Chairman Boyle could not be binding upon his successor, who would have his own plans for conducting the election campaign. Before the date of the proposed barbecue another governor will have been nominated in North Carolina, a State chairman will have been selected by that gubernatorial nominee and named by a State executive committee yet to be chosen. Also before that time the Young Democrats will have held two State conventions at which new State presidents will have been elected. In view of these facts, it seems unusual and presumptuous for those now in control of party machinery to seek to project that domination into the next regime so far as State and national chairman and candidates are concerned, and two administrations ahead in YDC.

BOSSISM—Critics of Governor Scott have charged since he first came into office that he would attempt to build a powerful political machine in the State. There has been to date no evidence of such purpose on his part. There is, on the other hand, conclusive proof that no such machine exists. The governor did have an opportunity to weld the diverse group which contributed to his election into a working machine, but he failed to seize it. He did not seek co-operation or support from factions originally antagonistic, but apparently deliberately widened the breach. He has made some excellent appointments, some not so good; but he has not used his appointive power to build a political machine. Such "organization" as he did have proved ineffectual in the last primary, in relation with two General Assemblies, and in connection with his appointee to the supreme court. How successful will be the apparent attempt to project his personal leadership into subsequent administrations remains to be seen.

HISTORY—Only one governor has exerted much influence upon State politics after leaving the office. Max Gardner did it by taking over leadership of the dominant faction and working with and through it, rather than by ignoring or fighting it. Gardner's influence was potent for 15 years, following a period of 20 years' dominance 150 miles northwest of Seoul, by American jets and chased back to the Manchurian border.

One of the four MIGs was damaged in a six-minute dogfight. The American jets returned to base unscathed.

UN ground forces on the far western front made a new delaying stand four miles south of Munsan, northwest of Seoul and held firm against "everything thrown against them," an 8th Army spokesman said.

"They fought a magnificent delaying action," he said.

One Allied unit was surrounded for a few hours this morning northeast of Munsan, but a tank task force went to the rescue and brought the encircled unit back safely to the main lines.

The spokesman said communist units charging down the Yongchon-Uijongbu-Seoul invasion corridor north northeast of Seoul were held 20 miles from the capital.

REDS BREAK THROUGH
Northeast of Uijongbu, the Reds broke through the UN line temporarily, but were contained.

Still another Communist column was locked in heavy battle with the 8th Army east of Changgo, 22 miles east of Seoul on the Kumhwa-Seoul highway.

UN forces counter-attacked the communist central front bulge some 35 to 40 miles northeast of Seoul at several points.

One Allied task force drove 3,000 to 4,000 yards northeast into enemy-held territory against moderate to intense small arms and automatic weapons fire. At last reports it was fighting its way back to the main UN line.

Little or no contact with the enemy was reported south southwest of Hamachon, northeast of the bulge. Only moderate enemy activity was reported on the eastern sector around Yanggu and Inje, both north of the parallel.

The communists appeared to be concentrating their main effort against Seoul on the western front.

RE-ELECT MAYOR RALPH E. HANNA

ON MONDAY, APRIL 30th

- A PUBLIC-SPIRITED EXECUTIVE
- A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESSMAN
- AN ABLE ADMINISTRATOR
- AN ENERGETIC CIVIC LEADER

Safe — Sound — Sure

DUNN NEEDS HIS SERVICES

MAYOR HANNA'S RECORD SPEAKS FOR ITSELF

Citizens of Dunn who are familiar with the affairs at city hall are happy and proud to be able to endorse the reelection of Mayor Ralph E. Hanna.

No man in the history of our town has ever worked harder, more energetically or more enthusiastically than Ralph Hanna during the two years he has served as mayor. In fact, it has been just about a full-time job for him.

UNDER HIS LEADERSHIP, Dunn has made progress and continues to make progress. You can check up on every progressive movement started here during his term and you will find that he has lent his full and wholehearted support both as Mayor and as a private citizen.

HIS PROGRAM IS SAFE AND SOUND. Mayor Hanna has inaugurated a long-range program of improvement for the Town of Dunn which has received the approval and endorsement of all citizens—even his "political enemies." Surely, the citizens of Dunn are going to vote to let him continue that program. ONLY ONE CHARGE HAS BEEN BROUGHT AGAINST MAYOR HANNA AND THAT CHARGE, BROUGHT BY A LONE INDIVIDUAL, HAS NOT BEEN SUBSTANTIATED WITH ONE SINGLE FACT.

Somebody has said that Dunn "ought to be cleaned up" and they've tried in vain to blame Mayor Hanna because there is bootlegging in the town—just as there is bootlegging in every town.

MAYOR HANNA NOT ONLY HAS ENDORSED THE FIGHT AGAINST CRIME AND LAWLESSNESS, HE HAS LED THE FIGHT.

In his tireless fight to combat crime, Mayor Hanna has increased the size of the police department. He has increased the appropriation of the department to aid in the battle. Not only that, he has called in the highway patrol and other law enforcement agencies to help. He has demanded time and time again that all agencies join and work together to make Dunn a better and cleaner town.

No Mayor ever made a more forthright statement on this issue than Mayor Hanna when he said:

"I had rather be known as the man who cleaned up my town than to be Mayor."

CHECK THE POLICE BLOTTER—COMPARE THE NUMBER OF SAIDS AND ARRESTS DURING HIS TERM WITH PREVIOUS YEARS.

YOU'LL FIND THAT MAYOR HANNA HAS BEEN OUT FRONT IN THE FIGHT AGAINST CRIME AND DISORDER IN DUNN.

THE RECORD IS THERE—IT CANNOT BE DENIED.

DUNN NEEDS THE SERVICES OF THIS YOUNG, ENERGETIC,

TIRELESS, PUBLIC-SPIRITED CITY OFFICIAL.

In addition to his past two years as Mayor, he offers to the people of Dunn the benefit of his 14 years as fire chief, building inspector, fire inspector and other positions with the town—to say nothing of his 18 years experience as a successful business man.

AS A PUBLIC OFFICIAL, AS A CIVIC LEADER, AS A LEADER IN HIS CHURCH, AS A VETERAN WHO FOUGHT IN WORLD WAR II, AS A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESSMAN, AS A LARGE TAXPAYER, AND AS A MAN WHO HAS A PASSION FOR PUBLIC SERVICE, MAYOR RALPH HANNA IS BEST QUALIFIED TO SERVE YOU.

HEAR MAYOR HANNA FRIDAY AT 1:05 P. M. ON WCKB—ALSO AT 5:15
