FIVE UN DIVISIONS PLUNGE INTO REDS

Reds Refuse To Move Location Of Truce Talks

TOKYO. — (UP) — The Communists refused today to shift the Korean truce talks from Kaesong to the no-man's-land village of Songhyon.

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway promptly asked them to suggest some other site between the battle lines.

The exchange left resumption of the suspended armistice conference still possible, but only barely. While neither side budged from its basic position, neither seemed ready to take the responsibility of breaking off negotiations altogether.

North Korean Gen. Kim Il-Sung and Chinese Gen. Peng Teh-Hua rejected Ridgway's week-old proposal to move the conference to Songhyon in a note delivered at 10 a. m. (9 p. m. Wednesday EST).

NEW NOTE SENT

Only 7 1/2 hours later, the supreme United Nations commander sent this reply to the Red commanders:

"Since you reject my suggestion to meet at Songhyon, I propose that our delegations meet at a site selected by you and acceptable to me approximately midway between our respective front lines, where the armistice discussions can be promptly resumed.

"Satisfactory conditions can only be insured by moving the conference site to an area which is not under the exclusive control of either side."

Kaesong, where the Reds broke off the armistice conference Aug. 22, lies behind the Communist lines and is patrolled exclusively by Communist troops. Songhyon, proposed by Ridgway, is in the middle of no-man's-land eight miles to the southeast.

Bud A. Hodges Buried Today

Bud A. Hodges, 82, of 510 S. Magnolia Ave., pioneer Dunn citizen, died Tuesday afternoon at 12:25 at a convalescent home in Fayetteville. He had been ill for four months.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at four o'clock from the Hatcher-Skinner Funeral Home in Dunn. Burial will be in the Pleasant Grove Church cemetery. Dr. George Cuthrell will officiate at the service.

Mr. Hodges is survived by his wife, Mrs. B. A. Hodges; by three sons, T. Hodges, Malcolm and Boyd Hodges, all of Dunn; by three daughters, Mrs. O. Y. Humphrey of Fayetteville, Mrs. George Green of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mrs. James R. Gardner of Dallas, Texas. Six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren also survive.

A native of Harnett County, Mr. Hodges was a retired livestock dealer.

Arch-Rival Giants And Yankees Open World Series Play Today

By LEO H. PETERSON
(United Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK. — (UP) — Dismal grey skies and the forecast of light afternoon rains threatened today's opening game of the World Series between the New York Giants and the New York Yankees.

But the weather bureau said the rainfall probably would not be enough to postpone the game in which the comeback kings, the Giants, take on the American League champions after winning the National League playoff yesterday. If the game is postponed, it will be played tomorrow.

EARLY FANS

The threatening weather did not deter the early arrivals at flag-bedecked Yankee Stadium. They were standing in line as early as 9:15 o'clock last night for the 21,500 seats which went on sale at 9 a. m. EST for the 1 p. m. EST game. A crowd of 70,000 was forecast. (Continued on page two)

Offensive Is Biggest Since Talks Started

8TH ARMY HQ, Korea. — (UP) — Five tank-led United Nations divisions smashed ahead up to four miles from their jumpoff positions today in the biggest Allied offensive since the Korean truce talks began.

Canadian troops of the new British Commonwealth division paced the advance on the second day of the offensive flanking along a 40-mile front stretching across the western half of Korea.

The Canadian 25th brigade seized its hill objectives west of Yonchon against light resistance. It pushed the Canadian's line three to four miles north of the positions from which they lashed out at the enemy Wednesday dawn.

BITTER RESISTANCE

Elsewhere along the offensive front, however, fanatic Chinese and North Korean Communists put up bitter resistance and in two cases forced slight U.N. withdrawals.

The Reds were making their principle stand along a 10-mile gap from west of Yonchon to Chongwon. An 8th Army briefing officer said the fighting at some points west of Yonchon was "fairly rough."

The Chinese and North Koreans fought to the death from bunkers and deep entrenchments, some of them dug into the sheer sides of rocky cliffs on the mountainous front.

U. N. tanks ranging up to 52-ton British Centurions moved up to blast bunkers pointblank. Flame-throwers hurled liquid fire through gun apertures to cremate the defenders.

The 8th Army was assaulting the enemy's "Little Siegfried Line," designed to protect the main north-west highways in western Korea and perfected during the lull in the fighting which followed the start of the Kaesong truce talks.

Boone Trail Fair To Open

The annual Agricultural Fair at Boone Trail School will be held Friday and Saturday. Many attractive premiums are being offered. Premiums are being offered on practically all farm produce, cattle, poultry, cakes and candies, handwork, antiques, and many other items.

The fair will be officially opened at 1 P. M. by Superintendent Glenn T. Proffit of the Harnett County Schools. At 2:00 o'clock Coach Jack Cashion's "Football Six" will play the Broadway team on the Boone Trail Athletic Field. At 7:00 o'clock, an old-time program of string music will be held in the auditorium. Plan to attend the Boone Trail Fair Friday and Saturday.

Russia Now Capable Of All-Out Atomic Warfare; Congress May Act Today

WASHINGTON. — Russia now is capable of starting all-out war and will follow up its second A-bomb blast with frequent tests of better atomic weapons, congressional and atomic experts said today.

Russia's desperate effort to match the United States in history's grimest arms race brought calls for:

1. More billions of dollars—perhaps up to $10,000,000,000 a year—to expand vastly U. S. atomic production, and
2. Creation quickly of a civil defense program—now dragging its feet for lack of funds—which would be capable of at least mitigating the horrors of a sneak atomic attack.

IN MOOD FOR ACTION

The White House announcement yesterday that Russia had "recently" exploded "another atomic bomb" did not take congressional and other authorities exactly by surprise. But it put them in a mood for action.

Crusade Campaign Is Now Underway

Woodrow Turlington of Dunn, chairman of the Harnett County Crusade for Freedom drive, reported today that the campaign is progressing satisfactorily, but urged citizens to send in their contributions immediately.

Chairman Turlington is directing the drive in Harnett to help finance the program to establish free radio to Europe and Asia.

Mr. Turlington has placed coin boxes in drug stores and other public places throughout the county and has also appointed workers in each of the various communities.

FIRST REPORT

The first report showed more than $200 contributed to the campaign.

"Harnett County's quota is small," pointed out Mr. Turlington, prominent Dunn business man, "but we certainly want to raise it and to exceed the amount if at all possible."

Mr. Turlington reminded that fighting the Communists with the truth is far more effective and also cheaper than fighting them with bullets.

Atlantic Hurricane Veering To Sea

NORFOLK, Va. — (UP) — A howling Atlantic hurricane veered seaward today after drenching coastal hamlets and buffeting them with near-gale force winds.

A six-year-old boy was washed off a ship during the storm and was believed drowned. One vessel stranded in Chesapeake Bay last night and a steamer ran aground briefly off Cape Henry, Va., today in high seas kicked up by the blow.

Although the storm was still classified as a hurricane, the latest (Continued on page two)

Markets

DUNN TOBACCO MARKET
Tobacco was selling high again today on the Dunn Tobacco Market, and indications point to a block sale again on Friday. Yesterday, the market sold 123,500 pounds for $74,119.25, an average of $60.74.

Of this amount, the Big-4 sold 104,982 pounds for $55,235.04, an average of $52.68, and the Farmers sold 25,000 pounds for $15,891.24, an average of $63.56. Sales for the year total $2,553,220 (Continued On Page Two)

Ebenezer Church Sets Harvest Sale

The Ebenezer Presbyterian Church of Benson Route 1, will hold its Harvest Day sale Saturday October 6 at 1:30 p. m.

Site of the sale will be between Adhalla's store and the M & B Radio Sales and Service. The general public is urged to attend this sale and aid in the work of this church.

Dr. George T. Noel Now At Kannapolis

Dr. George T. Noel, widely-known eye surgeon and a native of Dunn, has opened offices in the Cabarrus Bank and Trust Company Building in Kannapolis. It was learned here today.

He is the son of Mrs. George T. Noel of Dunn and the late Mr. Noel. The family has been prominent in the affairs of Dunn for many years.

Dr. Noel went to Kannapolis from Florence, S. C., where he was associated with the Mobley-Stokes Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Clinic.

The Dunn native was graduated from Wake Forest College in 1924 and from the Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, in 1928. For six years he practiced general medicine at Lancaster, S. C.

In 1930, he attended graduate school at Harvard in Boston, then was resident in ophthalmology at Washington University and Barnes Hospital in St. Louis.

Dr. Noel was made a diplomate (Continued on page two)

BULLETINS

WASHINGTON. — (UP) — Senate Majority Leader Ernest W. McFarland has set an adjournment goal of Oct. 13, and hopes to wind up this session of Congress no later than Oct. 20.

WASHINGTON. — (UP) — The Navy has announced plans to put a $25,000,000 guided missile plant into operation near Bristol, Tenn., early in 1953.

NORFOLK, Va. — (UP) — The Coast Guard said it received an S-O-S message early today from a steamer aground in heavy seas off Cape Henry, Va.

Movie Celebrities Coming To Dunn Next Wednesday

Hadacol Co. Is Bankrupt

WASHINGTON. — (UP) — The Federal Trade Commission today ordered the makers of Hadacol to prove their product is good for something besides joke by radio comedians.

The FTC charged that the patent medicine men, who only yesterday filed a voluntary petition of bankruptcy, have failed to live up to a 1950 promise to stop making extravagant claims about the curative and pep-you-up powers of Hadacol.

The commission scheduled a hearing on the charges for Nov. 26 at LaFayette, La., headquarters of the LeBlanc Corp., which makes Hadacol. Among those named as defendants were Dudley J. LeBlanc, creator and now sales manager for Hadacol, and Richard L. Brown, general manager. LeBlanc was president of the (Continued on page two)

Many See Series On Television

Scores of citizens in this section watched the World Series by television today.

Reception yesterday was unusually good. A number of people had sets delivered earlier this week just for the series.

Dr. C. B. Codrington, well-known physician, reports that: "I couldn't ask for better television since the Greensboro station increased its power." Dr. Codrington's set was installed by Furdie Equipment Company of Dunn.

Comet Rice Is New Addition To The Record

Comet Rice, now celebrating its 50th anniversary, today joins other nationally-advertised products on The Daily Record's Thursday Food Page.

Throughout America, Thursday is food day for American newspapers and housewives have learned to make out their shopping lists from these ads.

Housewives throughout this section depend on Thursday's issue of The Record to do their weekend grocery shopping.

The "Golden Anniversary Pack" of Comet Rice goes on the market from coast to coast this fall. Fifty years ago Comet was the first and only brand of rice to be packaged at the mill and nationally advertised. For several decades it was the only nationally advertised rice.

Consistent advertising for fifty years and an enlightened management attitude toward advertising, sales, trade relations, and finest quality of the product have made and kept Comet Rice the leader in its field.

Throughout this fall and winter, from October 1 through January, Comet Rice advertisements will appear each week in this newspaper. Housewives are reminded that this "First Rice Packaged 50 Years Ago" is "Still First Choice Today" in millions of American homes.

As an education service to teach housewives the many different ways rice can be prepared and served, an attractive 4-color book, "Rice Recipes Old & New," with many natural color illustrations, is offered free to customers sending their name and address with a Comet Rice box top to Comet Rice Mills, Beaumont, Texas.

Officials to attend Mayor Ralph E. Hanna, President Eugene W. Smith of the Dunn Chamber of Commerce, Chairman Lofton A. Part of the Harnett County Board of Commissioners, E. H. Boat, manager of Erwin Mills, and other city and county dignitaries will be on hand to welcome the Hollywood celebrities and to join in a great tribute to the motion picture industry.

The "Movietime, U. S. A." campaign was launched in this section Monday exclusively in The Daily Record, which was selected over all other media to help promote the Golden Anniversary celebration of the industry.

A total of 191 personalities will visit various exchange centers throughout the United States. This number includes 128 players, 33 writers, 16 director, and 14 producers.

In each of the exchange areas the personalities will follow a program of activities already arranged by the local area committee. These activities will include greeting the governor, mayors, and other dignitaries, appearances before civic organizations and interviews with (Continued on page two)

Woman Injured At Lillington

Mrs. Joy Nieduhr, the former Miss Joy Walsh, daughter of Dick Walsh of Lillington Route 1, was seriously injured last night at 8:30 p. m. when she was struck by an automobile in front of the Lillington Theatre.

Mrs. Nieduhr stepped into Main Street into the path of an automobile driven by L. G. Rainey of Raleigh. She was rushed to the home of Dr. A. W. Peede where she was given first aid, and then taken to Good Hope Hospital in Erwin.

She is still under care in the hospital with a possible skull fracture. X-ray photographs had not yet been analyzed to ascertain her condition.

Dunn Nash Agency Has New Manager

C. H. Ryals of Coats, who joined the staff of the Dunn-Erwin Motors Co., in March 1950, is eminently suited for the position of manager which he took over there recently.

Working on sales during all his time with the company, he has familiarized himself thoroughly with all the features for which Nash automobiles are famous.

In order to make all sales with which he was connected, entirely satisfactory to the customer, he followed through, familiarizing himself thoroughly with the necessary adjustments that invariably follow the sale of a new automobile.

Working in close cooperation with the five mechanics of the service department, and himself, familiar with all Nash parts, he assures the customer that they will be afforded the best in service, not only on the cars he sells, but any other make as well.

Another new addition to the office family at Dunn-Erwin Motors (Continued on page two)
