

Teen Tattle Tales

By LINDA AYCOCK
Hello, there, guys and gals. It looks like fair weather again and a bit warm too. That's one thing you never can tell anything about, so be prepared for anything!

Well, Virginia Lee Vann, which is it, Billy Ray Godwin or Russell Carter? They're both very cute and very pligible!

Too bad the Baby Greenwaves got whipped, but they'll come through next Wednesday. Cary won't know what hit them.

Patricia Lanier certainly has knocked the boys for a loop. Please, Pat, leave us some.

Woody Hill wants to know how to get to the Free Will Baptist Orphanage. Is it the orphanage, Woody, or the house across the way.

The band is on its way to Durham to attend the State-Duke game tomorrow. Everyone plans to have a big time watching Duke trample State.

A student in Penn State's famous fishing class had hooked a very small trout and had wound it in "till it was rammed against the end of the rod."

"What do I do now?" she cried excitedly.
"Climb up the rod and stab it," she was told.

Seen around:
Gaylia Dudley wearing a black jacket.
Peggy Stevenson and Eddie Thomas keeping warm Wednesday.

Rain! Rain! Rain! (We shore did need it!)
Beautiful movie stars.
Buddy Buck with Annette Barefoot.

Jane Westbrook and Katherine White just wishing for basketball season.
Eibelyn Maxwell with a new hair-do, cute, too!

Virginia Turlington just looking around.
Ditto for Everette Turlington.
Mr. Braswell in Fitchetts!
William Moody dreaming of Pat Lanier.

Daphne Parker as cute as ever.
Betsy Ann Tart in a good-looking green skirt.

Juniors still waiting for their class rings. Just can't wait, can you?
Faye Jackson up town in Fitchett's every day.

Charles Maynard and Joyce Godwin always smiling.
The same goes for Joy Lou Edwards and D. B. Register.

Harold Bass still alone.
Raymond West as witty as ever!
Coach Waggoner going around grabbing everybody's shoulder where it hurts!

Posters in Fire Prevention Week all over!
Jackie Alphone as dark as can be.
Georgia on Miss Barker's mind.
Everyone brooding over the outcome of the World Series.

Margaret Lee Naylor still mixed-up with boys, boys, and more boys on her mind.
Purple skirts, purple sweaters, purple everything.
Jo Hackett promoted to the Dunn Theatre!

Frances Register always thinking of Skippy Smith.

Have you noticed the new couple around school? They are brother and sister instead of sweethearts. Names? Oh, Lloyd and Velma Elackburn.

Dunn was honored with Penny Edwards', Craig Hill's and Laurie Nelson's presence Wednesday! Everyone was really excited at the first glimpse of them. Shore are purty and Craig is really handsome too. The writer, Isabel Dawn, was very impressive. They were on tour as part of "Movietime, U. S. A.," a new progression of the motion picture industry.

No sportsman takes his favorite sport more seriously or plays it more intensely than the golfer.

A chap returned from a long day on a near-by course. His wife kissed him and remarked that their son had just come in, too.
"He says he's been caddying for you," she added brightly.

"By golly," exclaimed the golfer, "no wonder that kid looked so familiar!"

Test-time is coming up again. Remember report cards next week. Better put up those comic books and get out the history and biology books! There's nothing that compares with a hard test, oh, brother!!!

We had a whalloping pep rally last night. It certainly ought to bring out all the folks for the ball game tonight. Our school spirit certainly hasn't fallen through this year, so everybody come on out tonight and watch Dunn tangle with Rockingham. It ought to be a pretty good game! See you there!

The best cure for worry, depression, melancholy, brooding, is to go deliberately forth and try to lift with one's sympathy the gloom of somebody else.

Methodists At Erwin Begin Loyalty Drive

At a meeting of twenty-seven interested workers a Church Loyalty Program was launched last Monday evening in the Assembly room of the basement of the Erwin Methodist Church. The group decided to urge every member and friend of the church to be present at the 11 o'clock service. (We hope all will come also for the Church School at 9:45 A. M.)

The whole Loyalty Program will be explained at this service. The Pastor will preach on "The Supreme Loyalty," a message long enough to challenge and short enough that the sermon and other features of the service will last only an hour. In the service popular and great hymns will be sung (More than usual).

MEMBERS OF GROUP
The group that decided upon and launched the Loyalty Program were: Owen Bennett, Jack Brock,

Clyde Crawford, Mrs. Ludie Fowler, G. V. Fowler, B. B. Hudson, R. A. Hughes, Otto Lambert, W. H. Muse, Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Norris, Paul Parker, Bobby Pate, Rev. and Mrs. D. A. Petty, Mrs. J. H. Price, Curwood Sessoms, Sherrill Stancil, A. L. Oldham, Jr., Payton Odum, Byron Stevens, D. T. Stutta, Miss Pearl Surles, Mrs. E. R. Thomas, Jr., Clarence Turnage, I. W. Tyndall and Marvin West.

Plans were made to have a Church Roll-Call and Fellowship dinner at the church a week from Sunday. Every member and friend will be asked to pledge anew Loyalty to our Church and Lord.

At the conclusion of the meeting a group of the men served delightful refreshments, and the evening was finished with the group singing lustily some of the popular and great hymns.

Black's Chapel Revival Is Set

Annual revival services will begin at Black's Chapel Methodist Church, on Fayetteville Highway, next Sunday evening, October 14 at 7:30 p. m. and continue through Sunday evening, October 21 with the exception of Saturday night.

The Rev. Mr. J. E. Sponenberg, Pastor of the Methodist Church at Princeton, N. C. will be the guest preacher. The Rev. Mr. Sponenberg is a graduate of Asbury College and Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, Kentucky. Mr. Sponenberg is a young minister and a good evangelist. The public is cordially invited to attend of these services.

James D. Lee At Aviation School

James D. Lee, airman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Lee of Route 2, Four Oaks, N. C., is now attending the Aviation Structural Mechanic School at the U. C. Naval Air Technical Training Center, Memphis, Tenn. Lee, who entered the Naval service in November, 1950, received his recruit training at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.
