Chinese Move In More Troops For Big Fight

TOKYO, April 4—(AP)—A second American division sent a task force ripping four miles into North Korea today on the right flank of a 15-mile-wide bridgehead established across the 38th Parallel by American troops Tuesday.

An 8th Army communique reported the new thrust into North Korea ran into heavy enemy and artillery fire which faded out as the Yanks continued their drive into Communist territory.

At last reports the task force was continuing its advance against minor enemy resistance estimated at company strength.

The new thrust was on the right of the original bridgehead into North Korea established by another American division in the area of Yonpyong, 32 miles north northeast of Seoul.

The original bridgehead was extended from 10 to 15 miles during the past 24 hours to provide a firm left flank for the new drive by a neighboring division.

The new thrust ripped north along a secondary road leading from Uijongbu to the big Communist base of Kumhwa, the center of communist concentrations estimated by Gen. Douglas Mac-

Hanna And Wilkins File For Reelection; Bass Joins Race

E. A. BRACEY

Mayor Ralph E. Hanna and Commissioner Joe A. Wilkins of Ward III, who is also mayor pro tem, filed for reelection in Dunn's municipal campaign this morning, and the first contest developed when J. A. (Brow) Bass filed for commissions in Ward II.

BULLETIN

Commissioner E. A. Bracey said at noon today that he will file for reelection later this afternoon.

Jesse H. Capps filed in the second ward yesterday as the first candidate to enter this year's campaign.

There is a possibility that at least one other candidate may also file in the second ward. O. W. (Billy) Godwin, prominent young Dunn leader, said this morning that he is considering making the race in that ward. A similar statement was made by George F. Owen, who previously served for several terms in that ward.

VANN IS MENTIONED There are also reports that Commissioner Earl Vann of Ward III may oppose Mayor Hanna for the city's top office. Vann, who was elected in Ward II but now resides in Ward III, said this morning that he was not yet ready to make any announcement.

Neither Mayor Hanna nor Commissioner Wilkins made any formal announcement today, but indicated that they are running on their record in office.

Wilkins previously had considered opposing Mayor Hanna, but decided to run for reelection as commissioner.

Neither did Bass make any formal announcement, except to say that he would serve to the best of his ability.

Gregory Suggests Adding Deputies

A measure which would allow Sheriff W. E. Salmon to add five regular deputies to his staff provided Harnett's voters agree to foot the bill has been introduced in the House by Representative Carson Gregory of Angier.

The bill, sent to the House Finance Committee yesterday, provides that salaries of the deputies would be paid from a special tax levy, not to exceed five cents per $100 of evaluation. Salaries would be set by the County Commissioners and would not run under $250 a month, according to Gregory's bill.

A special election of Harnett voters, to be called by the commissioners, would be needed before money could be earmarked for the deputies' salaries. Voters would have to approve the special salary-raising tax levy.

Fees collected by the deputies would be earmarked for the county's general fund.

Some Workers Reported Going Back To Jobs

The possibility of an injunction against the striking union in Erwin opened the gates at the two struck plants there yesterday afternoon, according to Union Manager J. Thomas West.

West said that Erwin Mills, Inc. was believed to be drawing up an injunction against Erwin Local 250, Textile Workers Union of America, because entrance had been refused to workers who wanted to enter the two plants.

Earlier in the day automobiles had been used to block the gates and no one was allowed to enter. Later the gates were opened, but pickets remained on duty before them.

REPORT TO WORK

Some 50 mill workers reported on the job at 6:30 this morning, according to West. W. H. Muse, assistant manager of Erwin Mills in Erwin, said this morning that "some machinery" was running in the plants there.

Erwin is the only locality in the six Southern states affected by the strike in which an injunction has been threatened, West added.

Meanwhile, Emil Rieve, TWUA president, claimed that the shut-down of 47 Southern cotton and textile plants is a "complete success."

He said that major chains, such as

Barden Claims House Backing For Draft Bill

WASHINGTON, April 4—(AP)—Rep. Graham A. Barden claimed powerful backing today for his plan to extend the draft and settle universal military training.

Barden, who is chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee, told a reporter that response had been "absolutely top" to his appeal to all House members making support of his plan as a substitute for a pending bill combining draft and UMT provisions.

As debate on the draft-UMT bill went into its second day, there were signs that the bill's opponents—both Democrats and Republicans—might be lining up behind the Barden bill as the best way to beat UMT. However, no action can be taken until next week.

PREDICTS DEFEAT

Armed Services Chairman Carl Vinson, D. Ga., predicted the Barden bill would be defeated.

JUDGES—Companion bills pending in Senate and House designed to eliminate necessity of appointing special judges by affecting the constitutional provision for election of more than one Superior Court judge in a district, are not given much chance of passage by close observers. No serious criticism has been heard of the merits of the proposals. But this General Assembly seems even more "set in its ways" than its predecessors when it comes to making changes in established district lines. Numerous legislatures have ignored requirements of both federal and State Constitutions for re-arranging Congressional districts every 10 years. With similar nonchalance the requirement for de-districting State senatorial areas has been ignored. The amendment adopted last fall authorizing election of more than one judge in a district is the second constitutional attempt to eliminate appointive special judges. The other was when the voters in 1942 ratified an amendment separating solicitorial districts from judicial districts. (Continued On Page Six)
