oct 19-1m WM. MORTON

Died, November 9th, JAMES G. TAYLOR, son of Dr. David Taylor, aged four years. The departure of this bright little boy, with his wreath of sunny curls, and his intelligent, happy face, has been a sad blow to his parents. Over the river, leaving us in shadow and tears, go these herald spirits, but the shining shore will be only the more beautiful to us for their passing before. At the golden portals of the upper mansions awaiting our coming, they will make heaven more truly our home in our sad and starless hours. Upward and onward. The march is slow and weary. But they will all be there.

One Price Store.—J. J. Whitehurst has just returned from the North, with a complete stock of Fall and Winter Goods.
Specimens of Mr. Jacob Swindell's Cranberries may be seen at the Drug Store of Mr. Bogart.

The Olive.—This popular steamer will leave her wharf, as usual, this afternoon at 4 o'clock. She has a full load.
Call at Whitehurst's, the ONE PRICE STORE, before buying elsewhere.

PRESBYTERIAN FAIR.—This festival was a great success. It was well attended each night, and ready sales were made of the articles on hand. The dinner was truly a sumptuous affair, and well spiced with wit and garnished with beauty, as we happened to eat our dinner in company with the Bar, and were waited on by most elegant and tasty Ladies. About $500 were taken in on the net proceeds.

If you want a durable, neat, and reliable SHOE, call to see Whitehurst. He sells none but good shoes.

The most beautiful styles of Calicoes in the market to be found at Whitehurst's.

Dr. J. J. LAWRENCE.—We had the pleasure of meeting this gentleman of Rosadalis fame in Norfolk, during our late visit to that city. We have heard it remarked that there was nothing striking in his appearance. But this is not the first mistake we have heard made in physiognomy. His face indicates a quick, nervous, outgoing character, and shows a great deal of force. He has been the most wonderful advertiser in the South. He paid Brick Pomeroy $1600 for one page of the LaCrosse Democrat. He told us, that, in one year, his advertising amounted to $75,000! His last medicine, Koskoo, is going off rapidly. His reputation covers the continent, and while he has spent a fortune in advertising, that expenditure has laid the basis of a still greater fortune. We should like that all our business men could hear his opinion on advertising.

Whitehurst has a splendid stock of clothing and gentlemen's furnishing goods.
