The People's Ticket Washington Township.

After deliberate consultation, and with the consent of all the parties, the following ticket has been fixed upon FOR MAGISTRATES:

Col. Thomas D. Smaw ; J. J. Whitehurst ; Francis P. Hodges ; John R. itardison; Fayton Tayroe; Alfred Peyton.

FUR SCHOOL COMMITTEE: Coi. R. W. Whorton; Edmund S. Hoyt; Prince Howard.

TOWNSHIP CLERK .- Thomas Tuten CONSTABLE .- William bay uor. It will be seen, this is not a partisan ticket. Three of the persons are colored men, respected and reliable. The white gentlemen are of the best Let our people now organize, and this ticket will triumph. More remarks in ou: next,

LOCAL DEPARTMENT

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN .- This is the name of a large, well-gotten-up political paper just started in Elizabeth City. It presents a good appearance, is Republican in politics, and promises to be an interesting journal.

THE CAROLINA FARMER .- The July number of the Carolina is on our table .-We have been able to give it only a cursory examination. But we should judge it to be fully equal to its predecessors in every re. spect. There is great variety in its articles, and they seem to be exceedingly practical and well adapted.

TURNIP SEED .- Read the advertisement of Joseph Potts & Son. Mr. Potts has had long experience in the sale of seed, and it will pay the purchaser to patronize him. See the advertisement of Hoyt Brothers. They also offer turnip seed for sale and farming implements of all kinds.

MASON'S IMPROVED PRESERVE JAR .-We have seen at Jackson's this new invention for preserves, and should call it a complete thing. It has a glass cover with a metal screw, thus keeping the fruit from contact with the metal, and at the same time being perfectly air-tight. Very little sugar is required, and the entire method is exceedingly simple. Get these jars at once for the fruit season, without waiting, and they will pay you. They are far superior to all others. Full directions go with the SODA WATER .- Go to Jackson's this hot weather for Soda Water.

WATERMELONS .- We have seen some feeble, straggling watermelons lying about the platforms of the stores, but none sufficiently fine either to be eaten or to merit attention. We are hoping for a large crop this year, and as they have been adjudged to be a healthy fruit, We hope we shall not be mistaken. Several of our citizens are engaged in their culture. Mr Louis Sat terthwaite, we are informed, has quite a !arge tract of ground platted with them.

MAMMOTH TURNIP-BEET .- We have received from Mr Edwin Hodges a mammoth turnip-beet, weighing 67 pounds, as d threequarters of a yard in circumference. We have heard of larger beets, but never saw. one. Mr. Hodges has raised this vegetable since the middle of March. Who expects the next premium on productions of the soil? Let our farmers resolve to raise the largest and best, and they will succeed.

THE DEATH OF THE INNOCENTS .- The Death Angel has been busy with the little children of our community. Messrs. Telfair, Fultord Blount, Wh rton, Wise and Harris, have lost infants in rapid succession. These little creatures learn the road to our hearts' very early. And then, when they begin to suffer, so speechless are they in their pain, so appealing in their looks and so touching in their groans, that we take up naturally their burden of agony. and share it with them: But then, after althey are white-winged, though we cannot see it, and are learned in the songs which they never sing here. With no touch of the dusty road upon their garments, and with no love of the dark world in their spirits, they are the only visible tenants of the shining City that ever linger on the earth. And when they go before, it is only some sweet yet broken strain that has faded on head of us, some crimson glitterings of the sunset that hover on the higher summits while we are struggling in the gloom below And how the thoughts of them are sweet to us, when their little dust has budded into violets and butter-cups. How the memory of them comes to us, in the night of our sorrow, like a soft, sad voice from over the sea. We see them in the after dreams of starry hours, and we never think of the the best in the market. Patent Medicines beautiful world, without picturing the gleam AT OLD PRICES. Sweet QUININE, beautiful world, without picturing the gleam of their happy faces forever and forever at home. And then the death of the innocents sometimes opens Heaven to the gui ty.

FACTS FOR THE LADIES .- Mr Wm. H. Oliver - Dear Sir : Have you the new cordeand bra der to Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines? You will oblige me by giving me prices. I have been using the machine, purchased of you, since 1859, with the greatest satisfaction, and during the whole time ii has only required to be kept clean and we'l offed to do the most beautiwork on all kinds of material, from broadcloth to thread cambric. I have seen nany different machines, and heard their owners bestow most enthusiastic praises on them, but have not yet seen one that would compare with my dear old Wheeler & Wil-
