HARRIET THOMAS

Harriet is the attractive blonde daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Thomas. Her daddy is part owner of the Dunn Pharmacy, and she has a baby brother, Chuck, that must be the most wonderful brother in the world. Harriet talks about him all the time, and we get a lot of laughs over the things he does.

This is the second year for Harriet at school, and she is learning to read now. She was six before school started but she came back to take first grade with us anyway, and we are mighty proud of her progress with her "books."

Harriet is thoughtful, pleasant, and considerate. She takes responsibility well, is conscientious, and shares with all of the other children. The children appreciate and accept her judgement, because they know that she is fair.

Harriet colors and draws well, and she is learning to do mighty nice manuscript writing, too.

Wilson-Leach Vows Spoken On Saturday

Miss Ruth Aileen Leach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Archie Leach of Rockingham, became the bride of Lewis Parker Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Washington Wilson of Dunn, at a 9 o'clock ceremony on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 22, in the Divine Street Methodist Church here.

The Rev. Joyce V. Early, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride and groom, who were unattended, entered the church together. The bride was attired in a purple wool suit with pink veil, hat, shoes, face veil, and pink accessories. An orchid corsage completed her ensemble.

The bride is a graduate of Rockingham High School and for the past few years has held a position in the finance office at Fort Bragg. The groom, a graduate of Dunn High School, served 18 months in the Army Air Corps. After his discharge from the service, he attended Atlantic Christian College in Virginia.

For the past year, he has held a position in the Civilian Personnel Office at Fort Bragg.

After a short wedding trip to unannounced points, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will be at home at 815 Amarine Road in Fayetteville.
