Hallowe'en Marked Tricks And Tragedies

By UNITED PRESS

The nation's youngsters celebrated Halloween last night with "treats or tricks" —and tragedles. At least of tricks —and tragedies.
At least 30 persons were injured in Pittsburgh when three gas explosions ripped through the Beltzhoover section of the city as a parade of costumed children approached.

Whenever bad cold season rolls around, people are always swapping semedies on how to cure themalthough nobody has, as yet, found a sure-fire remedy. Not even Hadacol!

That's what Roger Crowe and some friends were doing the other night while having coffee.

Roger, who believes a hot lemonade is the best remedy, told a story on himself.

A few years ago, he came down with a terrible cold and got out of bed just-long enough to boil the water for his hot lemonade.

He took a couple of lemons and really fixed a good one.

"But I thought the lemonade tasted mighty weak," related Roger.

Ike Puts Duty First, Quiet On Candidacy

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON (P) — The White House announced today that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will fly home from his French headquarters tomorrow night for a two-day conference with President Truman on Western European military problems.

By LYLE C. WILSON (UP Staff Correspondent)

ROCQUENCOURT, France — (UP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will put duty before all other considerations in 1952. But to the $64 question he has no answer.

The question is: Will you be a 1952 candidate for President of the United States? Gen. Ike isn't saying. He isn't saying "Yes" and he isn't saying "No."

I had a conversation with Eisenhower today at his North Atlantic Treaty Organization headquarters. The general replied smilingly to the political questions of a Washing-ton reporter. But the time has not vet come when he can answer them One statement only may be at-tributed directly to Ike. He said he did not aspire to the presidency.

He has said that before. Before the 1948 presidential campaign, the general wrote his cheering section that he did not want to be Presi-dent of the United States.

But when Ike puts duty first, it does not appear to foreclose his acceptance of the Republican presidental nomination next year. There can be no doubt in his mind of any person who listens to the general now or who read his speeches dur-ing his brief time out of uniform that Gen. Ike will be a Republican

The general's "duty" to his pres-ent job 2 SHAPE was to put Wes-tern military rearmament against communism on the rails. It is railborne now although not moving fast. There is at least as much rea son to believe the general would feel able to return to civilian life in 1952 as to believe otherwise.

Sen. James H. Duff is coming here mext month "to get a green light from Ike" for the campaign to nominate him on the Republican to nominate him on the kepublican is likely to be disappointed. He is one of 100 or so members of Congress who are arranging to see the general during the recess.

City Manager Club Speaker

Speaking at a meeting of the Disciples' Club at the Hood Memorial Christian Church last night, City Manager O. O Manning, outlined some of the problems facing the citizens of the community, and progress that has been made in solving some of them.

Using as his topic, "Our Part in Building a Better Community," Manning told the group that these problems present a challenge to citizens to work together for civic betterment.

C. H. Dudley, sign supervisor for the State Highway and Public Works Commission has been working with him on one of the problems, that of street marking, he said. Work has already been started on center lithing payement and some center islands will be erected at strategic locations.

A series of articles in newspapers and on the radio is in prospect, he said, for his cleanup campaign.

"Christian living, too, presents a challenge," he told the group, "and by our example and influence we can do a lot for our churches."

Wayne Justesen presided at his first meeting since his election as president of the church group. The speaker was introduced by Jerry Butler.

Dr. George Outhrell, pastor of the church, treed as many of the members as possible to attend the fortkoming conference at Goldsborn.
