No Foul Play In Death Of Dr. Covner

NAHANT, Mass. (U)—Dr. Albert R. Covner, whose body was found in a lonely woods Saturday, was "driven to distraction" by pranksters calling at all hours and asking if he wanted to hire a baby sitter, police said today. Relatives and police also said Covner was "tired and disgusted" because of the publicity he had received when his 15-year-old baby sitter, Roberta McCauley, and two girl friends took $18,000 from his home to finance a New York spree. Harvard medical school pathologists studied Covner's vital organs to learn whether he died of a heart attack or killed himself because he was unnerved by pranksters who called him day and night. A medical examiner ruled out foul play in Covner's death.

Tart-Fowler Party Honored At Buffett Before Rehearsal

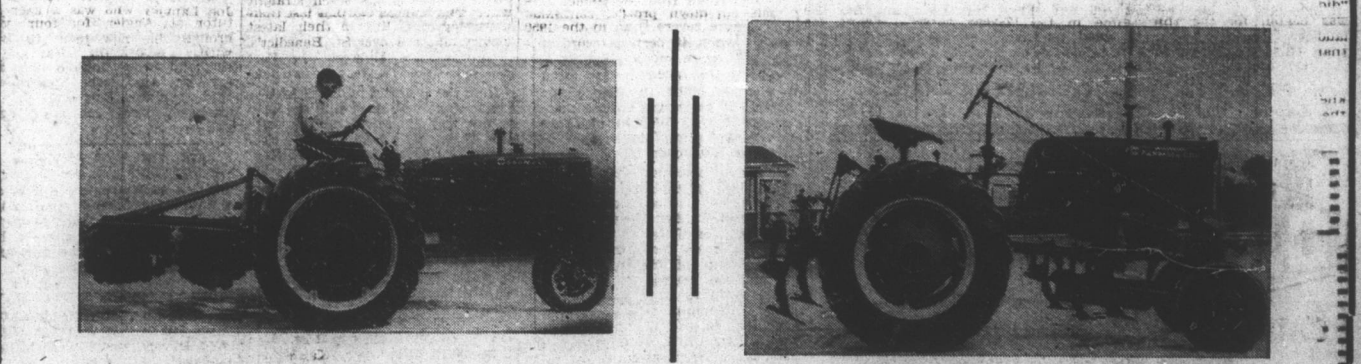

Mrs. Jerry Butler and Mrs. Shelton Butt entertained the Tart-Fowler wedding party, out-of-town guests and close friends at a buffet supper Friday night before the rehearsal.

For the formal affair the Butt house was beautifully decorated with lovely flowers. In the den four knotty pine tables covered with dark green fringed cloths were centered with white bird cages holding red geraniums. Red geraniums were used on the side tables and desk also. In the living room the honoree's table was centered with a milk glass swan holding snapdragons, niums and baby breath, flanked by candles on a dark green cloth. In the hall a colonial card table was used centered pink asters in a silver bowl on a green cloth. The piano held a huge silver urn of shaggy white chrysanthemums.

In the dining room food was served from a buffet which was centered with a silver gallery tray filled with white mums, and white carnations. Candles cascaded from the flowers. On arrival guests were served tomato juice cocktails and cheese straws. They were invited into the dining room where plates were given by Mrs. Vic Anderson. Baked ham was served by Mrs. Jerry Butler. Mrs. Marvin Wade Jr. served heavenly salad, parsley potatoes and broccoli. Rolls and coffee was served with little Helen Butt assisting in serving lemon tarts. Chocolate mints were served after dinner. Around 58 guests were present.
