

Presbyterian Ladies Hold Book Review

The Women of the Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mrs. E. M. Lassiter Sr. Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock for the review of their Home Missions Book, "By Faith"

Mrs. R. M. Phillips called the meeting to order and the group sang "The Dixology." The ladies then bowed their heads for a few moments of silent prayer led by Mrs. Phillips and closed by Mrs. Lassiter.

Following several announcements, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Fulton Godwin, home missions secretary, who was in charge of the book review.

Mrs. Godwin introduced the speakers and gave the name of the chapter each one reviewed.

They are as follows: Mrs. S. J. Clark, Sr., "I'll Go Lord, Send Me"; Mrs. C. E. Ralston, "All Things to All Men"; Mrs. J. C. Graham, "His Whisper Came to Me"; Mrs. John Henry Wilson, "Give Me Boys, God Bless Them"; Mrs. Billy Lassiter, "Where Crossed the Crowded Ways." Mrs. Godwin reviewed the final chapter entitled "Attempting Great Things For God," and following this she expressed her appreciation to those who took part on the program.

An offering was then taken for the Home Mission Fund and Mrs. Phillips closed the meeting with a dedicatory prayer for this.

Immediately following the Book Review Mrs. Phillips called a meeting of the Executive Board, and during the meeting the board members discussed the stove fund and it was decided to ask each circle member to give a dollar to this fund at the next circle meeting.

Mrs. W. Ballentine volunteered to cut flowers in the church during the revival.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Lassiter served pimento cheese sandwiches, cookies and hot chocolate. Twenty-one ladies were present for the meetings.

BRIDE HONORED — Mrs. I. F. Hicks entertained at a lovely tea Friday afternoon from four until six o'clock honoring Mrs. Faison Mosley Hicks, a recent bride. Mrs. Palmer Davis, a recent bride, and Miss Eleanor Goddard, bride-elect, were also honored. Standing behind the beautifully decorated tea table are Mrs. Davis, Miss Alice Hicks, sister-in-law of the honoree, Mrs. I. F. Hicks, Mrs. Faison Mosley Hicks and Miss Goddard. Mrs. T. S. Sanson and Mrs. Beulah Graham are shown at either end of the table.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my appreciation to the people of Lillington for the many kindnesses shown me and my family during the long illness of my husband, T. T. Matthews, and particularly during the recent serious operations he has undergone.

Now, I thank God, he is on the road to recovery, and I especially want to thank the blood donors, the ministers, the church circles, Bible classes and members of the Norwood Brick Company for many kind favors. The thoughtful friends who have written letters to him will be long remembered by all the family. May God bless you each and everyone.

Couple Wed Saturday In Angier Church

Miss Rachel Ann King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Drewey King of Willow Springs, and Eiton Frederick Tripp of Lancaster, S. C. were united in marriage at Providence Presbyterian Church near Angier Saturday afternoon in a candlelight ceremony. Mr. Tripp is the son of Mrs. Benjamin L. Tripp of Kinston and the late Mr. Tripp.

The Rev. E. H. Dulen officiated at the double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Sarah Ann King, organist and Mrs. Lacy Johnson, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length dress of Chantilly lace over bridal satin. Her veil of imported illusion was held in place by a Mary Queen of Scots bonnet, and she carried a white Bible topped with a white purple-throated orchid showered with stephanotis.

Mrs. Cecil Edward Langdon of Garner was her sister's matron of honor. Her ballerina-length dress was of Nile green velvet and she carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums and Tullian roses. Her headpiece was a halo of velvet and net.

Miss Norma Jean Roberts and Mrs. James D. Morris, cousins of the bride, were the bridesmaids. Their dresses, styled like that of the matron of honor, were of forest green velvet and their haloes were also of velvet and net. They carried bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums.

Alton Roderick Tripp was his twin brother's best man, and ushers included Cecil Edward Langdon and

Miss Sessoms Wed At Newton Grove

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Sessoms of Durham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Alvin Sessoms of Newton Grove and James Oliver Gant of Durham was solemnized recently at Oak Grove Free Will Baptist Church in Newton Grove.

The Rev. William Burkette Raper of Durham officiated at the double ring ceremony in a setting of magnolia boughs, white chrysanthemums, gladioli, dahlias and wrought iron candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of duchess satin with imported lace trim, fastened with Peter Pan collar, fitted bodice and bouffant skirt which ended in a short train. Her veil fell from a bonnet of lace and net embroidered with pearls. She carried her great-grandmother's prayer book topped with white orchids and showered with stephanotis and lilies of the valley.

Miss Vivian Roberson of Durham was maid of honor and Mrs. Ira Ray Whitfield of Durham

Henry Curtis Sessoms of Tacoma, Washington, sister-in-law of the bride, served as matron of honor. Miss Willa Grey Warren of Chapel Hill was the bridesmaid. Honorary bridesmaids included Agnes Ellledge, Emma Ruth Darden and Mrs. R. F. Waynick of Durham, Mary Todd Westbrook and Mrs. Harold Stewart of Dunn, Mrs. Henry West of Olin and Mrs. Kyoji Bass, Mrs. Gilbert Vash, Mrs. C. I. Godwin and Mrs. Felton Godwin of Newton Grove.

The miniature bride and groom were Patricia Williams and William David Godwin. Ira Ray Whitfield of Durham was best man and ushers were Col. Henry C. Sessoms of Tacoma, Washington, brother of the bride, Felton Godwin of Newton Grove, Franklin House, Norfolk, Va., both cousins of the bride, and Miss Galianakis and Albert Hight, both of Durham. Following the wedding, the party of the bride entertained at a reception at their home. Mrs. Gant was graduated from the Westbrook High School and the Kenner Commercial School in Durham. Mr. Gant was graduated from the University of Kentucky. They will make their home in Durham.

Miss Goddard Honored At Bridge Party

Miss Eleanor Goddard, bride-elect, was honored at bridge Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Miss Emily O'Kelly of Manchester and Miss Electa Maynard were joint hostesses for the event. Members of Miss Goddard's bridge club were present.

The party was given at the home of Mrs. John Olcoone. Chrysanthemums in white and shades of pink to deep red were used throughout the house. Magnolia banked the fireplace.

The dining room table contained a lovely centerpiece of pink and white, flanked by white candles in silver branched candelabra.

Each of the auxiliary tables was decorated with a dainty bouquet of vari-colored mums with the exception of the honoree's which held a centerpiece of all-white chrysanthemums marked Miss Goddard's place.

Mrs. J. Ellison Goddard, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Reta Whitton were guests for dessert.

The sweet course consisted of block ice cream, decorated individual cakes, cashew nuts and coffee.

During progressions soft drinks and cheese wafers were served.

Miss Elizabeth Ray Cromartie and Mrs. Gerald Mann were winners of the high score award and Miss Louise McGugan received traveling prize.

Miss O'Kelly and Miss Maynard presented Miss Goddard a silver vegetable bowl.

Those present for the bridal bridge party were the honored guests, Miss Goddard, Mrs. Paul L. Strickland, Mrs. J. B. Rouse, Jr., Miss Sybil Barrett, Miss Kathleen Barker, Miss Jerry Cobb, Miss Elizabeth Ray Cromartie, Miss Louise McGugan, Mrs. Jack Hemingway, Mrs. Carl Fitchell, Jr., Mrs. Gerald Mann and the hostesses, Miss O'Kelly and Miss Maynard.

James D. Morris.

The bridal couple received in the vestibule of the church following the ceremony. When the couple left for their wedding trip, the bride was wearing a dark green velvet dress with matching hat and brown accessories. She wore the orchid from her Bible.

The couple will make their home in Lancaster.

Following the rehearsal Friday night, the parents of the bride entertained at a cake-cutting.

Miss Wilborn And Mr. Warren Feted At Dinner Party

Hostesses for the delightful dinner party in honor of Miss Gwenn Wilborn of Lillington and Buddy Warren of Dunn, given Saturday night, were Mrs. Guyton Smith, Mrs. Harry Fleishman and Mrs. C. G. Dunn. The dinner party was held at the home of Mrs. Smith.

Gorgeous arrangements of Fall flowers made colorful bouquets in the home. For the dinner table a beautiful arrangement of gay yellow rosebuds in a silver bowl were flanked by tall white burning tapers in silver three-branched candelabra, graced the table.

Miss Wilborn, one of the most popular bride-elects of the fall season, was presented a silver tray, six bread and butter knives and a knife and fork in her chosen silver pattern from the three hostesses.

The delicious three course dinner consisted of fruit cup, baked ham, butter beans, congealed vegetable salad, baked apples, rolls, coffee and ice cream.

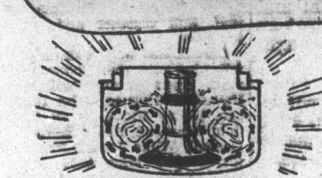

Guests for the dinner party were Miss Wilborn, Mr. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Wilborn, Miss Mildred Bradsher and Mr. Robert Morean all of Lillington, Mr. and Mrs. George Rives of White Plains, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Warren, Dick Warren, Jimmy Teyford, Miss Louise Wade, Billy Mason, Libby Mae Cromartie, Herschell Barbour, Mrs. Doug Butts and Mrs. C. I. Thompson assisted the hostess in serving.

MARRIAGE PERMITS
Mrs. Inez Harrington register of deeds, reported yesterday that the last marriage license issued in October went to Edwin Carl Bowling, 28, of Varina and Doris Guy Powell, 23, Costa. This brought to 11 the number of marriage licenses issued during October.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank all our friends for the many kindnesses shown us following the loss of our house, furniture and clothing in two recent fires. We are also grateful to the Presbyterian Church for the use of the Manse and to the women of our church for the shower of useful gifts.
