ROME — (UP) — Atlantic Pact leaders have abandoned all plans to get a single German soldier available for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's army before 1953 at the earliest, authoritative sources said today.

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia — (UP) — Search by air and artillery for a U. S. Air Force plane and its four-man crew widened to cover five countries today.

WASHINGTON — (UP) — The U. S. A-bomb has scored a notable victory in Korea without ever leaving this country. It has forced the Reds to abandon the massed maneuver tactics with which they came close to overwhelming outnumbered United Nations forces.

PARIS — (UP) — Russia's long boycott of United Nations Secretary General Trygve Lie seemed ending today.

WASHINGTON — (UP) — House tax investigators said today they will be "badly handicapped" in open hearings starting Monday if President Truman fails to make available Justice Department tax files.

KEY WEST, Fla. — (UP) — Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson flies back to Washington today after two days with President Truman and talks that may influence the 1952 political picture.

YONKERS, N. Y. — (UP) — Police looked today for an old shoe at the public incinerator. It has $17,000 worth of jewels inside.

POTTSTOWN, Pa. — (UP) — A thirteen-hour absence from home by Nancy Welsh, 13, was blamed today on a "horror" movie which so scared the girl she was afraid to go home. She said she spent the night with a girl friend, returning home when she heard a radio broadcast which reported her missing.

HONG KONG — (UP) — A Peiping radio broadcast said today that North Korea had cabled to the United Nations an allegation that Allied forces had killed or starved to death 17,000 Chinese and North Korean war prisoners.

LOS ANGELES — (UP) — Police and FBI agents investigated today a report that a pouch of confidential military information was stolen from an Air Force officer in a Skid Row bar.

TERAN — (UP) — Thousands of Iranians gave Premier Mohammed Mossadegh a thunderous ovation upon his return by air today from a visit to the United States and Egypt.

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Some administration officials are conceding privately today that President Truman will fail to win Senate approval for his nomination of Gen. Mark W. Clark to be American ambassador to the Vatican.

PARIS — (UP) — A United Nations committee voted over Russia's protest today to put a special watch on the explosive Balkans because of the aggressive enmity of the Soviet bloc toward Yugoslavia.

McALESTER, Okla. — (UP) — A kindly judge today was expected to suspend a five-year sentence he passed on a 19-year-old bandit because he was "impressed" with the convict's behavior during a one-night stay in the penitentiary.

WASHINGTON — (UP) — The government's new cost of living index is expected to show only a fractional rise in prices—but enough to give more than 1,000,000 CIO auto workers a one cent an hour wage raise.

LONDON — (UP) — The Ministry of Food announced today that the bacon ration will be raised to four ounces a week instead of three beginning Dec. 2.

NEW YORK — (UP) — Four investigations were

BRINGING IN THE SHEAVES — This might well be the title of this picture taken at Falcon, as those in the 105 vehicle caravan carried in the contributions made by churches in the Pentecostal Holiness Conference as a Thanksgiving offering for Falcon Orphanage. As fast as a group of cars and trucks, similar to those in the picture could be unloaded, others took their places at the rear door of the old auditorium. When the unloading was completed, all the floor space in the building was covered. (Daily Record photo by Louis Dearborn).

Ridgway Says He's Set For Anything

8TH ARMY HQ, Korea — (UP) — Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway said today his forces "are ready for anything" the Communists may throw at them if the truce by Christmas' effort fails.

The supreme United Nations commander made his defiant statement during a visit to front-line units in western Korea, where the Communists have been hammering in rifle attacks for more than a week.

In the air, American Thunderjets damaged two MIG-15 jet fighters in beating back the first Communist challenge to American air supremacy over northwest Korea in six days.

Thirty MIG's jumped the Thunderjets while they were hitting the enemy railway lines south of Sinanju in "MIG Alley." All Thunderjets returned safely to their bases. Other Allied jet formations also sighted MIG's during the day, but none risked combat.

started today in the sideswipe-collision of two New York, New Haven and Hartford passenger trains in a tunnel under Park Avenue.

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Both State and Defense Department officials said today that progress of truce talks in Korea gave real promise that the fighting may be nearing an end, possibly by Christmas. Both were quick to point out, however, that hitches could develop.

WASHINGTON — (UP) — The Army reported today that Communist forces in Korea have suffered 1,467-40 casualties from start of the war through Nov. 14.

KANSAS CITY, Kan. — (UP) — Two men clad in white overalls, one of them armed with an M-1 Army rifle, robbed the Johnson County National Bank of $62,000 to-

FOR TREES — Pictured here are two trees, although they appear in the photograph as only half a tree. The unusual effect was caused by the cutting of two sweet gum trees, on Highway 421 about four miles west of Lumberton by the Carolina Power and Light Co., to accommodate their power lines. ing beside a stove winding his watch when the blast ripped through a metal Venetian blind on a window, dropping him to the floor.

Mrs. Boyd said Miller shouted for her to bring the car keys to him. He forced her to drive the family car a short way, then made her get into the trunk.

She said the Negro lay on the floor in the back of the car as she drove, saying "If the White folks see me riding with you they'll get me."

SEEMS PROUD OF IT
Officers said Miller talked freely of the shooting while being carried to jail. "He doesn't seem to think it's any more than taking a bag of peanuts," one officer said. "He seems kind of proud of it. He's a mean boy."

Miller was charged with first-degree murder, and authorities said they may place kidnaping charges against him.

Sheriff William Rumley described Miller as a "bad customer." He said he told a parole officer last May "I don't want him in the county because he's going to cause trouble."

brush," he said.
The boy instinctively ducked and the momentum of the bear's charge carried the huge animal on past him. As the bear stopped and turned, the youth shot it twice in the head, killing it almost instantly, John said.

The total weight of the bears came to 1,075 pounds. It took Bradshaw and a companion all afternoon to drag the bears out of the woods.

The carcasses are hanging at his family's small resort near Danbury, he said.

Along with the bears he killed a 200-pound doe, bringing his total take of 1,275 pounds of game.
