over, his side of the structure was damaged by smoke and by the water poured on by firemen to douse the blaze.

Around 8:45 Friday morning the firemen were again called out to douse an oil stove blaze. Little damage was done to the home of Margie McNeill at 404 E. Edgerton St., since the fire was put out promptly.

The house is owned by George F. Pope.

GOWIN'S HAS IT
Builders, contractors and just private citizens have learned that when they can't find hard-to-get building materials elsewhere, they can always find them at Godwin Building and Supply Company in Dunn.

Mr. Godwin extends to the public a cordial invitation to visit his place of business and to see the huge stock of building materials on hand. Not just a few items or just a few choices—but everything to build with and a great, immense choice of selection in every item.

No, you can't do business with an empty wagon.

Because Godwin Building and Supply Company realizes that fact, it is growing and progressing and giving better service to its many, many hundreds of satisfied customers.

Electric Shock Resistant

ALBANY, N. Y. — (AP) — An almost-blind radio repairman can "generate" light. Francis Helmes, 31, holds a neon tube to his ear and causes it to light up by placing his finger on a 1,000-volt cell. He explains that in his work he has built up a resistance to electric shock.

FATHER MCCARTHY RECEIVES KEYS TO DUNN PASTORATE—Father Francis A. McCarthy, own here as he knelt last night during formal ceremonies to receive the keys to the local church from Father Peter Denges of Southern Pines, ranking priest in the Raleigh district. This is Father McCarthy's first pastorate. Priests are seated on both sides of the church. The impressive ceremony was well attended. (Daily Record Photo.)

Dixie Bright 101 and 102 are the first tobacco varieties developed which have combined resistance to both black shank and Granville wilt.
