Young People Have Prayer Service

The Young People of the First Baptist Church were in charge of the Prayer Service held last night in the church.
The Primary department with their leader, Mrs. Herman Greene opened the service with the call to worship. The Young Peoples' Auxiliary was in charge of the devotional followed by the singing of "Stand Up For Jesus." Effie Lou McLean read the scripture.
The highlight of the program was a play given by the R. A.'s under the direction of their leader, Richard Benet. Sentence prayers were said by the G.A.'s after which the group sang, "Bring the Light." During this the Annie Armstrong offering was carried to the rostrum.
At the conclusion of the program Miss Evelyn Strauchon announced that open house will be held from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock Friday for anyone wishing to see the new nursery suite.

MRS. PAUL G. WHITE, left, has been elected president of the Junior Woman's Club of Dunn for the coming year, succeeding MRS. DWIGHT ROWLAND, right, the retiring president. Mrs. White has been a leader in the club for a number of years and has held various other offices in the organization, and this year is serving as first vice president. Mrs. Rowland is retiring after a very successful term of office. The new officers will take office next fall. (Daily Record Photos.)

HAWLEY-HARDISON VOWS SPOKEN

On Friday evening, at seven o'clock in the Glad Tidings Church of Dunn, Miss Eva Mae Hawley of Dunn, and Mr. Wallace Hardison of Newton Grove were united in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hawley of Dunn, and the bridegroom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Hardison of Newton Grove. Rev. A. A. Amerine, pastor of the Glad Tidings Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. A. A. Amerine, pianist, and Mrs. Andrew Stirling, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music.

The church was beautifully decorated for the candlelight ceremony with evergreen and ivy and baskets of white gladioli and fern. The bride was escorted by her uncle, Mr. David Capps, of Selma, who gave her in marriage. Sister of the bride, Miss Daphne Hawley, was maid of honor, and the brother of the bridegroom, Mr. Sherrill Ray Hardison, was best man. Mr. Hunter Tart and Mr. Ervin Ragan were the ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hardison received the congratulations of many relatives and friends attending the ceremony, after which they left for their wedding trip.

Friendly HD Club Holds Meeting

The Friendly Home Demonstration Club held their March meeting Monday night at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. L. C. Upchurch and Mrs. Norcott R. Upchurch as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Roy Grimes, president, called the club to order and led in the club collect after which the group sang, "O' What a Beautiful Morning." Mrs. Haywood Edwards, secretary, called the roll to which 23 members responded. The club had as guest, Mrs. Upchurch's sister Mrs. Edwin Penny. The treasurer gave her report and the club voted to contribute to the Red Cross.

Mrs. Cecil Wilkins gave a report on clothing, the facts about accessories to help the individual. The poultry leader, Mrs. L. C. Upchurch, gave helpful suggestions on raising spring chickens.

The president turned the meeting over to Miss Vail, the home demonstration agent, who talked on "Accessories and You." Miss Vail demonstrated the basic suit with ways to dress it up or down. The club women were amazed at the different costumes this suit made.

The hostess served plates of chicken salad, pickles, stuffed celery, crackers, coffee and cookies. The meeting adjourned to meet in April with Miss Euna Jones.
