

Grocers Asked To File OPS Reports

RALEIGH, April 20 — All of the estimated 6,000 grocers in Eastern North Carolina who have not yet filed a "store group report" with the Office of Price Stabilization here, are urged to communicate with the OPS, requesting the proper form for filing. The OPS is located at 700 Tucker St. here.

Director J. G. Clark of the OPS in Raleigh reminded that the deadline for filing of store classifications by grocers is April 30. Wholesalers must file "Form 4". Retailers must file "Form 5". Clark said. The forms are simple, brief and merely indicate the type store in operation.

Wholesalers are covered by OPS regulation 14, big retailers by regulation 15, small retailers by regulation 16.

"Big" retailers, for purposes of price control, have been placed in Groups 3 and 4, with annual sales volume of more than $375,000 for

Old Dunn Firm In New Place

Nothing as trivial as a fire which practically ruined their business could keep three determined Dunn merchants from coming back stronger than ever.

So-W. E. Barfield, O. M. Hamilton and Pete Shell, owners of Automotive Supply Company, buckled down after fire struck their shop at 122 N. Wilson Ave. last September and found themselves a new stand for their wars.

According to Barfield, Automotive Supply lost only two days from the fire—and that time was consumed in moving stocks from the old place to the new one in October.

Now the company is located in a vast new building on N. Railroad Ave. The stock supply has been increased 25 per cent since the move was made and a highly efficient machine shop has been installed.

BEGAN IN 1936

The business first got under way in Dunn back in 1936 when Barfield left Erwin Mills and decided to set up shop for himself. He opened the business at 109 N. Wilson Ave. and operated it there until he went into the Army in 1944. The Army was no place from which to run a business, so Barfield sold out.

When he left the service in 1946 Barfield teamed up with Mack Hamilton and Pete Shell and bought his old firm back. Then it was located at 122 N. Wilson Ave. Things went along fine until the fire of 1950, which threatened to put them out of commission.

The World War II stretch wasn't the first fling at Army life Barfield took. He the Army in 1925, staying in for three years. After leaving the service he went to work in Erwin Mills before opening his business.

During World War II, when he was called back to service, Barfield put in 10 months in the United States and another nine in the European Theater of Operations with a quartermaster outfit. He left the Army as a private first class.

Born in Sampson County, Barfield attended Clinton High School. He is married to the former Ruth Pope of Dunn and has four children, three boys and a girl.

Barfield is a third degree Mason and head usher at the First Baptist Church here.

DUNN NATIVE

Pete Shell, a Dunn native, graduated from high school here and attended old Trinity College, now Duke University. During World War I he served in England, France and Belgium with the headquarters of the 119th Infantry Battalion, 30th Division. After leaving the Army as a sergeant Shell traveled with a number of dance bands. He played a mellow trumpet with such bands as Jan Garbor's and Tal Henry's, among others.

Leaving the trumpet behind, Shell took a brief try at baseball, holding down first base for Smithfield in the Eastern Carolina League. Mickey Route, 208 E. Cumberland 4-19-3t-c and said a red-headed woman labor leader was arrested yesterday for using abusive language to a non-striker.

Bert Gammon, a Dan River Mill worker, told police that shots were fired into his home early today. Gammon said a shot also was fired into his parked car.

SO THAT THERE WILL BE NO MISUNDERSTANDING AS TO MY POSITION ON THE CITY MANAGER ISSUE, I AM STATING BELOW FOR PUBLIC RECORD EXACTLY WHAT I FAVOR:

I am WHOLEHEARTEDLY in favor of the City Manager form of government.

Mr. E. Thomas Hobbs is a fine, reputable and well educated young man, however, I do not feel that his retention as City Manager would be best for the Town of Dunn or for Mr. Hobbs.

If reelected I shall make a motion at the first meeting of the new Board to retain Mr. Hobbs as City Manager until he is recalled to active duty with the Navy, PROVIDED, he is recalled prior to June 15, 1951. In the event he is not recalled prior to June 15, 1951, he is to be relieved of his duties as City Manager as of that date. I will make every effort to help select the best available man for the new City Manager and pledge to him my complete support.

I have served as commissioner from Ward IV for the past two years as conscientiously as possible and I will greatly appreciate your vote and support in the coming primary.
