Kay Alphin Honored On Sixth Birthday

Little Miss Kay Alphin was honored on her sixth birthday Thursday when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Alphin, entertained several of Kay's friends at a birthday party at the Alphin home.

During the afternoon, outdoor games were played, and later Kay opened her many interesting gifts.

The guests were invited into the dining room where sandwiches, birthday cake, ice cream and drinks were served. Summer flowers decorated the home.

Kay gave each child attending a party favor.

Those enjoying the party with the honoree were Jenny Sercy, Jean Hudson, Dorothy and Elaine Adcock, Peggy Beasley, Barbara Norris, Patricia, Betty and Woody Stewart, Betty Ward, Elaine Curly, Jean, Jane, Ann and Clifton Alphin, Mrs. W. V. Wheeler, Mrs. J. L. Honeycutt and Mrs. Woodrow Stewart.

Mrs. James Yates Bridge Hostess Monday Evening

Mrs. G. C. Mitchell and Mrs. John Ciccone were guests when Mrs. James Yates entertained at bridge Monday evening at 8 o'clock at her home on West Divine Street.

Beautiful arrangements of zinnias, snap dragons and gladioli were used in decorating the Yates home.

Mrs. Mitchell was awarded guest high prize at the conclusion of play and Mrs. Glenn Riddle tallied the highest club score.

Second high prize went to Mrs. Mickey Rouse.

Following three progressions the hostess served lime sherbet, devil's food cake and nuts.

The club members playing were Misses Libby Ray Cromartie, Kitty Taylor, Eleanor Goddard, Louise McCugan and Mrs. Glenn Riddle, Mrs. Mickey Rouse.

Mrs. Ernest Beasley and her daughter Eleese, spent the week end at Carolina and Wrightsville Beaches.

DAUGHTERS-IN-LAW HONORED — Mrs. George Pope McKay, Sr. of Dunn entertained at tea yesterday afternoon at her home from 4:30 to 5:30 honoring Mrs. Leon McKay, a recent bride, and another daughter-in-law, Mrs. George Pope McKay, Jr. of Shreveport, La. Pictured here in the receiving line are: Mrs. McKay, the hostess, Mrs. Leon McKay, Mrs. George P. Mrs. McKay Entertains For Daughters-In-Law

One of the loveliest social events of the summer season occurred yesterday afternoon when Mrs. George Pope McKay entertained at open house honoring her daughters-in-law, Mrs. Leon McKay, a recent bride, and Mrs. George Pope McKay, Jr. of Shreveport, La. Guests called to meet the honorees between the hours of four thirty and six thirty o'clock.

Mrs. Henry C. Lee received at the door, and Mrs. Arthur Pope made the presentations to the receiving line. Those in the receiving line included Mrs. George Pope McKay, the honorees, Mrs. Leon McKay, and Mrs. George Pope McKay, Jr., Mrs. Archibald K. Currie of Raeford, mother of the bride, and Mrs. William Rawlings of Capron Virginia, the former Novella Pope. Mrs. Leon McKay wore her wedding gown for the occasion and the costumes of those in the receiving line were complemented with corsages of orchids.

The mantel in the living room held an unusual arrangement of magnolias and magnolia leaves. Other bouquets of summer flowers were arranged throughout the room with pink asters and carnations predominating.

Mrs. Hubert Peay and Mrs. James Snipes invited the guests into the dining room where Mrs. Alfred Blalock received. A color scheme of green and white, the bridal colors, was used in the dining room appointments. The table was covered with a beautiful applique cloth, and was centered with an
