

ELEANOR GODDARD IS WED TO ROBERT EPLEY ON SATURDAY

Miss Eleanor Goddard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ellison Goddard became the bride of Robert E. Epley in a beautiful candlelight ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church on Saturday afternoon at 5:00.

The vows took place before a beautiful setting of tall seven branched candelabra entwined with green, fern and tall vases of white snapdragons, white daisy chrysanthemums and white gladiolus.

Rev. Richard Rhea Gammon conducted the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Rhea Whitenton, organist, played wedding music prior to the ceremony and Mrs. Jack Hemingway, soloist, sang "Because." The Presbyterian Choir under the direction of Mrs. E. W. Smith, Jr., sang "O Promise Me" and "Bless You" as a benediction.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin. The bodice featured a yoke of illusion with border of Queen Anne's lace outlined in seed pearls and rhinestones. The full skirt extended into a long slender train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a small bonnet of white satin edged with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and showered with Stephanotis and white satin ribbon.

Miss Novella Goddard was her sister's only attendant. She wore a Nile green gown of satin and net. Her headdress and mitts were of matching net, and she carried an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums tied with yellow satin ribbon.

The bridegroom was attended by Stephen Heyser of Port Royal, Pa., as best man. Ushers were Richard Weaver of Hanover, Pa., Jack Hemingway of Dunn, Jerry Thomas of Dunn, cousin of the bride, and James E. Goddard, Jr. of Memphis Tenn., brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony, the couple greeted guests informally in the church vestibule. They left immediately afterwards for a wedding trip through the western part of the State.

For traveling the bride chose a black suit with pink feather hat, pink blouse and black accessories. She wore the orchid from her prayer book.

The bride's parents entertained members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests at an informal reception and cake cutting Friday evening immediately after the rehearsal in the church parlor.
