

Mrs. Woodall is Hostess To Baptist Women

Mrs. Will Woodall was hostess Tuesday evening to members of the Marjorie Spence circle of the Baptist Missionary society.

The home was decorated with autumn foliage and blooms. Mrs. Woodall, chairman of the circle, presided and the meeting was opened with the group singing hymns. A brief business session followed.

Mrs. Pauline Harmon Dixon presented a devotional using the theme, "The Lover." Miss Joy Lowery sang "In The Temple," after which Miss Wilhelmina Utley, program chairman, presented Mrs. Ethel Turlington who gave a talk on the value of setting good examples. Closing the program Miss Barbara Stewart of Coats sang "Bless This House," accompanied by Miss Utley.

During the social hour the hostess invited guests into the dining room where the refreshment table was attractively decorated in the Halloween motif with a lighted pumpkin jack-o-lantern surrounded by vari-colored autumn leaves and assorted fruits placed off-center of the table. Guests served themselves hot spiced apple juice with an old fashioned gourd from an antique china wash bowl, the hostess later passing among the guests and refilling their mugs from the antique china pitcher matching the bowl. The dining room was lighted by candles and an antique kerosene lamp placed on the table.

Guests were Mrs. Hiram Rose, Mrs. Booker Lawton, Mrs. Willis McLamb, Mrs. John Turlington, Mrs. John Creech Cagle, Mrs. W. B. Herring, Mrs. Garris Yarborough, Mrs. Ruth Kernodle, Mrs. Mil Farmer, Mrs. G. D. Knox, Mrs. Max McKnight, Mrs. Pauline H. Dixon, Mrs. Fred Johnson, Misses Wilhelmina Utley, Barbara Stewart, and Joy Lowery.
