The name of Casey will always bring back memories like these:
It was the fourth game of the Yankees—Dodgers World Series in 1941. The Yankees were leading the series, 2 games to 1, but they were losing this one, 4 to 3, with two out in the last half of the ninth inning and two strikes on batter Tommy Henrich.

On the mound stood Casey, the 200-pound "Rock of Gibraltar"
whose work as a "fireman" had brought the Dodgers a Pennant.

TOUGH BREAK
Fat Casey cranked up and, with that familiar overhand motion, let fly a whistling fast ball that broke sharply into a curve as it cut the plate, Henrich swung and missed, apparently for the third out. But Catcher Mickey Owen, one of the urest hands in baseball, missed the sail. It bounced off the tip of his glove and rolled to the stands to alert Henrich sprinted safety to first. The game was still on. Casey, who apparently shot his colt with that tremendous curve which some baseball men insist was asthodor, was harmered free-group of boys, especially one, left the park.

Harnett County's young American Legion team blew sky-high in last nights' encounter with the boys from Lenoir County. Bad throws, fumbles, and strike-outs were frequent with the local boys as they came up with a bad case of nerves, or something.

The visiting team, however, played a swell game. The fielding was of professional calibre, and the pitching that young Fichter fired at the Harnett boys would have given lots of more experienced ball players trouble. The Lenoir hurler deserved a lot of credit for his performance, and Coach Troy Godwin showed that he is a good sport by crossing the field immediately after the game and giving the visiting pitcher the game ball and congratulating him.

J. D. Faircloth of Erwin did a good job on the mound for the home team. In fact, the visitors

In fact, the visitors never did get an earned run, and they made only seven hits, two of which were questionable, off the himiling of Faircloth and Jimmy Campbell who replaced him. Faircloth had to leave the game after pitching 6 innings because of a sore arm.

Litle Bobby Day Godwin, the 14-year-old centerfielder of Dunn, was the only offensive threat that the Harnett team had last night. Bobby Day god 3 hits in 4 trips up and one was a triple in the last time had a gas tand and the sevent of the hits, and Firestbaseman Lewis Tart got the other one.

Twenty-five of the 33 cars that raced at Indianapolis last Memorial Day showed up with 17 others for the first time trials Monday and Tuesday.

There were no serious accidents during the trials, but Carl Scarborough of Clarkston, Mich., spun his McNamara Special into the fence during a practice run and smashed a gas tank. He later qualified after installing an emergency tank.
