The ole swimming pool is still he centur of attraction for the humites. Could it possibly be the rawny life guards???? It's nothing of see they tots swimming all round the spool. Thanks to Tommy, Mayo and Coach Waggoner, who aught free swimming lessons to hose who were interested. The relatis have been unbelievable! A big nearty "think you" goes to the Waggoner family for so generously living their time and talent to the utime citizens of Dunn.

Have you noticed the pretty girl behind the desk at Barbour-Byer-bening to the more company? It's Ann Byerly—hard at work—and doing a fine job we hear.

Pat Harris of Rocky Mount is enjoying her visit in Dunn—and especially, she seems to be enjoying Bozie Tart and Doc Corbett.

such subjects as salt plexies, dull plekies, sanerkraut, scaking brindship sickles, good vinegar, cooking pickles, can memorical packing, and cause of failure and how to avoid them. Several pages of recipes are included.

Pickle-making, says Miss Bryan, begins with the brine. She adds that most soft and unfit pickles can be attributed to carelessly mandatined brine. Copies of "Pickling," which is issued as Extension Circular No. 362, may be obtained from the local home demonstration agent or by writing the Agricultural Editor, State College, Raleigh.
