FBI Head Asked To Testify At Crime Hearing

WASHINGTON, March 26—(UP)—Senate Crime investigators called on FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover today for advice on how to smash organized crime.

Hoover and Attorney General J. Howard McGrath, testified before the crime committee (at 10 A. M. EST) as it began its last scheduled week of existence.

McGrath told another Senate committee almost a year ago that he knew of no "great national crime syndicate." The present committee, headed by Sen. Estes Kefauver, D., Tenn., has uprooted two syndicates (one in Chicago and the other in New York).

Sen. Charles W. Tobey, R., N. H., a committee member, plans to ask the Senate to order at least a 60-day extension past the Saturday expiration date. He said Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York should consider a "talk-fest" with the committee about alleged collusion between New York State Police and gamblers at famed Saratoga Springs.

ELSEWHERE IN CONGRESS:

Tax Concessions—The joint mobilization watchdog committee soon will hit mobilization officials with an investigation of tax concessions of billions of dollars to business. Chairman Burnet R. Maybank, D., S. C., is asking Congress for $100,000 to investigate the entire mobilization setup. The committee also wants to know whether five per cents again are trying to make (Continued On Page Four)

Argentina's Atom Project Called Joke

NEW ORLEANS, March 26 — (UP)—W. McFadden Duffy, who visited Argentina last month, said today the people of San Carlos de Bariloche took as a joke the atomic experiment, announced by President Juan D. Peron.

The experiment was announced Saturday as having been carried out on Huelmo Island, seven miles southeast of San Carlos de Bariloche, a resort center.

Peron said Argentine scientists had effected the controlled release of atomic energy on the island last Feb. 16.

Duffy, assistant publicity director of International House, was in San Carlos de Bariloche Feb. 14. He said the townspeople "just grinned" whenever the project was mentioned.

Duffy said no attempt was made to maintain secrecy about the project. A large billboard sign, he said, identified the island as a "project of Juan and Eva Peron—pilot plant for atomic energy."

Only the island, which is located in Lake Nahuel Huapi, 850 miles by air southwest of Buenos Aires, was guarded by Argentine soldiers, Duffy said.

The place, Duffy said, just didn't have life atmosphere of a (Continued on Page 7)

Arrest Foils Murder Plot

TEHRAN, Iran, March 26 — (UP)—A plot to assassinate Gen. Abdul Hussein Hejazi, military governor of Tehran, has been thwarted with the arrest of four men, police sources said today.

The four men were said to have confessed that they belonged to the extremist Moslem politico-religious sect Fidayah Islam (Devotees of Islam) whose members already have assassinated Premier Gen. Ali Razmara and his education minister, Hamid Zanganeh.

Zanganeh died yesterday from a gunshot wound inflicted a week ago. Razmara was slain at a Tehran mosque March 7.

Police sources said the four would-be assassins of the Hejazi were arrested on suspicion yesterday while hanging around police headquarters. They were found to be carrying loaded pistols.

Questioned, they confessed they were planning to kill Hejazi, informants said.

Enemy May Make Final Stand At 38th Parallel

TOKYO, March 27—(UP)—American tanks and infantrymen drove the last large body of communist troops out of South Korea Monday, but there were indications the Reds were preparing to make a stand along the 38th Parallel.

Two American tank and infantry columns linked up north of Seoul, forcing 30,000 or more Red troops to flee north across the parallel rather than be trapped.

The two columns joined above Ujongbu, 10 miles north of Seoul, in the area where the Chinese Communist 26th Army and remnants of the North Korean 1st Corps have been holding out.

Late front dispatches said however there were indications the Reds have halted their pellmell withdrawal along the 50-mile central front.

These reports said communist troops who fled before the savage United Nations attack are filtering south again and taking up positions on high ground just below the 38th Parallel.

FIGHTING CLASH. Fighting tapered off to brief clashes as the 8th Army advance slowed up at points about 10 miles south of the border all along the western half of the front.

Tank patrols clashed briefly with camouflaged Red outposts dug into bunkers on hill slopes northeast of Chunchon. Other Allied patrols found small communist blocking forces on high ground overlooking the main highway north from Chunchon 15 miles east of Chunchon.

Clearing weather sent Allied warplanes into the air in droves again. The 5th Air Force flew 685 sorties.

Along the eastern half of the front the Allies were on the frontier. At a number of points and South Korean patrols apparently were stabbing across at will.

Dormitory Named For Joel Laytons

Campbell College's newest dormitory in honor of Mrs. Joel G. Layton of Lillington and the late Joel Layton, friends and benefactors of the Baptist Junior College for many years, it was announced today by President Leslie H. Campbell.

This action was taken unanimously at a meeting of the Campbell board of trustees, held in the offices of Chairman Harry C. Carter in Greensboro.

Mrs. Layton, who formerly served on the college board of trustees, recently made a contribution of $10,000 to the Campbell expansion fund in memory of her deceased husband.

For many years Layton was prominent in the Little River Baptist Association and built two churches and presented them to the association during his lifetime. He died two years ago.

Mrs. Layton likewise has been a leader in the Little River Association and has held a number of positions in the organization. FUND TOTALS $108,000. At this meeting of the trustees, (Continued On Page Two)

There was plenty of crying over split milk—$3,000 worth—Saturday night when a tractor-trailer loaded with the stuff smashed at contents over the road.

Patrolman David Matthews of the State Highway Patrol said today that the road was not entirely cleared of broken milk bottles and other debris until 7 a. m. Sunday, although the accident took place Saturday night at 8:25.

He added that the driver of the truck, Robert Lee Cornell of Newport News, Va., was booked for careless and reckless driving.

Witnesses said that Cornell, driving a truckload of milk intended for Fort Bragg, attempted to pass a long line of traffic and rammed into a car driven by Alvin B. Barefoot of 511 S. Magnolia Ave.

Barefoot, at the head of the line, signalled to turn, the witnesses pointed out. Cornell's truck hit the car, jackknifed to the right, overturned and wound up on the right side of the road pointing north.

Damage to the tractor was set at $400, while the trailer suffered $3,000 in damage. Total damage was $6,400.

Barefoot's 1948 Chevrolet was damaged $500 worth. Cornell was treated for lacerations of the leg and forehead, Matthews said.

Patrolman W. F. Grady of Angier assisted in the investigation.

A wreck on the Benson highway at 3:30 this morning injured two men, one slightly.

James Gilbert Woodall, 23, an employe of Bell Bakeries, told Patrolman Matthews that he ran off the road and overturned when an oncoming driver refused to dim his lights.

An occupant, Robert Jefferson of Newport News, Va., was injured when the car operated by Woodall left the road. Jefferson, a Coast Guard seaman home on sick leave, suffered an injured shoulder. Woodall's lip and knee were injured.

Around Capitol Square

By LYNN NISBET RALEIGH CORRESPONDENT

RE-DISTRICTING—It is almost certain there will be no re-districting of North Carolina by this General Assembly for purposes of more equitable representation in the national House of Representatives and in the General Assembly. Experienced political observers have doubted there would be any changes made this year, but some hopefuls introduced bills designed to effectuate the constitutional mandate for reapportionment after each decennial census. Attitude of a majority of the House Committee on Senatorial Districts expressed at the first session of that group Thursday proves that prospect of correcting existing inequities falls in the category of wishful thinking. Similar attitude has been voiced in meetings of the committees on congressional districts.

SECTIONAL—Partisan politics, that is conflict between Democrat and Republican parties, has much less influence on the situation than does sectional rivalry. Small counties in the east and in the west are highly favored by the present district lines, both as to representation in Congress and in the General Assembly. They have more votes in the General Assembly, and it is quite obvious they intend to use whatever advantage they presently have to perpetuate the inequities. Members are frank to admit (Continued on Page 7)
