Double Ring Ceremony Unites Dunn Man And Courtland, Kansas, Girl

Miss Eleanor Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Larson of Courtland, Kansas, became the bride of Lawrence Langston Sunday, April 29 at 2:30 o'clock in the Lutheran Church in Courtland. Mr. Langston is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Langston of Dunn.

The couple spoke their vows before the Rev. C. A. Losgren, using the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Wilbert Johnson of Kackley, Kansas, played an organ prelude before the ceremony. Mr. M. L. Van Gundy sang "I Love You Truly" and "Oh Perfect Love." During the ceremony "The Lord's Prayer" was played.

The bride entered the church with her father and had as her attendant her sister, Mrs. Harvey Crowell. Best man was John Band, cousin of the bride, and ushers were Arvid Band and Andrew Olson, also cousins of the bride.

The bride wore a gown of white satin featuring a full skirt. The yoke of the dress was outlined with applique lace and the sleeves tapered into points over her hands. The skirt extended into a long train. Her fingertip veil of nylon and illusion was caught to a tiara of seed pearls. She used white satin slippers and carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses. The bride's attendant wore a blue gown of net over taffeta with matching mitts. She carried a bouquet of yellow gladioli and daisies.

The mother of the bride was attired in a blue crepe dress with black accessories. A corsage of tulle roses was pinned at her shoulder. Immediately following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at a reception in the social room of the church.

The three-tiered wedding cake, which was baked and decorated by her aunt, Miss Eleanor Olson, was placed on one end of the table. Miss Dorothy Henderson pouring punch. Miss Leota Sandberg was in charge of the guest register and Mrs. James Ricketts and Mrs. Lee Witschi helped with the gifts.

During the reception, Mrs. Minnie Fleming played a piano prelude and the bride's sister, Mrs. Crowell, sang "Because" and "Always." The Rev. Mr. Losgren and the Rev. Mr. Jacobson gave greetings.

The bride is a graduate of Courtland High School and attended Brown-Mackie School of Business in Salina, Kansas. At the time of her marriage she was employed in Salina.

The bride-groom is a graduate of Dunn High School and is serving in the Air Force. The couple is in Dunn visiting Mr. Langston's parents.
