LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

YES, you certainly should insure your life, but insure it in a Company operating under the rigid laws of the State of New York.
THE WIDOW'S & ORPHAN'S BENEFIT LIFE INS. CO. OF NEW YORK.
Security, Promptness.
Equity and Benefit to Policy Holders are its prominent features.

FINCH & MARTIN,
General Agents,
W. H. Finch, one of the General Agents, is now in the city, and will be pleased to serve parties desiring Insurance.

We cordially recommend Mr. Finch to our eastern people. He is the right man in the right place. His Insurance Company strikes us as one of the best, if not the very best. Give him a fair hearing.

See notice of the removal of Joseph Potts & Son to the brick building opposite the Bank of Washington.

LOST BRACELET.—Read the advertisement of a lost bracelet. If left with F. P. Harris, Esq., or at this office, the finder will be rewarded.

THE WEATHER.—Ever since the eclipse, up to within a few days past, it has been cold enough for fire. It is now warm and pleasant again.

A. T. BRUCE & Co.—We see that these gentlemen, at a recent sale in New York, bought the first bale of new cotton at fifty cents a pound. Early cotton, this large price, and enterprising buyers. The Bruces have more friends at the South probably than any other house, and they deserve them.

EDGEWOOD SCHOOL.—We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of this school. We understand that a most excellent teacher has been employed, in every way competent to conduct a first-class school. The locality is one of the most pleasant in this section, the neighborhood is refined, and everything will doubtless combine to give satisfaction to every patron of the enterprise.

W. G. JORDAN.—Read the advertisement of Mr. Jordan, published in this issue. He is a gentleman well known to the people in Eastern North Carolina. Formerly a resident of Wilson and one of its most energetic and prosperous citizens, he is now engaged in the Commission line in Norfolk, Norfolk and Baltimore are the natural depots for our cotton. Let our farmers and others give this new house a trial.

THOMAS ROBINSON.—This gentleman, formerly associated with Mr. George Brown in the Commission business, has gone to Baltimore to establish a house in that city. We can ill afford to lose a merchant of such activity, intelligence and enterprise. We wish him all the success he can desire in his new home. We cheerfully commend him to our people everywhere, who may have business transactions in Baltimore. His care will be presented to our readers at an early day.

DOUBLE.—We learn that a very estimable citizen, well known for his quietness and modesty, has replenished his olive plants in a very fruitful manner. Whether boys or girl, he deserves the thanks of all good patriots and happy housekeepers.—That is the way to keep the Commandments. To be fruitful and multiply is just as much the duty of a good citizen, as to till the soil, build public works, establish schools, or anything else. Many blessings upon these infants!

NEW MAIL CONTRACT ON THE NEW BERNE LINE.—We learn that Mr. Haight, of this town, has the new contract between Washington and New Berne, and that he will put such accommodations on the line as will increase the comfort of travellers. We believe that Mr. Haight has managed his business well, that his charges are very reasonable, and that he studies to please his patrons. We hope that he will make this a desirable route.

COMMUNICATION WITH PLYMOUTH.—Messrs. Saffell & Baynor have established a regular line of travel, by way of Ansonville, between this and Plymouth. This must be a great accommodation to travellers! The road is hard, shady and pleasant, and direct by the old Stage Road, leading direct by Harvey's Mill. And now, if our people will encourage this effort of these gentlemen by a liberal patronage, it will be made permanent, and will be greatly to the advantage of all.

MR. BAILEY was an honest man and a good citizen, and died with a reasonable hope of a glorious immortality. Peace to his ashes.

THE SUBSCRIBER wishes to lay, immediately, a large wagon HORSE, and perfectly sound. He will give Two Hundred Dollars for such an animal. He must be warranted to be sound, and gentle. The subscriber can be found at Haight's store.

As I wish to give up the sale of Dress Goods and Notions, I will sell at COST for cash the balance of my stock.
