CLIFF BUTLER

We are sure you recognize Cliff. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Butler who live on N. Ellis Avenue. His dad is a druggist at Butler and Carroll Drug Store. Maybe that is why Cliff is such a fine, healthy boy - guess he takes pills from his daddy's store! Whatever makes Cliff like he is though, must be fine stuff. He is as nice a five-year-old boy as you would want to meet. He plays well with other children, is obedient, and kind. Cliff likes the usual things all boys do - guns, planes, trains, fire engines and just about everything. He also enjoys painting, clay modeling and crayon drawing, and turns out some interesting things at school. He is a well-rounded little boy, with a nice personality, and here is another pupil that will make some first grade teacher mighty happy next fall.

MRS. MARGARET SLOAN FETED BY HER CHILDREN ON SUNDAY

Mrs. Margaret W. Sloan of Broadway, Route 1, was the guest of honor at an open house given on Sunday, November 11, from 2 to 5 p. m. at the Sloan home by her children. Mrs. Inez Harrington and Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Sloan of Lillington.

The party marked the occasion of the 82nd birthday anniversary of Mrs. Sloan.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Harrington and her son, Edwin Harrington. Mr. and Mrs. Sloan presented callers to the guest of honor who received with her sister, Mrs. Mattie McLeod.

An unusual color scheme of du-bennet and white was carried out in the decorations and refreshments. Small chrysanthemums in the wine red and white were used in various parts of the house. In the dining room the table was centered with a white tow tiered cake scattered with small du-bennet rose-buds. Candles in the dark shade burned in crystal holders on either side of the cake.

Mrs. Ned McLeod invited guests to the register where Mrs. Cyrus McNeill presided. Mrs. Margaret Harrington directed friends to the dining room where Mrs. John Harrington served small individual cakes and Miss May McLeod served punch. Nut and minis were served by Miss Fay Sauls of Raleigh. Mrs. James Buchanan and Mrs. Hurst Thomas of Sanford.

Around 100 guests from Broadway, Jonesboro Heights, Sanford, Raleigh and Lillington called during the afternoon.

Two Wedding Permits Given

Marriage licenses were issued by Mrs. Inez Harrington, Hargett County register of deeds, to the following couples:
On November 16 to Seth Eldridge Tart, 65, Erwin and Katherine Moore O'Neill, 31, Neuse.
On November 17 to Glenwood Martin Caviness, 27, of Holly Springs, Route 1 and Mary Frances Abernathy, 21, Fuquay Springs, Route 1.

Army, Air Force, Navy and Marine Corps camps and stations now provide "trailer parks" so that GIs can keep their families together in these mobile homes.

Mrs. Sloan received an orchid corsage from her children and many lovely gifts from the friends who came to extend "many happy returns" of the day on this occasion.

The visitors were guests of their sister, Mrs. Walter Lee Johnson and Mr. Johnson at a family dinner party given on Saturday night. On Sunday they visited Mr. and Mrs. John W. Spears at their home.
