Jones-McPhail Vows Exchanged Sunday

In a candlelight ceremony in the local Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, September 30, at four o'clock Miss Myrtice McPhail, daughter of Mrs. L. E. McPhail and the late Mr. McPhail, and the Rev. Horace E. Jones of Coaling, son of A. N. Jones, of Buies Creek and the late Mrs. Jones, were united in marriage. Dr. J. W. Angell, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the double-ring ceremony. For decorations floor baskets of white gladioli and mums were used, and candleabra flanked the altar.

A music program was presented by Miss Elizabeth Stillwell, pianist, and Miss Gladys Strickland, soprano, both of the Campbell College faculty. Piano numbers prior to the ceremony were Debussy's "Clair de Lune," Provoost's "Intermezzo," the First Movement from Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata," D'Ardelet's "Because" and "Evening Star" from Wagner's "Tannhauser." McDowell's "To A Wild Rose" was played during the ceremony. Vocal selections were "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" by Stults and Malotte's "The Lord's Prayer." Traditional wedding marches were used.

Miss Lucile Starling of Godwin, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore dusty rose crepe and carried a nosegay of blue delphinium and pink carnations tied with blue streamers. Allen Jones of Buie's Creek, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Harvey McPhail of Dunn, cousin of the bride, and Alan Spahnour of Manners, nephew of the groom. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Ernest McPhail of Burlington. She wore a dress of teal blue with matching hat, and carried a white Bible topped with an orchid. The bride, a graduate of Campbell College, has for several years been assistant to the college business manager. The groom, a graduate of Campbell and Wake Forest, with seminary training at Louisville, Ky., and a year at Westminster Choir School, served a church in Atlanta before returning to Carolina. Immediately following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jones, who greeted the guests and presented them to the receiving line composed of the wedding party. Mrs. Jack Ragland directed guests to the gift room and Miss Addie Prevatte of Luffberton presided at the guest register. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the wedding cake, Mrs. Carroll Matthews of Raleigh and Mrs. Sue Weeble served refreshments, assisted by Miss Edna Lee Page and Mrs. O. C. Matthews. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Mincey of Burlington. After a brief wedding trip the couple will be at home at Coaling where he serves a field of Baptist churches. The week prior to the wedding the bride-elect was complimented on several occasions. A crystal shower was given in her honor Sept. 22 at the home of Mrs. B. P. Marshbanks by Misses Elizabeth Stillwell, Lorraine Britton and Ora Conslor, of the Campbell faculty, and Mrs. Carroll Matthews of Raleigh, last year on the Campbell staff. About thirty guests were present. Mrs. L. E. Chenault and Mrs. Jack Ragland were joint-hostesses Tuesday, September 25, at a buffet supper at Mrs. Chenault's. Twenty-five guests were present. At a faculty ladies' coffee hour at the Home Ec Cottage, Monday evening Miss McPhail was hoping, guest, receiving a gift from Mrs. Leslie Turlington, Home Ec teacher. Thursday evening at Mrs. E. H. Lasater's a miscellaneous shower was given by Mrs. Lasater, Mrs. M. B. Matthews, Jr., Misses Mabel Powell, Ada Overby and Gladys Strickland. Sixty guests were present. Mrs. B. P. Marshbanks of Buie's Creek and her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Johnson of Lillington, complimented the bride-elect at a buffet supper Saturday evening at the Marshbanks' home. Twelve guests were present. The hostesses were assisted in serving by Miss May Marshbanks of Chapel Hill, and Buie's Creek.
