By OSCAR FRALEY
(United Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK — Still handsome Tommy Loughran, who failed 17 years ago to win the heavyweight championship of the world from towering, inept Primo Carnera, asserted sadly today that he was born that many years too soon.

"It is my opinion that the fighters of today would have been at the top in any period," said blue-eyed Tommy, "but I don't think they would have been champions. I believe that at my peak I would have whipped either Jersey Joe Walcott or Ezzard Charles."

As for the current situation in the heavyweight division, Loughran believes that old Jersey Joe is in on a pass.

"To me, Charles looked stale as well as over-confident the night he lost the title to Walcott," insisted the Philadelphia Irishman who once wore the world light-heavyweight crown. "If they fight again, I honestly believe that Charles will win back the title."

Loughran, now a sugar broker on Wall Street, argued that Walcott was "over the hill" and even would be beaten in a return bout with Joe Louis.

Louis has the incentive to become the first man ever to regain the heavyweight championship and I think that would win for him against Walcott," Loughran said.

TURPIN TO REPEAT

Surveying the current boxing scene, the one-time dancing-master of the ring contradicted most boxing experts when he asserted that Randolph Turpin, who recently won the world middleweight championship from Ray Robinson, again would defeat Sugar Ray in their rematch at the Polo Grounds, Sept. 12.

"He is strong, this Turpin, and by that very strength robbed Robinson of his effectiveness. Moreover, he concentrated his attack on Robinson's apparently weak wasp-waisted midsection and forced him to bend forward constantly out of his normal fighting position for body protection."

In another startling opinion, Loughran designated Irish Bob Murphy of San Diego, Cal., as the greatest fighter who has appeared in the ring during the last 25 years.

There was a longing look in the eyes of the handsome Irishman who, except for his inability to punch with killing force, might have been heavyweight champion of the world during a fabled era.

"If I was at the top of my form today, Tommy Loughran the man who never made the grade as heavyweight champion of the world, would be king of them all right now," he asserted sadly.

"Sure, and it's 17 years too soon I was born!"

Grid Yankees Sign Phelan

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Jimmy Phelan, master of colorful football, takes his flamboyant T-brand East tonight to introduce it to the New York Yanks of the National Football League.

Phelan, who was teaching wide-open football while the T-boys were still in knee braces, was "signed" by telephone yesterday by Yank owner Ted Collins to succeed ailing Norman Red Strader.

It will be Phelan's second professional grid venture. He coached the now defunct professional Los Angeles Dons in 1949-49 but has been among football's unemployed since the Dons were merged with the Los Angeles Rams a year ago.

Trotter's Trainer Carries Out Duties

GOSHEN, N. Y. — (AP) — An owner's faith in the harness racing know-how of 59-year-old driver Guy Crippen produced the 1951 Hambletonian winner—Mainliner.

When Mainliner, a dark brown colt with a short, pug nose and long, ground-eating legs, captured the richest Hambletonian of them all yesterday it was the first time owner Ralph H. Kroening of Milwaukee ever had seen him.

Kroening is a busy government contractor whose work has kept him away from the grand circuit this year. He bought the horse for $25,000 from Sep Palin, veteran trainer and driver late last year and entrusted him in the care of Crippen.

It was Crippen, in fact, who negotiated the sale for Mainliner. He spotted the horse last year and asked Kroening if he could buy him.

Kroening gave his trainer-driver an "Okay, buy him" reply and told Crippen to prepare him for the Hambletonian. Needless to say, Crippen did a good job.

...lining providing the margin of triumph.

STARS' BALL GAME A HOWL-BALL

Blaik To Remain At West Point Without Son And Without Team

By MILTON RICHMAN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WEST POINT, N. Y. — (AP) — A saddened but fiercely proud Earl Red Blaik began today to search through the ruins of the one-mighty Army football team for substitutes to man the gridiron ramparts this fall.

There's little doubt that it will be the toughest job Blaik has faced in his 10 brilliant years as Army's head football coach for yesterday he disclosed that the mass dismissal of cadets for cheating on examinations will leave only two of his 45 varsity players.

But Blaik, doubly stricken because his son, Bob, is among the cadets ordered expelled, is determined to carry on—and he has the good wishes of West Point men ringing in his ears.

"I feel that I can best make people understand these boys and do the proper thing for our fine institution, if I remain," Blaik said yesterday as he pleaded that the dismissed cadets, "honorable" men who had "ered" be granted honorable discharges.

But, looking forward to a rugged nine-game schedule this fall, Blaik could see little hope of rebuilding the Army "powerhouse."

"We will have the plebe class of last year, which has no linemen but a few good backs," said Blaik. "We will also have some B-squad junior varsity men left over from last year. It will be a trying situation, but we have and always have had some men of honor, and we will carry on."

It was indicated that plenty of shifting and experimenting will have to be done, with tackles moving to guard, guards to center, etc.

One of the cadets slated for dismissal, varsity left end Al Conway, said he and some of his mates had studied the roster of players left for Blaik to draw on and found "no stars."

"There are some pretty good players, but none really outstanding," said Conway. "However, they are in fine condition, as are all Army teams."

Army men, delighted at Blaik's decision to remain at the helm, hailed him as the academy's only hope for staving off disaster.

And the cadet that was closest to the coach, Bob Blaik, had this to say in a quiet voice: "I made a mistake, and I'm going to pay for it. But I'm tremendously pleased that Dad has decided to stay."

East, West High School Footballers To Meet At Greensboro Tonight

GREENSBORO — (AP) — High school football players from East and West North Carolina will clash here tonight in the third annual all-star football game.

The Western team was ranked as pre-game favorite on the strength of a starting lineup including seven all-stars from 1950 teams, compared to four on the kickoff lineup for the East.

The kickoff is set for 8 p. m., in Greensboro Senior High stadium. West Coaches John Trady of Winston-Salem and Red Hoffman of Wilkesboro have worked out a single-wing attack built around tailbacks Larry Parker of Charlotte Central an all-American, all-Southern and all-State star, and Sonny Ridenhour, all-Stater from Reynolds in Winston-Salem.

East Coaches Knecker Adkins of Rocky Mount and Bill Eutzel of Rockingham have put Tiddie Bullock of Ayden at quarterback and are counting on Charlie Niven of Wilmington to provide speed and punch at fullback.

Both lines average 182 pounds, but the East backfield at 180 has a four-pound average weight advantage.

Each club has won once in the series.

OLD "JOLTIN JOE" is back in the lineup and slapping the ball for the Yanks. DiMaggio hit a triple and a homer in the win over bungling Washington yesterday.

Man And Butterfly Make 15 Foot Putt

UPPER DARBY, Pa. — (AP) — Golfer Parker Jerrell of Philadelphia swears it happened. Jerrell made a 15-foot putt at the Gulph Mills of Golf Club yesterday which just missed the hole by a hair.

As he stroked forward, a large butterfly swooped down on the ball and fluttered its wings twice. The ball quivered, then dropped into the hole.

Dodgers Lick Giants Again — Run Lead Up To 12 1-2 Games

Runner-Ups Bow To Run-away Dodgers

By CARL LUNDQUIST
(United Press Sports Writer)

Chipper Charley Dressen, who shouldn't have a care in the world, figured today that the magic number for his wonderful Dodgers is 36—"If we win that many more games nobody can touch us."

The cocky little skipper, fresh from a three-game sweep over the second-place Giants, observed that his Atomic Bums were 12 1-2 games in front in what is quaintly called a race in the National League.

It almost sounded sadistic when he said "What we need around here is a real old-time winning streak, 10, 15, 1, I would be happy if it was 36 games."

It just happened that the Brooks had chalked up five in a row and had run up a 10-game streak shortly before that on a Western road trip.

So it almost sounds logical to think that they could win 36 of their remaining 50 games which would give them a terrific total of 106 games.

That would be the tops for the majors since the 1942 "team of destiny" Cardinals, and it is likely that this Dodger club is the best in the majors since that crew.

SUPERIOR BUMS

The Dodgers are now 12-3 for the season over the Giants, their so-called closest competitors, and, as if that wasn't impressive enough, they are 10-4 over third-place Philadelphia and an astounding 14-2 over the fourth-place Cardinals, who used to be their toughest rivals.

Even so, they got some bad baseball out of their systems yesterday in the 6 to 5 finale victory over the Giants in which Roy Campanella's second homer in the eighth gave them their victory. There were 24 walks in the game, a new National League record as Brooklyn pitchers put on 15 batters and the Giants nne. Monte Irvin and Dave Williams hit Giant homers.

Elsewhere in the National League, the Braves topped the Phillies 5 to 4, Chicago edged Cincinnati 5 to 4, and the Cards beat the Pirates 4 to 0.

Cliff Chambers of the Cards pitched a five-hit shutout against his old Pirate teammates and had his second no-hitter of the season going until two out in the sixth inning.

FIGHT A. L. RAGES ON

In the American League, the Yankees bounced back into a first place tie with Cleveland after surmounting the lead for one day. A 6 to 4 victory over Washington put the Yankee back even.

Cleveland was idle while third-place Boston dropped a 6 to 5 game to the Athletics, then ended a five-game losing streak with a 5 to 3 win in the nightcap. The split put Boston 4 1-2 games behind the deadlocked leaders.

The Browns topped the Tigers 6 to 3. Joe DiMaggio hit a homer and a triple, and Joe Ostrowski pitched almost seven innings of four-hit scoreless relief ball in the Yankee triumph.

Walt Drope hit a three-run sixth inning homer and Vern Stephens added a homer in the eighth in Boston's second game victory. Clyde "Clutch" Vollmer hit a three-run homer in the ninth inning of the first game, but his effort fell one run short of a tie.

Ted Williams also hit a first-game Boston homer, but Philadelphia went on a four-run rally in the eighth to provide a bare edge against Vollmer's climatic smash.

The Browns made six a lucky number scoring all six runs in the sixth inning for victory over Detroit.

Golfers Are Hot In World Famous Tam O'Shanter

CHICAGO — (AP) — The richest purse in pro golf's 1951 campaign, $12,500 for first place in Tam O'Shanter's so-called "world" championship, was anybody's prize today.

No fewer than 33 of the 65 pros in the chase for the bountiful payoff were bracketed from 87 to 70, with 54 holes left to go before Sunday's cash-in final.

Four aces, Ray Gafford, Dallas, Ted Kroll, New Hartford, N. Y., Al Brosch, Garden City, N. Y., and veteran Jimmy Demaret, Ojai, Cal., were the top shots in the first 18 holes, all with 67's.

But behind them were eight grouped at 68, including the prime favorite, bantam Ben Hogan, 11 at 69, and 10 at 70. Overall, 46 of the starting pros bettered the par 72 on the 6,915 yard links.

The 10 men amateurs, playing for top prize of $100 in merchandise, proved that the scoring was no freak. Three of the simon-pures, Frank Stranahan, Toledo, Dow Finsterwald, Athens, O., and Phil Scrutton, London, Eng., were grouped at 69.

The same was true of the women. Betsy Rawls, Austin, Tex., a newcomer to the pro ranks, knocked off five strokes off par at 71 and first place while Babe Dickrickson Zaharias, Chicago, had a 72. Two other feminine vets, Patty Berg, Minneapolis, and Louise Suggs, Carrollton, Ga., had 74's.

Canada's Top Netmen Face U. S. Cup Stars

MONTREAL — Canada's Davis Cup warriors backed against the ropes today and readied themselves for a one-two punch from Cincinnati and Orange, N. J.

On how tough and resilient they were and how fast they could get their guards up rested the Dominion's hopes of making a presentable showing in this weekend's North American zone tennis final against the United States.

Few fans here were ready to give their favorites much of a chance in today's opening singles matches against the roundhouse racquets thrusts of Tony Trabert and Dick Savitt. But as young Lorne Maine of Vancouver, B. C., and cup-tested Brendan Macken of Montreal headed out to the clipped grass courts of the Mount Royal Tennis Club the odds surprisingly were only 8-5 against them.

CANCELLED

The Bule's Creek-Auburn double-header scheduled for Taylor Field in B. C. last night was not played because Auburn did not have enough players to show up for the Cape Fear game.

day in the final round of the Myers-Park Country Club four-ball tournament.
