Miss Ann Elizabeth Dixon Weds Dewey Wallace Wells Saturday

The marriage of Miss Ann Elizabeth Dixon daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Howell Dixon, Jr., of Henderson, and Dewey Wallace Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryde Cuyler Wells, also of Henderson, took place on Saturday, the twenty-fifth of August at five o'clock in the afternoon at the First Baptist church in Henderson.

Reverend E. Norfleet Gardner, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Henry W. Whittenton, aunt of the bridegroom, presented a thirty-minute program of nuptial music before the ceremony consisting of the following selections: Serenade from "The Student Prince" by Romberg, "Melody of Love" by Englemann, "Andantino in D Flat" by Lemare, "Ave Maria" by Schubert, "My Poem of Love" by Fibich, "Indian Love Call" by Friml, "Liebestraume" by Liszt, "The Rosary" by Nevin, "Theme from the Andante Fifth Symphony" by Tschalkowsky, "Dream of an Angel" by Rubinstein, "At Dawn" by Schubert, "To A Wild Rose" by MacDowell, and "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" by Saint-Saen. Miss Dolores Matthews of Henderson, soloist, sang "Ich Liebe Dich" by Grieg, "O-Prémise Me" by De Koven, and "O Perfect Love" by Burleigh as a response to the benediction.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a classic lace wedding dress formerly worn by two sisters. It was fashioned with a smooth, fitted bodice, demurely covering up the throat and fastened with tiny, self-covered buttons.

MRS. GEORGE EMMERTZ who before her marriage on Aug. 1 in Dillon, S. C. was Miss Mary Quigley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Quigley of Dunn, Rt. 2 is shown above. Cpl. Emmertz, son of Mrs. Mary Emmertz of Chester, Pa., has been stationed near Dunn in connection with the Army maneuvers. The couple is residing with Mrs. Emmertz' aunt in Dunn, Mrs. Eva Barefoot.

4 Church Circles Meet Jointly

PAULINE RALPH, Editor

The four circles of the Presbyterian Church met jointly at the home of Mrs. E. H. Lasater, Sr., Tuesday evening for their regular monthly session and a picnic supper. Husbands of the circle members and the girls and boys of the church who are going away to school were special guests.

The Lasater home was decorated throughout with a profusion of summer flowers.

Supper was served buffet style from the dining room table.

After the supper the ladies assembled in the living room for their meeting.

Mrs. S. J. Clark gave the devotional and Mrs. R. M. Phillips made several announcements.

Following a short business session the meeting closed with the group repeating together the Mission benediction.

Present for the event were: Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Delmos Lashley, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ralford, the Rev. and Mrs. R. M. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Wilson, Mrs. Evelyn McLean, Mrs. Haywood Lu-

The petal-like collar in chorister style was edged with tiny seed pearls. The soft shoulders in cap sleeve effect were also trimmed with tiny seed pearls. Long, lace gauntlets, edged with seed pearls were pointed over the hands. The full skirt, worn over a hoop extended into a long, formal train. Her finger tip veil was of imported illusion and was held in place by a braided bandeau of illusion, adorned with small clusters of orange blossoms on each side. She carried a white bridal bouquet of gardenias arranged in a crescent shape backed with white satin leaves and narrow satin ribbons.

Miss Frances Dixon, sister of the bride, attended her as maid of honor. She wore a strapless gown of coral nylon net over matching taffeta, with a tight-fitting satin waistgirle and a bodice of chantilly lace over the net. She wore a matching net stole and braided bandeau. She carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of talisman roses, pom pom caryanthemums, tinted to match her dress and matching ribbons.

The bridesmaids were Miss Gladys Andrews, cousin of the bridegroom of Fuquay Springs; Miss Patricia Ellington of Charlotte; Mrs. Billy Williams of Chapel Hill. They wore the same type gowns in pale aqua nylon net and bandeaus as that worn by the maid of honor. Their flowers were also similar to hers.

Miss Karen Ann Wells, sister of the bridegroom, attended as a junior bridesmaid. She wore a gown of pale yellow nylon net over matching taffeta. It was fashioned with a boat neck line trimmed with a chantilly lace ruffle. She carried a bouquet in miniature size like that of the maid of honor.

B. C. Wells of Henderson attended his son as best man.

The ushers were Robert E. Dixon, brother of the bride, of Fayetteville, George Wells, brother of the bridegroom, Jimmy Page, and William Frazier of Henderson.

Mrs. Dixon wore a gown of cocoa brown crepe and chantilly lace sprinkled with tiny rhine stones and matching accessories. Her corsage was a bronze orchid.

Mrs. Wells chose a rose gown of crepe and chantilly lace. She wore matching accessories and her shoulder corsage was a purple orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home on Gholsen avenue.

Following a wedding trip to an unannounced destination, the couple will make their home in Wake Forest. For traveling the bride wore a two-piece beige linen dress with brown velvet accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

Mrs. Wells was graduated from Henderson High school and attended the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. She was receptionist for the Harriet and Henderson Cotton Mills in Henderson at the time of her marriage.

Mr. Wells was graduated from Henderson High school, Mars Hill College, and at the present is attending Wake Forest College where he will enter law school this fall.
