Mr. E. P. Nash, Dear Sir-1 visited the city of Richmond in

Dear Sir-I vaited the city of Richmond in June last for the purpose of purchasing a Pland for my daughter; after examining the market and finding none with which I was pleased, declined purchasing. On my way home called on you, in Petersburg On examination, found yours of very superior tone to any I had service therefore determined to purchase one of the make of the content of t of Storiart, Worse ster & Dunham, and requester you to select one, which you forwarded in f lew days. After a long and fair trial, it gives me pleasure to inform you, that it was instru-ment of the first order. Many persons of (both male and female,) who are well qualified to judge, have performed on it and pronounced it to be of a superior tone, action and power; all who hear it are delighted with the sweet high tone of the instrument. I beg leave most respectfully to recommend your Pianos to all who may wish to purchase.

Yours, very respectfully, A R DORTCH Col. Durtch, in purchasing the Piano alluded to above, left the choice of the same es E P NASH. Petersburg, Va tirely to myself.
