

RUSSIA MAY PROPOSE BIG-4 CONFERENCE

Evacuation Of British Oil Men Ordered

(By United Press) Evacuation by warship of the last British oil men in Iran was ordered today as Britain carried the explosive nationalization dispute to the United Nations Security Council.

The 330 Britons, who had rebelled against London orders to "stand firm" against Iran's ultimatum to get out by Thursday, will be taken out of Abadan Wednesday under protection of the royal navy. They probably will leave on the cruiser Mauritius, which has been standing off Abadan for several weeks, the Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. said.

TO LEAVE VOLUNTARILY Alec C. Mason, assistant general manager of the AIOC, made the evacuation announcement after the oil men protested London's orders and said they would rather leave voluntarily than become "political pawns" in the Anglo-Iranian crisis.

The oil men told the AIOC management they were certain Iran would carry out the threat to expel them from this southern oil center Thursday.

RUSSIAN VETO EXPECTED At Fushing, N. Y., Great Britain was faced with a Russian veto in support of the Iranians.

The United States, whose W. Averell Harriman, was unable to settle the dispute as President Truman's representative in Tehran again was cast in the role of mediator and held conferences up until meeting time seeking a middle course that would avoid a stalemated show-down.

Sir Gladwyn Jebb, Britain's chief U. N. representative, interrupted his vacation at home and arrived in (Continued On Page Three)

Dr. Byrd Is Elected Harnett Couple To Head TB Chapter Facing Trial

Dr. Charles W. Byrd of Erwin was elected president of the Harnett County Tuberculosis Association at an organizational meeting held at the Park Center in Erwin Friday night.

In order to aid in the formation of the new county organization, two field secretaries from the North Carolina State Tuberculosis Association were present.

One of these, Hobson Chinnis will work with the Harnett Association in order to help in getting started. His companion, Norman E. Gaskill, is field secretary for another county and was present in an advisory capacity.

OTHER OFFICERS Other officers elected were Mrs. Paul G. Parker, Erwin, vice-president; and Mrs. H. C. Turlington of Dunn, secretary-treasurer. These officers together with Superintendent of Schools Glenn Proffitt and Dr. W. E. Adair, Jr., of Erwin will form the executive committee.

Chinnis outlined working plans which have been adopted in other counties with a similar organization. "But," he added, "I offer (Continued On Page Three)

New Taxes To Raise Prices On November 1

WASHINGTON — Cigaretts, gasoline, and liquor will cost more a month from today.

The price increases will come from higher excise taxes on those and many other items.

The Office of Price Stabilization automatically permits price increases to reflect new or higher excise taxes. In the case of excise taxes on the manufacturer's price, the retail price increase may be more than the tax so as to reflect the retailer's regular percentage markup.

A House-Senate conference committee still must adjust many differences between the tax bills passed by the two chambers. How- (Continued On Page Three)

Reds Hurlled Back In Korea

8TH ARMY HQ, Korea — United Nations forces hurled back the Communists in the air and on the ground today as Gens. Omar N. Bradley and Matthew B. Ridgway toured the Korean front.

Naval Chief Says Russia Can't Invade

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Adm. William M. Fechteler, chief of naval operations, said today that with control of the seas the United States could invade and occupy certain strategic areas in Russia.

With such command of the seas, he said, there is "no possibility whatsoever" that Russia could strike back and invade this country.

His views were given in a copyrighted interview with U. S. News and World Report, a weekly news-magazine. Fechteler described a navy, based on the "mobile" striking power of carriers, as "the means whereby we keep a war away from our homeland" and project "our military will on the enemy across the sea."

SEA CONTROL ESSENTIAL "Control of the sea is essential to the United States," he said. He added that he questioned the (Continued On Page Three)

Probe Of One Crime Leads To Another

One thing often leads to another in police work. Highway Patrolman Joe Whitaker found out yesterday afternoon. Investigating a reported accident at the Dunn Hospital, he found a Negro outside with a loaded pistol.

The accident, proved not to be an accident at all. He asked the driver of the car, about it and the driver, Alec McArthur, told him the supposed accident victim had been hit on the head.

When he went to the hospital, someone there told him that (Continued On Page Six)

BIG MOVIE CELEBRATION OPENS — The movie industry today is beginning a year-long celebration of the Golden Anniversary of the motion picture theatre. The campaign is called, "It's Movietime, U. S. A.," and James Yates, manager of Dunn's three theatres, is picture there beside one of the banners proclaiming the event. Every theatre in the nation is taking part in the big celebration. Movietime, U. S. A. Launched In Record

The Council of Motion Picture Organization today is inaugurating in The Daily Record and in other leading newspapers throughout the country the largest advertising campaign in recent years to celebrate the Golden Jubilee of the motion picture theatre.

Built around the theme, "It's Movietime, U. S. A.," the campaign is designed to call the public's attention to the industry's Golden Anniversary and to make the public more appreciative of the important role movies play in the life of America.

Theatres in this section and in every nook and corner of America are cooperating with this campaign.

The ads, first of which appears in today's issue of The Daily Record, are part of the over-all nationwide promotion celebrating the big anniversary.

These ads are being paid for by the distributor members of the CPMO, including Allied-Artists, Columbia, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Paramount, RKO, Republic, 20th Century-Fox, United Artists, Universal and Warner Brothers.

No campaign in recent years can compare with this big push by the movie industry.

SELECTED OVER OTHER MEDIA The Daily Record was selected over all other media in Harnett and this section by the advertising agency handling the account after a survey by the agency's large staff of researchers.

This agency sends researchers into the field to study and compare circulations, territory cover-

Papers Predict Stalin Will Meet Truman

LONDON — (UP) — Reports circulated in European diplomatic quarters today that Russia is preparing another proposal for a Big Four conference.

Two newspapers — one in London and another in Paris — predicted that Soviet Premier Josef Stalin would offer to attend a meeting with President Truman and the prime ministers of Britain and France in Berlin.

Most sources believed the Soviet bid, if it came, would be an 11th hour attempt to block the rearmament of Western Germany by holding out the possibility of unifying Germany, settling the Korean war and resolving other East-West differences.

HAS DROPPED HINTS Diplomats said Russia already has "dropped some very strong hints" that she is ready to compromise if the West will reconsider its steady military buildup.

Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee rejected in advance, however, any suggestion that the Western powers would call off their rearmament drive just because of the prospect of a Big Four conference.

"The plain fact is that when you are faced with a power like Soviet Russia, you cannot really negotiate at all unless you negotiate from strength," he said in an interview published in the liberal News-Chronicle.

The London Sunday newspaper The People predicted that Stalin would propose a Big Four meeting in Berlin after the British general election Oct. 25.

China and North Korea to accept an armistice on the line of the actual fighting front.

"According to highly placed sources in Stockholm," Aurore said, "the Soviet marshal is now in the process of putting the final touches on a solemn declaration which he will send very shortly" to President Truman, British Prime Minister Attlee, and French Prime Minister Rene Pleven.

Second Gin Fire Occurs

The second cotton gin fire in as many days was reported by Howard M. Lee, secretary-treasurer of the Dunn Fire Department. The alarm sounded at 3:38 p. m. Friday summoning the firemen to the gin of the Pine Bottom Gin Co. on the Newton Grove Highway, three miles from Dunn.

The fire, which originated in the lint which had collected on the top of the ventilator, was practically out when the truck arrived. The truck and eight men remained on the scene, however, until all danger of a rekindling of the blaze was eliminated.

Damage to the gin, which is owned and operated by Joe A. Jackson, was minor, and confined to the immediate area of the ventilators.

BULLETINS

LOS ANGELES. — (UP) — Pauline Pfeiffer Hemingway, 55, second wife of novelist Ernest Hemingway, died today only a few hours after entering St. Vincent's hospital. Cause of death was not immediately determined.

BOSTON. — (UP) — Three doctors and a wealthy Back Bay woman were to be arranged today in connection with what police described as one of the largest abortion rings ever to operate in Boston. They were arrested following a raid on an apartment where a card index listing hundreds of names was found.

Markets

DUNN TOBACCO MARKET

Dunn tobacco warehouses had full sales again today, which should push the season's totals way past six million pounds.

Sales Supervisor Joe McCullers reported that the good quality tobacco was about average and that prices were good. Good tobacco was bringing as much as $71 and $81.

On Friday, the market sold 268,916 pounds for $133,735.02, an average of $49.73.

Of this amount, the Big-4 sold (Continued on Page Six)

Wage Increase Demand Made On Erwin Mills

DURHAM — Erwin Mills spokesmen and textile union officials will meet here tomorrow to discuss a union demand for a 6 1/2 per cent wage increase.

A similar increase already has been approved for Northern textile workers, according to officials of the CIO Textile Workers union.

Erwin workers walked out last spring in the Southwest textile strike, returning to their jobs with a two-per-cent increase.

Officers Kept Busy By Weekend Crashes

Two wrecks on the same road were reported today by Highway Patrolman Joe Whitaker. Both happened Saturday, and one was the most unusual Whitaker has seen, he said.

The first of the pair occurred at 11:30 a.m. on a road known as the Howard Farm road, near Beasville. A 1941 Pontiac sedan driven by Carl Wise of Route 4 Dunn, going north, sideswiped a 1941 Plymouth driven by Willie J. Whitehead of Dunn Route 4.

Patrolman Whitaker said both cars were too far toward the center. However, both decided to settle and no charges were filed. Damage to the Plymouth was $30 and to the Pontiac $70.

Beasville road, a 1946 Pontiac sedan, going north on the Howard Farm road, driven by Johnny Mack Tucker, colored of Dunn Route 4, met a low car and a vehicle being towed.

The low car, a 1948 Dodge pickup, driven by Robert Cyril Smith, and owned by Temple Moore, was towing a 1937 Chevrolet driven by Lonnie Thurston of Dunn, Route 1.

THE ROD DROPS All parties agreed, according to the patrolman, that the low car, the Chevrolet, fell off a shoulder into the left side of the road, demolishing one side of the road and damaging the other about $100.
