Church Circles At Lillington Hold Meeting

Circles of the Women of the Lillington Presbyterian Church, which met in regular session on Tuesday afternoon and night, received favorable comment on the recent district conference held here on October 4 with which they assisted.

At that time, around 130 visitors, chiefly women who belong to night circles in districts 1, 2, 1 and 8 of the Fayetteville Presbytery, attended the meeting.

Supper was served at the Lillington Community House by the local Presbyterian women. The program, featuring inspirational addresses and reports of conference officers followed at the church.

Tables were decorated with mock oranges, persimmons and sprays of ivy, while long leaf pine festooned the thick mantel. Chicken salad, accessories, coffee and cup cakes were served. Mrs. W. E. Salmon was dinner chairman.

Miss Lois J. Lamphie of Red Springs, district chairman, presided and chief speakers were Mrs. Lacy Godwin, president of the women in the Fayetteville Presbytery, and Mrs. Gerald Wright, both of Fayetteville. They talked on the twin topics, "Faith and Works," a theme which was emphasized at all end-of-the-year church meetings.

Mrs. Julian Hutaff of Fayetteville, who is president of the women in the North Carolina Synod was a special guest. She is also a member of the advisory board of the Southern Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis and son, Frankie, left Holman Air Force Base near Alamogordo, New Mexico this week for a return to Lillington. Mr. Lewis has completed his enlistment in the Air Force. The Lewises plan a vacation in Colorado Springs, Colo., and also
