knowledge has its application been ineffectual, as will be seen by a number of certificates annexed, as well as the testimony of a medical gentleman who has used it himself, and prescribed it to the relief of others.

Those who are suffering will do well to make a trial of the remedy. Its efficacy is guaranteed, and there can be no doubt but that the disorder may be arrested in its earliest state, if no delay be made in its application.

The directions for use will be found on each bottle. SAMUEL H. MARKS.
Petersburg, Va., Aug 22, 1836.

I have used the Pile Ointment prepared by Mrs. Marks, and prescribed it to others, with the happiest effect. I therefore can recommend it to those afflicted with that disagreeable complaint —the Piles. L. WHITE, M. D.

Prince George County, July 3d, 1836.
Mr. S. H. Marks:

Dear Sir: In compliance with your request I will inform the public that I have had two members of my family frequently attacked with the Piles, and from an ointment that I obtained from your mother, they have in all cases found entire relief with a few applications.

JESSE HEATH.

Prince George County, Aug 18, 1836.
Mr. Sam'l. H. Marks:

Dear Sir: Yours of the 17th instant was duly received, and it affords me pleasure to comply with your request. I have been afflicted with that disagreeable disorder, the Piles, and also my negro man, and I obtained from your mother the ointment that you offer to the public, and in all attacks both my man and myself have found entire relief. In addition to the above experience, I have given it to some of my friends, and I have never known it to fail giving relief. I would recommend this ointment to those who are subject to this disagreeable disease, as an efficacious and agreeable remedy.

I am yours respectfully,
JOHN McBROOM.

Richmond, July 16, 1836.

Sir: I received yours of the 12th inst., you wish me to inform you of my situation at the time that you gave me a bottle of your Pile Ointment, and what effect it had on me.

I had the piles as bad as any person could have them—so much so, that I could not attend to my daily labors; and in truth, I could scarcely get out of my room. I commenced with your ointment, and in three or four days, I was entirely relieved. I would recommend it to the public, as being one of the most excellent remedies that was ever offered to the public.

WILLIAM CARSON.

Petersburg, Aug. 19, 1836.
Mr. S. H. Marks:

Dear Sir: I take pleasure in informing the public, that I was very badly afflicted with that disagreeable disorder, the Piles, and I obtained from you, a bottle of your ointment, and in a few days the disease was entirely removed. I would recommend it as an infallible remedy. JAMES T. MURPHY.

Petersburg, 19th Aug. 1836.

As a duty I owe to Mr. Marks I will inform the public that I have been badly afflicted with the disagreeable disorder, the Piles, and I obtained from him a bottle of his ointment, and I must say that I have never used any thing that has given me so much relief. I would recommend it to the public as being one of the most agreeable and efficacious remedies that can be used. S. M. JACKSON.

BECKWITH'S PILLS. ANTI DYSPEPTIC

For the cure of almost every variety of functional disorder of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Spleen; such as heart-burn, acid eructations, nausea, head-ach, pain and distention or the Stomach and bowels, incipient Diarrhea-Colic, Jaundice, Flatulence, habitual costivenss, loss of appetite, sick head-ach, sea sick, ness, &c. &c. They are a safe and comfortable Aperient for Females during pregnancy and subsequent confinement, relieving sickness at the stomach, head-ach, heart-burn and many of the incidental nervous affections. Literary men, students and most other persons of sedentary habits, find them very convenient. Those who indulge too freely in the pleasures of the Table find speedy relief from the sense of oppression and distention which follow, by taking the Pills. As a dinner Pill they are invaluable. Those who are drinking mineral waters and particularly those from Southern climates and ague and fever districts, will find them a valuable adjunct. Those who are exposed to the vicissitudes of weather, on voyages or journeys, can take them at all times with perfect safety. In full doses they are a highly efficacious and safe Anti-bilious Medicine, They seldom or never produce sickness at the stomach or griping.

Their efficacy is strongly attested by certificates signed by the following gentlemen, viz.—Bishop Ives, Rev. Dr. M'Pheeters, Rev. G. E. Freeman, Rev. B. T. Blake, Gov. Iredell, Hon. Henry Potter, Hon. G. E. Badger, Hon. Rich'd Hines, Thos. P. Devereux, Esq, Professor Anderson, Wm. Hill, Esq. Sec'y. of State, Wm. S. Mason, Esq. late Treasurer, Jas. Mount Pleasant Academy.

The Spring Session of this insitution will commence on the 15th of January, 1837. This Academy, situated in the county of Orange twelve miles north west of Hillsborough, six miles north of Mason Hall, and six miles west of Prospect Hill in Caswell county, offers every facility for a complete academical course of education and upon as reasonable terms as the high prices of the times will possibly justify. There will be two full sessions of five months each in the year.

The prices for instruction in the first class are five dollars per session, and in the second class ten dollars per session.

The first class among other things comprises the following branches, viz. Penmanship, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography with the use of the Maps &c: History, Philosophy, Logic, Astronomy. The branches taught in the second class are the Latin, Greek and French Languages.

At the expiration of the first session there will be a public examination, and a vacation of two weeks. The very flattering manner in which this institution has been patronized by a generous public, lays the subscriber under many strong obligations, and produces in him a determination neither to spare expenses, pains, nor labour, to render this insitution in every respect inferior to none of the kind in the State.

The subscriber is prepared to accommodate twelve or fifteen students with board at six dollars per month. Board can be had convenient to the academy for any amount of students.

If any person should wish to correspond with the subscriber upon the subject of the Academy, he will please direct to Pleasant Grove post office.

PROCLAMATION
By the Governor of North Carolina.
200 Dollars Reward..

WHEREAS it has been made known to me, by the verdict of an Inquest held by a Justice of the Peace, that Ferebe Howell, late of New-Hanover county, was recently murdered in said county, and that NEEDHAM HOWELL stands charged with the commission of the said felony; and whereas it is represented that the said Needham Howell is a fugitive from justice:

Now, therefore, to the end that the said Needham Howell may be apprehended and brought to trial, I have thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, offering a reward of two hundred dollars to any person or persons, who will apprehend and confine him in the jail, or deliver him to the sheriff, of New-Hanover county; and I do, moreover, hereby require all officers whether civil or military, within this State, to use their best exertions to apprehend or cause to be apprehended, the aforesaid fugitive.

Given under my hand as Governor, and under the Great Seal of North Carolina, at the City of Raleigh, this 14th day of January, A. D. 1837.
L. S.
By the Governor
EDWARD B. DUDLEY.
CHRISTOPHER C. BATTLE,
Private Secretary.

Needham Howell is a young man about twenty five years of age, five feet eight inches high, very stout made, has a remarkably round face, blue eyes, a very smiling good countenance, a wild stare, and cannot look a person in the face when speaking to him.

HILLSBOROUGH
FEMALE SEMINARY.

The Winter Session will open on Thursday the 26th instant, under the same approved and experienced teachers to whom the school is already indebted for a long and faithful course of instruction. The studies of the several classes will continue as heretofore. In consequence of the advanced prices of the times, the trustees are reluctantly constrained to increase the tuition-fee of each class. The prices for the ensuing session will be as follows:

For 4th Class	$12 00
2d and 3d Class,	15 00
1st Class	17 00
Instruction in Music	25 00
in Drawing & Painting	12 00
in Needle-work	5 00

NEW COMMISSION HOUSES.

The subscribers have associated themselves under the firm of BRANCH, WINFREE & Co., in Petersburg, Va. and WINFREE, WILLIAMSON & Co., in Richmond, Virginia, to conduct a general commission. We will make advances and pay charges on produce sent us for sale. We flatter ourselves to be able to give general satisfaction, all of us having had experience in the purchase and sale of products sent to our markets, and being determined to give strict attention to the interest of Planters and Dealers, who may confide their business to us. Should any of our Patrons desire it, we will, at all times, give our personal attention to the purchase of groceries, dry goods, or other articles that may be ordered; thereby enabling the planter to get his supplies on the best terms.

LOST,

One Black Morocco Pocket Book, between Louisburg and Rolesville, containing sundry Notes and Accounts. One note on Elizabeth Terrel, for $50; one on J. Fogg and J. Mann for $50 or the rise; and several more, the amounts not recollected. I would warn all persons not to trade for them, and I will satisfy any person that will return the Book and its contents, in Louisburg, or at Rolesville, as I can get it again.

WINDSOR HOTEL.

The subscriber has purchased the large and extensive tenement, lately occupied as a Tavern, by Dr. William Watson, in the town of Windsor, Bertie county. There is probably no House in the eastern part of North Carolina, which is more commodious than this Hotel. A large part of the establishment is entirely new, and very extensive. The subscriber pledges himself that every attention shall be given to the comfort and convenience of his guests. His table and bar shall be supplied with the best which the country affords; and his stables are supplied with good provender and attentive ostlers.

Mr. Peter Boss,

Take notice, that a bill of complaint has been filed in the court of equity for Bertie county by Cullen Capeheart against Curry Blanchard and Odah Boss, as the heirs at law of Curry Butler deceased, and against you, as the husband of the said Odah, praying specific performance of a contract between said Butler and Capeheart, for the sale of a tract of land therein described: and that at its September term last, that honourable court decreed, that publication for six weeks be made in the Raleigh Star, that unless you appear before said court, at its next term, to be held on the third Monday in March next, in the town of Windsor, judgment pro confesso, as to you, will be rendered on said bill, and the prayer of the complainant granted.

WAKE FOREST INSTITUTE.

At the late meeting of the Trustees of the Wake Forest Institute, it was resolved that the laws stipulating the amounts of students' pocket money, and the trading in Stores, be repealed. It was furthermore resolved that the amounts due each student, for labor, be hereafter paid them at the expiration of each and every month. Considered sufficient for pocket money.

The school will re-commence on the first Monday in February next. The annual expense at the Institute is $100, the one half of which is required at the beginning of each session, viz. 1st February, and 1st July. The Trustees are happy to state that the College building will be in readiness by the beginning of the Session, and that they have obtained the services of Mr. Ryan, as Steward, whose experience and persevering habits, they hope, will give general satisfaction.
