

Epley-Goddard Plans Are Announced Today

Plans have been completed for the marriage of Miss Eleanor Goddard of Dunn to Robert E. Epley of Gettysburg, Pa. The wedding will take place at the First Presbyterian Church in Dunn at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The Rev. R. R. Chammon, pastor of the church, will officiate.

The wedding music will be presented by Mrs. Reta Whittleston, organist, and Mrs. Jack Hemmingsway, soloist. The choir of the First Presbyterian Church will also sing. The bride will have as her only attendant her sister, Miss Novella Goddard. Best man for the ceremony will be Mr. Stephen Heysler of Port Royal, Pa. Ushers will include Jack Hemmingsway and Jerry Thomas, both of Dunn, James Goddard Jr., of Memphis, Tenn., and Dick Weaver of Hanover, Pa.

Friday night following the rehearsal a cake cutting will be held at the home of the bride. Mrs. G. L. Hooper and Mrs. K. F. Howard will entertain the out-of-town guests at a luncheon Saturday.

No invitations to the wedding have been sent in Dunn, and all friends of the couple are invited to attend.

Handy-Wheeler Vows Are Said At Benson

Miss Elsie Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wheeler of Benson, became the bride of Corporal Archie Handy, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Handy of St. Paul, Minn., in a 5:00 o'clock home ceremony Saturday afternoon, November 10. Elder W. E. Turner, Primitive Baptist minister of Wilson, heard the pledging of the vows. The double ring ritual was used.

For the solemnization the Wheeler home was attractively decorated with white chrysanthemums, Oregon fern, and English ivy. Branch-cut candelabra were used.

The couple, unattended, entered the living room and stood before and improvised altar where the ceremony was performed.

For her wedding the bride was attired in a winter white two-piece suit of Milliken wool with which she wore an off-the-brow navy velvet hat featuring a rhinestone trim, navy gloves and other navy accessories. At her shoulder she wore a purple orchid.

A 1951 graduate of Benson High School the bride has been locally employed during the past few months.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Centerville High School in Centerville, Minn., has been in the U.S.
