

Spring Branch News

By RACHEL JACKSON
 Sure seems good to see Frank Hinson home and around these days. Frank has been home from Korea for the past few weeks. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Hinson.

It seemed good to see such a good number stay for choir practice for the past two Sundays. This time maybe our number will increase and our choir really become a real choir.

Mr. Earnest Hairr is sporting a new Mercury around now. Bet it drives good, doesn't it? Also sorry to hear that Mrs. Hairr hasn't been well. Maybe, they could tell how it feels to be a new grandma and grandpa. Congratulations!!

Mr. and Mrs. Ercelle Glover were at church Sunday and visiting Mr. Glover's parents. Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Glover.

The Intermediate G. A.'s are having fun initiating their new members. How does Shelby Jean like wearing a shoe of a kind and no lipstick for a week? Where's Doris's red bow?

The Primary Dept. sure looks pretty and we have more to be added I hear. Mr. Herman Hairr has done a nice job of painting and Mrs. Wayne Lee is directing the work and with the cooperation she has had the entire Dept. has taken on a new appearance. Thanks folks! We're all proud of it too.

Won't Pvt. Earl Grey Jackson be glad to get a furlough home and get that new Henry-J that his Daddy has waiting for him? Earl Grey is stationed at Ft. Knox, Ky., with the 391 M. P. Bn.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Williford were paid a visit Sunday afternoon by Mrs. Williford's father, sister, and brothers.

Joyce Jackson spent the day Sunday with Shirley Hairr and Shirley returned the visit by spending the night with Joyce. I bet they raided the refrigerator before they "hit the hay!"

The Y. W. A. met Monday night at the home of their counselor, Mrs. W. W. Williford. The meeting was called to order by the president, Thelma Beasley and business was discussed. The group chose names to join the Secret Sisters Club.

The Christmas plans were discussed and also, November 30 was chosen as the date for the study course which will be held at the home of Misses Joyce and Jaunita Lee. The minutes of the last meeting and the treasurer's report were given by the secretary and treasurer, Rachel Jackson. Joyce Lee then presented a program of mission activities.
