ERWIN SCHOOLS OBSERVE AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

In observance of American Education Week, November the 11th through the 17th, the Erwin Schools proclaimed Wednesday as Visitors Day. Parents were urged to visit the school on this day, and attend their children's classes.

At 1:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon in the high school auditorium a special program by the high school juniors and the Glee Club was presented. Judith Holmes, Elladene Johnson and Tommy Davis gave interesting talks on American Education Week and what it means.

The high school glee club, under the direction of Mrs. Bob Gray sang several selections. This was the club's first public appearance this year and Mrs. Gray is certainly to be commended on her splendid work with so large a group. The club is truly one of the best in the county. Mingo School News

The seniors really had a time last Friday night. They had an all night "shin-dig," celebrating three of the girls' birthdays.

Ask Shirley, Hazel, and Pearl if they got home alright Saturday night. What happened to that Central Crowd, gals, huh?

It seems as if Clement boys are rating. They're often seen with the Mingo girls.

W. N., you must have a crush on a yellow convertible Chevrolet. Let us in on a secret.

Carolyn, we were glad to see K. M. home over the weekend. Is he studying hard at U. N. C.?

Hazel, we hope you don't miss

JR. CLASS UNDERTAKES MAGAZINE CAMPAIGN

By SONNY CARE

The Jr. Class of Dunn High School is sponsoring the Curtis Publishing Company's annual school magazine campaign this year. The company has offered generous commissions and it is hoped that the class can raise substantial funds for the Jr.-Sr. banquet.

Meeting Thursday morning with the Company's representative Mr. C. A. Carter, the class set up its campaign organization. Group captains were appointed from each home room to head their respective classes in the campaign. Captains from Miss Wades' home room are Margaret Cathey and Everette Turlington. Those from Miss Chifford's room are Exum Kirby and Anne Byerly.

A five dollar prize has been offered for the person who sells the most subscriptions over the weekend, and a Bulova wrist watch or a Zenith radio is offered to the two leading salesmen for the entire campaign; provided the class reaches its goal of $1,000 in sales.

The Jr. Class makes a special appeal to the citizens of Dunn to support the magazine campaign this year as they have in the past, and feels confident of success.

Jim too much since he came just in time to take over where R. G. left off.

We're really working hard lately. The seniors are now selling Christmas cards to finance a trip to Washington later on in the year.

Mr. Jones, our principal, is a very proud papa now. He has a daughter, Janice Modlin, who is a week old. We're distributing cigars at school. Congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Jones.

We know we'll have a good basket ball team this year since the ninth grade girls are going out for the team. Play hard, girls!

Shirley, we hope it won't be too hard for you to learn J. S.'s new address. Remember, his serial number stays the same. He is a little nearer home now.

P. M., S. P., H. F., and R. B., made a day of it Sunday. You know how

It is said that when Stalin came to inspect a Moscow insane asylum the inmates were assembled in the hall. According to instructions, they shouted, "Long live our beloved leader, the great Stalin!" All except one man, who was immediately accosted by an agent of the secret police. "Why did you not greet our beloved Comrade Stalin?" was the stern question. "Because," the man answered, "I'm not insane. I'm just the janitor."
