ERWIN SOCIETY Erwin Recreation Program Ends With Swim Meet Friday

The program at the Erwin recreation center ended very successfully with the August swimming meet at the pool Friday afternoon.

Passes to the Peerless Theatre were awarded to the following beginners in swimming: Thurman Faircloth, Herman Faircloth, Randy Wicker, Jerry Williams, Larry Odom, Bob Morris, and Bill Hudson.

A race for 7 to 10 year olds was won by Thurman Faircloth and from 1 through 12 years by Robert Dennis. Underwater races were won by Robert Dennis and Walter Morris, Jr.

Approximately 35 girls and boys learned to swim during the three month period with instruction in diving and swimming given by Mrs. Byron Stevens, Johnnie Pearce, and Elmer McCaskill.

Consolation

JUST a "replacement" is "Sparky" as he snuggles against the cheek of Paul Rhoads, 5, of Detroit. But in time, the puppy may be able to make Paul forget the tragic fate of his pet, "Boots," who was shot and killed before his eyes by a policeman. It seems that "Boots" chased a police car, and a patrolman, recently bitten by a dog, opened fire on the pup. A year ago, another pet dog was run over by a car. Paul hopes "Sparky" will have better luck. (International Soundphoto)

Former Sampson Court Clerk Is Buried Monday

Clinton—Clarence L. Fisher, 59, died Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock at the Sampson Memorial Hospital of which he was a member of the board of trustees, after a two months illness.

He was active in church and political circles. Born in Roseboro Community, he lived in this county all his life. He was a veteran of World War One and a member of the Junior Order of American Mechanics. He was secretary and treasurer of the Roseboro Baptist Church, and postmaster of that city for several years.

He was clerk of Sampson County Superior Court for eight years, chairman of the Sampson County Republican Committee in the 1940s and assistant to the Eastern North Carolina Executive Committee as organizer. He had just accepted the position as assistant tax collector of the county at the time of his hospitalization. He was a graduate of Campbell College.

Funeral rites were held at the Clinton Baptist Church, of which he was a member, Monday at 3 p. m. Burial was in the Clinton Cemetery. Services were conducted by his pastor, the Rev. W. P. Milne, assisted by the Rev. M. C. MacQueen of the Clinton Presbyterian Church and the Rev. G. N. Ashley of Salemburg.

Surviving are his wife; one son, Clarence Graham; four daughters, Ellen, Jane, Joe Meeks of the home, and Mrs. John Sikes of Richmond, Va.; his stepmother two sisters, Mrs. Z. T. Matthews of Rocky Mount and Mrs. H. D. Jackson of Roseboro; two brothers, A. M. Fisher of Scotland Neck and W. L. Fisher of Leesburg, Fla.

Coats Airman Ends AF Indoctrination

Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. Pvt. Stacy D. Byrd, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Byrd of Coats, has completed his AF basic indoctrination course at Lackland Air Force Base, the "Gateway to the Air Force."

Lackland, situated near San Antonio, is the world's largest air force base, site of Air Force basic training for men and women, headquarters of the Human Resource Research Center, and home of AF's Officer Candidate School.

His basic training has prepared him for entrance into Air Force technical training and for assignment in specialized work. The course included a scientific evaluation of his aptitude and inclination for following a particular vocation and career.
