Council Will Adopt Budget For 1951-'52

Official adoption of a $343,500 budget for the 1951-52 fiscal year is expected to be adopted by the Dunn city council tonight at its first August meeting.

The budget, as presented May 21 by former City Manager R. Thomas Hobbs, originally called for $346,500 in expenditures. This figure was later pared down by the council.

The five-man ruling body is also expected to adopt a new tax rate of $1.68 per $100 of evaluation and poll and dog taxes.

Included in other matters to be decided when the council meets at 7:30 p. m. at the Municipal Building will be the presentation of a ruling by Attorney General Harry McMillan on the validity of parking tickets.

DOUBTFUL VALIDITY

The ruling was published in the November, 1949 issue of "Popular Government" magazine. It states that an ordinance allowing the owner of an automobile which has been parked overtime to be convicted merely on the evidence of ownership is "of doubtful validity."

During the meeting bids on a half-ton pickup truck for the Water Department will be sought.

Other topics on the agenda are: Tax refund of $47.94 to Carolina Cleaners following a similar adjustment by the county.

Approval of a two-inch water main on N. Ellis Ave. from Vance to Cleveland streets.

Approval of extension of about 300 feet of sewer line on E. Divine St. from the end of the existing line eastward.

Possible acceptance of offer of Contractor C. E. Latimer to pay $100 per house for installation of sewer and water on E. Pope St.

WOODMEN CIRCLE TO MEET

Variety Show Set Tonight

A variety show for service men will be presented tonight at 8 o'clock in the Dunn High School auditorium under the sponsorship of the Dunn Rotary Club, in cooperation with the Army Special Services Section, and a capacity crowd is expected.

Headed by the group of entertainers and special performer will be Edmund Harding of Washington, N. C., noted humorist who is in great demand all over the country. Harding plays the piano and accordion along with his humorous talks.

Dr. Glenn L. Hooper originated the idea for the event and has been in charge of arrangements. Rotarians will serve as ushers and assist in other ways. Miss Shirley Jane Johnson will serve as accompanist and will also give a piano solo.

A well-rounded program of entertainment, including everything from tap dances to jugglers, has been completed.

Dancers from the Beddingfield-Leo Carte Dance Studio in Raleigh will present several numbers. (Continued on Page 8)

28th Division Comes To Bragg

The 28th Infantry Division will reach the Fort Bragg maneuver area today to take part in the joint Army-Air Force Exercise Southern Pine, which will be held Aug. 13 to 28.

One of three Army divisions picked to form the bulk of combat troops for U. S. Air forces in the war games, the "Keystone" Division, traveled by rail and motor conveyance from its training ground at Camp Atterbury, Ind.

The 28th Infantry will team up under VII Corps with 82nd Airborne Division and 43rd Infantry Division to beat back "Aggressor" advances aimed at the industrial centers of Raleigh and Durham. Maj. Gen. Daniel C. Strickler, division commander, said his men are "looking forward with great anticipation" to the two week exercise.

PRACTICE WAS SKILLS
"After 11 months of intensive training, the soldiers of the 28th Division will finally be able to put into practice their hard-learned skills during the war games here, waiting for," General Strickler said.

One major objective of maneuver planners is to accustom the combat troops to operations with tactical air support. Air strikes close to the front lines will actually be controlled by Air Force pilots with forward infantry units. The training exercise will give men of the division the experience of completely simulated combat conditions.

Bishop Tells Audience Here World In Need Of God's Help

"It is evident that the world today is in need of God's help," a high-ranking Catholic prelate told an audience of more than 2,000 persons at the Dunn High School playing field Sunday morning.

The speaker was the Most Rev. William R. Arnold, D. D., titular Bishop of Gaza, Military Delegate of the Armed Forces and Auxiliary Bishop to Francis Cardinal Spellman, cardinal archbishop of New York.

Bishop Arnold appeared here Sunday as celebrant in a military field mass sponsored by Dunn's Sacred Heart Catholic Church for the purpose of asking God's blessings on Exercise Southern Pine.

The forefathers of America gave life in this country a solid foundation by stressing their faith and acknowledging God as the creator, the bishop said.

REDEDICATION NEEDED
They pledged their "lives, wealth and sacred honor" for the preservation of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, he pointed out.

"The day has come when all of us must renew that pledge of life, wealth and sacred honor for the preservation of a country which recognizes Almighty God and its dependence on him," said Bishop Arnold.

A retired major general and former head of the Army's Chaplains Corps, the bishop expressed his pleasure at being back among the servicemen.

He spoke at the end of an impressive pontifical mass conducted on an altar erected on the field for the occasion.

The sermon, coming at the end of the celebration of mass, was delivered by the sub-deacon, Chaplain (Continued on Page 7)

War Games Will Not Halt Opening Of Tobacco Market

Because he did the Army and the defense effort a good turn in a patriotic manner, somebody is doing Buck Currin and the Dunn Tobacco Market a great disservice.

Earlier this year, Currin agreed to turn over one of his huge tobacco warehouses to the Army to be used in issuing supplies during the maneuver.

He made no charge to the Army, but accepted one dollar in payment, just to make the contract binding.

Now, the impression has gotten around that Dunn won't have a tobacco market this year because one of the warehouses is being used by the Army.

READYED FOR OPENING
Nothing is further from the truth. Dunn's five big warehouses — with more than a half million square feet of floor space — are now being put into readiness for opening of the Dunn market on August 21.

Dunn tobaccoists have a hunch that possibly some of the neighboring markets might be spreading the rumor.

But Currin and Dick Owen, who operate two of the five warehouses, give assurances that the Dunn market this year will have the biggest sales in history.

Dunn Native Suggested For Governorship

A move to "draft" Dr. Casper C. Warren, a Dunn native who is now pastor of the first Baptist Church in Charlotte as the Democratic nominee for Governor of North Carolina in 1952 has been launched in Western Carolina.

This morning's issue of The Charlotte Observer carried a six-column streamer and a column-long story on the possibility of Dr. Warren's entering the race.

First news of the "draft Warren" move came from Robert Thompson, editor of the High Point Enterprise and former secretary to Senator Clyde R. Hoey, on Thompson's radio broadcast yesterday.

WOULD HAVE BACKING
It is understood that Dr. Warren would be backed by the moral forces of the State.

Dr. Warren, former State president of the North Carolina Baptist Convention and one of the South's leading Baptist ministers, and now chairman of the General Board of the State Baptist Convention. He is a brother of Bob Warren of Dunn.

He was born in Dunn, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Warren. He studied law before entering the ministry and leaders in the draft movement point out that his legal background, coupled with his moral leadership, make him an ideal candidate.

In a statement made last night in Charlotte, Dr. Warren said: "I am interested in moral improvement throughout the State. I am certainly in favor of good government. However, my definite calling is the ministry and I have no thought of leaving the pastorate."

Despite the position, those be- (Continued On Page Seven)

HENRY SANDLIN

Sandlin Named To Area Post

Henry H. Sandlin, local Ford dealer and prominent Dunn business and civic leader, has been appointed area chairman for the National Dealers Association to stimulate active participation in the association's national programs throughout Harnett County.

Sandlin was selected as area chairman by a committee of NADA and North Carolina Automobile Dealers Association officials. The appointment was announced by P. L. Abernathy of Charlotte, the national association's director for North Carolina.

Sandlin is also president of the Harnett County Automobile Dealers Association.

NADA is the largest retail trade association in the country, with a membership of almost 34,000 new automobile and new truck dealers. The national organization is widely known for its sponsorship of highway safety and other public interest programs and its policy of supporting the highest standards and ethics of retail automobile merchandising.

Sandlin was one of the men responsible for the organization of the Harnett County unit and he has been active in the State organization for years. He is one of the State's best known Ford dealers.

Private Flying To Be Restricted

Commercial and civilian pilots in the Carolinas have been warned of the congested flying conditions in the area of Fort Bragg during the joint Army and Air Force Exercise Southern Pine, scheduled to be held Aug. 13 through 27.

Military combat aircraft operations in the immediate area around Fort Bragg will cause commercial and private flying to be restricted. Printed warnings have been sent out to pilot associations, commercial airlines and private plane owners. This material contains maps of restricted areas and information on the procedures expected of non-military aircraft while they are in these areas.

The area within a 60-mile radius of Fort Bragg has been designated a danger area, and pilots authorized to enter it should, before taking off, check the warnings published by Civil Aeronautics Association. In addition, pilots are advised to exercise caution in areas adjoining the danger area.

Coalition Not Needed

WASHINGTON—(U)—Rep. Clinton D. McKinnon (D-Cal) thinks Southern Democrats "will take care of themselves" without a formal alliance with the GOP as proposed by Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-SD).

Mundt, appearing with McKinnon on a Columbia Broadcasting System program last night, said such an alliance would "rescue the South from Northern carpetbaggers of the big city Democratic machines" by giving the South a choice of presidents.

But McKinnon argued that the alliance only would create confusion and tend toward weak government, with the GOP trying to dictate to the South.

Mundt has offered to support a Southern Democrat for president to launch an anti-Truman alliance.

Communists Say Move Involves 25-Mile Retreat

By Robert Vermillion
Up Staff Correspondent
TOKYO, Tuesday—(U)—

The Chinese Communist Peiping Radio broadcast last night that the United Nations demands a truce line which would force Communist armies to retreat up to 25 miles from their present front.

"We absolutely can not accept it," Peiping said.

Supreme headquarters here said officially for the first time that the Allies demand a line based "in effect" on "the line now generally held" by the U. N. forces. But the line the Allies hold never has been specified by the U. N. command, and censors refuse to pass dispatches purporting to give it.

LINE ESTABLISHED

Peiping said the Allies want to start the line at Soa-Ri, about 60 miles north of the 38th Parallel on the east coast, run six miles north of Pyongyang and 14 miles northwest of Chongwon, both cities now in Allied hands, through Kumchon, 11 miles north of the parallel and to the Ongjin peninsula.

"This involves establishment of a demilitarized zone inside the sectors presently held by the Korean people's army and the Chinese volunteer army," Peiping said.

Peiping said the Allies demanded the line on the ground that the allied superiority in naval and air forces justified it. Further, the broadcast said, the Allies are trying to bring pressure on the Red cease-fire negotiators by continuing air and sea bombardments of North Korea.

WONT GIVE IN

It took Peiping two hours to broadcast the 3,000 word statement in Morse code. It ended:

"We desire peace but we will never give in to your unreasonable demands."

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgeway urgently summoned his cease-fire negotiators to Tokyo yesterday, con- (Continued On Page Four)

Few Taxes Still Not Collected

Harnett County still has a dime out of every tax dollar to collect, according to a report submitted to the county commissioners by Tax Collector D. P. Ray, Jr.

Ray said that $67,114.15—or 10.27 per cent—of the $653,222.55 tax levy for the past year remains uncollected.

He told the commissioners that his office had collected $2,827.24 in taxes during July. Of that amount, $2,494.68 was in current taxes, $332.56 in delinquent account.

Other revenue brought in, $58,556.39, sending the month's receipts to a total of $61,656.73.

Collections for this year are running a shade under last year's take of 1949 taxes, with 89.73 per cent of taxes in now, as against a percentage of 89.83 for the same month in 1950.

One For The Books

A year ago this month Dr. Dan Royster of Benson, who owns a summer home at Topsall Beach, was host to Hiram Rose, businessman of Benson, Jimmy Rose, student at University of North Carolina, and Jim Deane of Raleigh, a brother-in-law of Dr. Royster. The group, all avid fishermen of a more or less amateur caliber, went out in the doctor's small boat to fish in the inlet, but the waters of the Atlantic Ocean looked so calm and inviting that they proceeded to make their way farther out.

After catching "a bushel" of black bass the doctor decided the waters were becoming a bit choppy and it would be logical to take their small craft back to shore. However, before they could reach shore the waves became considerably higher and when they were in water about waist deep the boat overturned, dumping them all into the water.

ARTICLES ARE LOST

Along with the loss of the fish, all of which immediately washed ashore, Hiram Rose lost his Pflueger reel and rod and his spectacles, and his son, Jimmy Rose, lost his spectacles.

Last week, a year after the Benson group had the above experience, Dr. Royster's wife, Virginia, was wading with a group of children, in water about knee deep near their cottage at Topsall when she saw what appeared to be a piece of drift wood sticking up out of the water. She grasped it and gave a pull—and to her surprise found that it was Hiram Rose's rod and reel, lost the year before. And in addition she found the fact that Jimmy Rose's spectacles were securely held in the fishing line wrapped many times around the rod and reel.
