LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

See the change in the Edgewood School advertisement.
See D. N. Bogart's double column advertisement in this issue.
See advertisement of the Little Susquehanna. Send up your subscriptions at once.

APPLETON'S JOURNAL.—This scholarly paper comes to us every week. The cartoon accompanying the last, a beautiful representation of Long Branch, is alone worth the annual subscription.

LITTLE'S LIVING AGE.—One of the best collections in the country. It is a weekly collection of scientific, aesthetic, and descriptive articles, from the pens of the finest writers.

X—This mark placed on a paper, indicates that the time of subscription has expired. We will be pleased to have all our readers, whose time is out, immediately to send the money for renewal. Cut off as we are from steam communication, limited in our mail facilities to the border of destitution, we cannot carry on the paper, except upon the cash system. Our friends have done well; let them persevere.

ARTHUR'S HOME MAGAZINE.—The September number of this excellent Magazine is well filled with interesting matter.—Above the reach of criticism in its moral teachings, and select in its literary character, we should like to see it in every house in the South.

A RECAPTURED PRISONER.—We are informed by Sheriff Hill, that in the neighborhood of the Crawford place, he captured, a day or two ago, an escaped prisoner named Stocks. He was from Pitt prison, bound to Bay River.

REMOVAL.—Joseph Potts & Son have removed to the large, double brick store in front of the building formerly known as the Washington Bank. The new position is scarcely as good, in some respects, as the other; but in point of capacity, comfort, and security to goods, it is vastly superior.—This is one of our oldest and most influential mercantile houses, and we trust it may have every success in its new location.

EXCURSION FROM NORFOLK.—We learn that, on next Thursday, a number of merchants belonging to Norfolk will leave for this place on a new steamer specially intended for the navigation between the two points, if she happens to suit. It is also designed, to take to our people an excursion into the Sound. We hope that the occasion will be a pleasant one on all sides, and that it may prove the happy inauguration of a permanent steam line between this and Norfolk.

MORFON'S NEW HOUSE.—This gentleman is about completing a very neat and commodious structure, in the place of the old homestead, which will add very much to the appearance of the street and neighborhood. The building will consist of a large and convenient store on the first floor, and of a complete arrangement of private apartments on the second. Mr. Morfon deserves great credit for the enterprise and energy displayed in this improvement. It is money well laid out, sensibly invested. Let others go and do likewise.
